

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

SMITH COLLEGE

Smith College was founded by Miss Sophia Smith of Hatfield, Massachusetts, who bequeathed for its establishment and maintenance $393,105.60, a sum which in 1875, when the last large payment was received and the institution was opened, amounted to nearly if not quite a half million of dollars. She also appointed the first trustees of the College, selected Northampton as its seat, and stated as its object, "the establishment and maintenance of an institution for the higher education of young women, with the design to furnish them means and facilities for education equal to those which are afforded in our colleges for young men."*

The College was incorporated and chartered by the State in March, 1871, and thereby empowered "To grant such honorary testimonials, and confer such honors, degrees, and diplomas as are granted or conferred by any university, college, or seminary in the United States." It opened in September, 1875, with fourteen students, and granted its first degrees in June, 1879.

The College is Christian, seeking to realize the ideals of character inspired by the Christian religion. It is, however, entirely unsectarian in its management and instruction. As there is no college church, the students are expected to attend the churches in the city. They are expected also to be present at the daily religious exercises of the College. A voluntary vesper service is held on Sunday afternoons in the John M. Greene Hall. The religious life of the College is further expressed in the Smith College Association for Christian Work, membership in which is open to students and faculty, whatever their religious affiliations. In this organization are united the various religious and philanthropic activities of the College.

* The Rev. John M. Greene, D. D., first suggested to Miss Sophia Smith the idea of this college and was her confidential adviser in her bequest. The foundation for a Chair of Greek was established in his honor.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Application for membership in the Freshman Class should be made as early as possible, in order to insure the prompt completion of all preliminary arrangements.

2. Each applicant for admission to the College must fill out and return to the Secretary of the Board of Admission a registration blank, which will be furnished upon request. A deposit of ten dollars must be made at the time of registration. This will be used in payment of the graduation fee. In case of withdrawal the money will be refunded if notice is sent at least a month before the opening of the fall term. The College reserves the right at any time to cancel the registration of a student who in maturity of character or in physical strength seems unequal to the demands of college life.

3. Every candidate for admission will be required to present satisfactory testimonials as to moral character and fitness to do college work, including an official transcript of her school record. Blank forms will be sent by the Secretary of the Board of Admission at the proper time.

It is desirable that candidates for entrance by the New Plan (see B, page 25) should furnish their school records to date and state the subjects offered for examination before January 15 of the year in which the examinations are to be taken. The record of the remainder of the school course should be sent to the Secretary of the Board of Admission by July 1 of the year of entrance.

School records and letters of recommendation for candidates wishing to enter under the Old Plan, i. e., by taking examinations in all subjects offered for admission, or presenting Regents' examinations of the State of New York, should be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board of Admission by July 1.

In exceptional cases, application for admission may, however, be made at any time prior to the September examinations.

4. Candidates entering College by the Old Plan must take the final examination in any subject within two years of the time of entering College. The examination in History and preliminary examinations in the elementary parts of a subject may be taken earlier.

5. Candidates offering any one of the Sciences for entrance should send the required note-books and laboratory records to the Secretary of the Board of Admission before June 15. These note-books must be certified by the instructor. Printed forms for this purpose will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

6. Before taking examinations in September candidates for admission must register at one of the times specified on page 23. Those whose entrance credits are complete should present themselves for registration on Monday, September 22, or on one of the days of the preceding week.

METHODS OF ADMISSION

Upon the satisfactory fulfillment of requirements students will be admitted to Smith College by the following methods:

(A) By examinations in all subjects presented for admission. These examinations are conducted by

1. Smith College
2. The College Entrance Examination Board
3. The Board of Regents of the State of New York

(B) By the New Plan of Admission as explained on page 25.

A. 1. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY SMITH COLLEGE

Examinations for admission will be held at the College in September. Candidates desiring to be examined in June must take the examinations conducted under the supervision of the College Entrance Examination Board. A candidate may, at her option, take all her examinations in June or in September, or she may take part in June and part in September. Before taking any preliminary examination at the College, the candidate must present to the Secretary of the Board of Admission a record of her preparation in the subject concerned signed by her teacher.

A prize of $200 is offered to the student who, in the judgment of the examiners, passes the best examination in the studies required for admission. Competitors for this prize must take all the examinations at one time, either in June or in September.

2. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD

In 1919 the entrance examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board will be held from June 16 to June 21.

* NOTE—If a student offers two units of History, the three hour examination may be taken in place of two separate two hour examinations.

Examinations of 1919

In June, 1919, there will be separate blank forms for the "application for examination" and "certificate of recommendation." The former should be addressed to the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117 Street, New York, N. Y.; the latter to the Secretary of the Board of Admission of Smith College. Both forms may be obtained from the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board upon request by mail.

If the application is received sufficiently early by the College Entrance Examination Board the examination fee will be $6.00 for candidates examined in the United States and Canada and $20.00 for candidates examined outside of the United States and Canada. The fee, which must accompany the application, should be remitted by postal order, express order, or draft on New York to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined outside of the United States and Canada must reach the Secretary of the Board at least six weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before Monday, May 5, 1919.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points west of the Mississippi River, or in Canada, must be received at least four weeks in advance of the examinations, that is, on or before Monday, May 19, 1919.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points east of the Mississippi River, or on the Mississippi River, must be received at least three weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before Monday, May 26, 1919.

When the candidate has failed to obtain the required blank form of application for examination, the usual examination fee will be accepted if the fee arrive not later than the specified date accompanied by a memorandum containing the name and address of the candidate, the examination center at which she wishes to present herself, and a list of all subjects in which she may have occasion to take the Board's examinations.

Applications received later than the dates named will be accepted only upon payment of $6.00 in addition to the usual fee.

A list of the places at which the examinations are to be held by the Board in June, 1919, will be published about March 1. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points, to receive proper consideration, should be transmitted to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board not later than February 1.

3. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE REGENTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Candidates may present credentials of the Regents of the State of New York. These will be accepted as far as they cover the requirements for admission to Smith College, if the grade is sufficiently high to meet the requirements of the Board of Admission.

STUDENTS ENTERING FROM CANADIAN SCHOOLS

Students prepared at Canadian schools who have passed the examinations for Senior Matriculation at McGill University or the University of Toronto will be admitted to the Freshman Class of Smith College.

B. NEW PLAN OF ADMISSION

The new method depends on two kinds of evidence:

1. Evidence submitted by the school, consisting of
 - (a) A school report covering the entire record of subjects and grades for four years.
 - (b) A statement from the school principal including an estimate of the applicant's scholarly interest, special ability, and character.
2. Evidence submitted by the candidate, consisting of Four comprehensive examinations, selected from each of the following groups:
 - (1) English or History, selected by the applicant.
 - (2) A foreign language, selected by the applicant.
 - (3) Mathematics, or Chemistry, or Physics, selected by the applicant.
 - (4) A fourth subject, designated by the applicant from the subjects which may be offered for admission. This choice must be approved by the Board of Admission of Smith College.

These four examinations must be taken at one time.

At least two examinations must cover more than two admission units* each.

In each subject chosen the comprehensive examination covering all the units offered by her for admission must be taken by the applicant.

Under the New Plan the candidate, if admitted to college, will be admitted free from all conditions. Failure to meet completely the standard in both kinds of evidence required will not necessarily involve rejection of the applicant; the Board may accept unusual excellence in one part of the credentials submitted as offsetting unsatisfactory evidence or even failure in another part. If the candidate fails of admission in June she will not be debarred from taking examinations under the old system in September, but she may not take the comprehensive examinations for admission under the New Plan before June of the following year.

It is believed that this new type of admission combines the best elements of the former certificate system and of the examination system in that it requires the school record and estimate of character, and also demands examinations designed to test the candidate's intellectual power, not alone her memory of prescribed facts. Furthermore, the method offers the applicant the fullest opportunity to show her ability in subjects in which she believes herself best qualified.

This plan substitutes a uniform method of administration in place of the various certificate forms previously used and gives the school entire freedom in the sequence of its work making no requirement of certain subjects in the last years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission to Smith College must have completed the requirements for admission as described below. These requirements are stated in terms of units. The unit is that formulated by the National Conference Committee on Standards of Colleges and Secondary Schools, as follows: A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. Under ordinary circumstances a satisfactory year's work in any subject cannot be accomplished in less than one hundred and twenty sixty-minute hours or their equivalent; hence, a unit would commonly mean the equivalent of five recitations a week for one year in one branch of study.

Fourteen and one-half units are required for admission, of which ten and one-half units are absolutely required, while four units may be chosen in accordance with one of the plans suggested under B.

A. The following ten and one-half units are required of all applicants for admission:

1. English	3 units
2. Mathematics	2½ units
3. History	1 unit
4. Latin	4 units, or
Greek	3 or 4 units

NOTE—Three units of Greek may be offered in fulfillment of the classical requirement provided a total of fourteen and one-half units of the subjects accepted for admission is presented for entrance.

B. The four units which are elective may be made up according to one of the plans, 1 or 2 or 3, described in the following:

1. They may consist of four units in one of the languages not offered under A,
 Latin, or Greek, or French, or
 German
2. They may consist of three units in a language not offered under A, combined with one unit in another subject; viz., three units, in Latin, or Greek, or French, or
 German

combined with one unit in one of the following:

(This is the plan for the years 1915-1919 adopted in 1912 by the National Conference on Uniform Requirements. For plan of 1920-1922, see p. 32.)

A. Reading

The aim of this course is to foster in the student the habit of intelligent reading and to develop a taste for good literature, by giving her a first-hand knowledge of some of its best specimens. She should read the books carefully, but her attention should not be so fixed upon details that she fails to appreciate the main purpose and charm of what she reads.

With a view to large freedom of choice, the books provided for reading are arranged in the following groups, from each of which at least two selections are to be made, except as otherwise provided under Group I.

Group I. Classics in Translation. The Old Testament, comprising at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther; The Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I, II, III, IV, V, XV, XVI, XVII; The Iliad, with the omission, if desired, of Books XI, XIII, XIV, XV, XVII, XXI; The Aeneid.

The Odyssey, Iliad, and Aeneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

For any selection from this group a selection from any other group may be substituted.

Group II. Shakespeare: Midsummer-Night's Dream, Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Twelfth Night, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, King John, Richard II, Richard III, Henry V, Coriolanus, Julius Caesar, Macbeth, Hamlet. [No one of the last three may be taken if chosen for study under B.]

Group III. Prose Fiction. Malory: Morte d'Arthur (about 100 pages); Bunyan: Pilgrim's Progress, Part I; Swift: Gulliver's Travels (voyages to Lilliput and to Brobdingnag); Defoe: Robinson Crusoe, Part I; Goldsmith: The Vicar of Wakefield; Frances Burney (Madame d'Arblay): Evelina; Scott: any one of the novels; Jane Austen: any one of the novels; Maria Edgeworth: Castle Rackrent or The Absentee; Dickens: any one of the novels; Thackeray: any one of the novels;

George Eliot: any one of the novels; Mrs. Gaskell: Cranford; Kingsley: Westward Ho! or Hereward the Wake; Reade: The Cloister and the Hearth; Blackmore: Lorna Doone; Hughes: Tom Brown's School-days; Stevenson: Treasure Island, Kidnapped, or The Master of Ballantrae; Cooper: any one of the novels; Poe: selected tales; Hawthorne: House of Seven Gables, Twice Told Tales, or Mosses from an Old Manse; a collection of short stories by various standard writers.

Group IV. Essays, Biography, etc. Addison and Steele: The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers or selections from The Tatler and The Spectator (about 200 pages); Boswell: selections from the Life of Johnson (about 200 pages); Franklin: Autobiography; Irving: selections from the Sketch Book (about 200 pages) or the Life of Goldsmith; Southey: Life of Nelson; Lamb: selections from the Essays of Elia (about 100 pages); Lockhart: selections from the Life of Scott (about 200 pages); Thackeray: Lectures on Swift, Addison, and Steele in the English Humorists; Macaulay: one of the following essays: Lord Clive, Warren Hastings, Milton, Addison, Goldsmith, Frederic the Great, Madame d'Arblay; Trevelyan: selections from the Life of Macaulay (about 200 pages); Ruskin: Sesame and Lilies or selections (about 150 pages); Dana: Two Years Before the Mast; Lincoln: selections, including at least the two Inaugurals, the speeches in Independence Hall and at Gettysburg, the Last Public Address, and Letter to Horace Greeley, together with a brief memoir or estimate of Lincoln; Parkman: The Oregon Trail; Thoreau: Walden; Lowell: selected essays (about 150 pages); Holmes: The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table; Stevenson: Inland Voyage and Travels with a Donkey; Huxley: Autobiography and selections from Lay Sermons, including the addresses on Improving Natural Knowledge, A Liberal Education, and A Piece of Chalk; a collection of essays by Bacon, Lamb, De Quincey, Hazlitt, Emerson, and later writers; a collection of letters by various standard writers.

Group V. Poetry. Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series): Books II and III, with special attention to Dryden, Collins, Gray, Cowper, and Burns; Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series): Book IV, with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley (if not chosen for study under B); Goldsmith: The Traveller and The Deserted Village; Pope: The Rape of the Lock; a collection of English and Scottish ballads, as, for example, Robin Hood ballads, The Battle of Otterburn, King Estmere, Young Beichan and Bewick Grahame, Sir Patrick Spens, and a selection from later ballads; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner, Christabel, and Kubla Khan; Byron: Childe Harold, Canto III or Canto IV, and The Prisoner of Chillon; Scott: The Lady of the Lake or Marmion; Macaulay: The Lays of Ancient Rome, The Battle of Naseby, The Armada, Ivry; Tennyson: The Princess or Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, and the Passing of Arthur; Browning: Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, "De Gustibus—," The Pied Piper, Instans Tyrannus; Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum and The Forsaken Merman; selections from American poetry with special attention to Poe, Lowell, Longfellow, and Whittier.

B. Study

This part of the requirement is intended as a natural and logical continuation of the student's earlier reading, with greater stress laid upon form and style, the exact meaning of words and phrases, and the understanding of allusions. The books provided for study are arranged in four groups, from each of which one selection is to be made.

Group I. Drama. Shakespeare: Julius Caesar, Macbeth, Hamlet.

Group II. Poetry. Milton, L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, and either Comus or Lycidas; Tennyson: The Coming of Arthur, The Holy Grail, and the Passing of Arthur; the selections from Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley in Book IV of Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series).

Group III. Oratory. Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; Macaulay: Speeches on Copyright; Lincoln: Speech at Cooper Union; Washington: Farewell Address, and Webster: First Bunker Hill Oration.

Group IV. Essays. Carlyle: Essay on Burns, with selections from Burns's poems; Macaulay: Life of Johnson; Emerson: Essay on Manners.

EXAMINATION

However accurate in subject-matter, no paper will be considered satisfactory if seriously defective in punctuation, spelling, or other essentials of good usage.

The examination will be divided into two parts, one of which will be on grammar and composition, and the other on literature.

In grammar and composition, the candidate may be asked specific questions upon the practical essentials of these studies, such as the relation of the various parts of a sentence to one another, the construction of individual words in a sentence of reasonable difficulty, and those good usages of modern English which one should know in distinction from current errors. The main test in composition will consist of one or more essays, developing a theme through several paragraphs. The subjects will be drawn from the books read, from the candidate's other studies, and from her personal knowledge and experience quite apart from reading. For this purpose the examiner will provide several subjects, per haps eight or ten, from which the candidate may make her own selections. She will not be expected to write more than four hundred words per hour.

The examination in literature will include:

A. General questions designed to test such a knowledge and appreciation of literature as may be gained by fulfilling the requirements defined under A. Reading, above. The candidate will be required to submit a list of the books read in preparation for the examination, certified by the principal of the school in which she was prepared; but this list will not be made the basis of detailed questions.

B. A test on the books prescribed for B. Study, which will consist of questions upon their content, form, and structure, and upon the meaning of such words, phrases, and allusions as may be necessary to an understanding of the works and an appreciation of their salient qualities of style. General questions may also be asked concerning the lives of the authors, their other works, and the periods of literary history to which they belong.

PLAN FOR 1920-1922

The National Conference on Uniform Requirements in English has made the following announcement for 1920-1922. Candidates will have the option of taking either of two examinations: (1) a "comprehensive" examination; (2) a "restricted" examination based in part on a prescribed list of books. The examinations will be divided into two parts, one of which will be on grammar and composition, and the other on literature.

The statements as to the grammar and composition for both comprehensive and restricted examinations are the same as on p. 29 (1915-1919). When parts A and B of the restricted examination are taken at different times, each will include a test in grammar and composition.

The purpose of the comprehensive examination in literature will be to enable the candidate to show that she has read, understood, and appreciated a sufficient amount of English literature. The paper will include questions which cannot be answered except by candidates who are able to apply what they have learned to passages of literature which they have not read before. Suggestions for books to be read in preparation for this examination include the lists for Reading on p. 29 with some additions.

The Restricted List gives under Books for Reading, Group I, as above with the omission of the Iliad; Group II, Shakespeare: Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Julius Caesar; Group III, Dickens: A Tale of Two Cities; George Eliot: Silas Marner; Scott: Quentin Durward; Hawthorne: House of Seven Gables; Group IV, Addison and Steele: The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers; Irving: The Sketch Book (selections covering about 175 pages); Macaulay: Lord Clive; Parkman: The Oregon Trail; Group V, Tennyson: The Coming of Arthur, Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, The Passing of Arthur; Browning: the poems in the list for 1915-1919; Scott: The Lady of the Lake; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner; Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum.

Under Books for Study, Group I, Shakespeare: Macbeth, Hamlet; Group II, Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus; Selections from Book IV of Palgrave's Golden Treasury, with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley; Group III, Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; Washington: Farewell Address, Webster: First Bunker Hill Oration, and Lincoln: Gettysburg Address; Group IV, Macaulay: Life of Johnson; Carlyle: Essay on Burns, with a brief selection from Burns's poems.

MATHEMATICS

Algebra: Factors, common divisors and multiples, fractions, ratio and proportion, inequalities, powers and roots, exponents, equations of the first and second degrees with one or more unknown quantities, radicals and equations involving radicals, arithmetical and geometrical progressions, binomial theorem for positive integral exponents.

It is assumed that pupils will be required throughout the course to solve numerous problems which involve putting questions into equations. Some of these problems should be chosen from mensuration, from physics, and from commercial life. The use of graphical methods and illustrations, particularly in connection with the solution of equations, is also expected.

Plane Geometry: The usual theorems and constructions of good textbooks, including the general properties of plane rectilinear figures, the circle and the measurement of angles, similar polygons, areas, regular polygons, and the measurement of the circle; the solution of numerous original exercises, including loci problems; applications to the mensuration of lines and plane surfaces.

There will be no formal examination in Arithmetic, but familiarity with its processes is presupposed.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

HISTORY

For admission to Smith College, each candidate must present one of the following units:

(a) Ancient History, with special reference to Greek and Roman history, and including also a short introductory study of the more ancient nations and the chief events of the early Middle Ages, down to the death of Charlemagne.

(b) Mediaeval and Modern European History, from the death of Charlemagne to the present time.

(c) English History.

(d) American History and Civil Government.

The examiners will assume that for each unit the candidate has had five exercises a week for one year. She should have used a text-book of not less than 500 pages and have done an equal amount of parallel reading. Geographical knowledge will be tested by means of outline maps.

Note—The department of History strongly recommends that every candidate offer Ancient History as a part of her preparation.

Candidates may also present for admission one or two units additional from the list of courses designated above as a, b, c, and d.

GREEK

I. Two unit requirement:

Grammar. Four books of Xenophon's Anabasis.

II. Three unit requirement:

In addition to the two unit requirement, three books of Homer's Iliad.

Satisfactory equivalents will be accepted. Practice in reading at sight and in writing Greek, with systematic study of grammar should be pursued throughout the course for either the two or three unit requirement.

Specifications of the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

LATIN

Four unit requirement:

Candidates should be familiar with the forms and syntax of the language and possess a vocabulary sufficient to translate Latin into idiomatic English and English into correct Latin. They should also be able to translate at sight Latin prose and poetry of moderate difficulty and to read Latin prose and verse according to the Roman method of pronunciation with strict attention to vowel quantities. To attain such proficiency not less than five forty-minute periods a week for four years should be given to the study of Latin. The amount of prepared reading should not be less than four books of Caesar's Galic War, seven Orations of Cicero (counting the Manilian Law as two) and six books of Vergil's Aeneid. The reading may be selected from other works of the above authors or from Nepos, Sallust, and Ovid, but it must include the pro Archia and two other orations of Cicero and two books of the Aeneid.

It is of special importance that practice in writing easy Latin at sight should be continued throughout the entire period of preparation in connection with the reading of the Latin authors. In the last year special attention should be given to translating continuous English into Latin in both the prepared and the sight work.

Those who enter by the old system of examination may take

1. Papers 1, 4, 5, and 6 of the College Entrance Examination Board. The scope of the examinations will include:

Translation at Sight of prose and verse.

Prescribed Reading. Candidates will be examined upon the following prescribed reading with questions on subject-matter, literary and historical allusions, and prosody.

In 1919. Cicero, orations for the Manilian Law, and for Archias; Vergil, Aeneid, I, II, and either IV or VI, at the option of the candidate.

In 1920, 1921, and 1922. Cicero, the third oration against Catiline and the orations for Archias and Marcellus; Vergil, Aeneid, II, III, and VI.

In 1923, 1924, and 1925. Cicero, the fourth oration against Catiline and the oration for the Manilian Law; Vergil, Aeneid, I and IV; Ovid, Metamorphoses, Book III, 1-137 (Cadmus); IV, 55-166 (Pyramus and Thisbe), and 663-764 (Perseus and Andromeda); VI, 165-312 (Niobe); VIII, 183-235 (Daedalus and Icarus); X, 1-77 (Orpheus and Eurydice); XI, 85-145 (Midas).

Grammar and Composition.

or 2. The Comprehensive Examination of the College Entrance Examination Board. Beginning with September, 1918, this examination will be substituted for the examinations formerly set by Smith College.

FRENCH

I. Two unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. A knowledge of the fundamental principles of grammar is required. Special attention should be given to the inflection of nouns and adjectives, the use of all pronouns, the conjugation of regular and irregular verbs. Candidates will be expected to have acquired the essentials of French syntax, and common idiomatic phrases. The candidate's knowledge of grammar, as well as her ability to use grammatical forms and structure, will be tested by direct questions and by the translation into French of simple connected English sentences.

(b) Composition. Ability to write in French a paragraph dictated from some of the books read, to translate at sight a passage of easy English prose into French, and to answer in French questions asked by the teacher.

For composition, François' Introductory French Composition (American Book Company) is recommended.

(c) Translation. Ability to translate at sight standard modern French, to be acquired by reading, in addition to the Elementary requirement, not less than 300 duodecimo pages of prose, which may be chosen from any of the following books: Maupassant, Selections (Ginn); Mérimée, Colomba (Ginn); Sandeau, Mlle. de la Seiglière, the play (Holt or Heath); Loti, Pêcheur d'Islande (Heath). It is strongly recommended that some work like Laviisse, Histoire de France, Cours moyen (Paris), or perhaps Super's Readings from French History (Allyn and Bacon) be read and studied for its subject-matter, as well as for the practice it affords in translation. It is important that the passages set be rendered into clear and idiomatic English.

(d) If the student wishes to continue the study of French in college, she will need additional drill in understanding the spoken language and in using it to reply to questions asked on the subject-matter read.

II. Three unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. In addition to the points mentioned in the two unit requirement in grammar, the student will be expected to have acquired a more complete knowledge of syntax, as well as correctness in the wider application of rules and a freer use of idiomatic expressions.

(b) Composition. Ability to translate into French at sight a paragraph of ordinary English, to write in French a résumé of any of the books read, to follow a recitation conducted in French, and to answer in that language questions asked by the instructor.

(c) Translation. It is believed that the necessary proficiency in translation at sight can be acquired by reading, in addition to the two unit requirement, not less than 300 duodecimo pages of prose and poetry which may be chosen from such works as the following: Scribe et Legouvé, Bataille de Dames (Heath); Balzac, Eugénie Grandet (Holt); Bowen, French Lyrics; V. Hugo, La Chute (Heath); Taine, L'ancien régime (Heath). It is strongly recommended that the latter be carefully studied with reference to its subject-matter and also as a basis for abstracts by the students. Passages set for translation must be rendered into clear and idiomatic English.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

NOTE: Proficiency in composition can be obtained by the thorough study of any standard grammar, by oral and written exercises, by memorizing, by conversation, by dictation, and by composition, if carefully corrected. Books suggested are Bouvet's Exercises and Syn- tax, François' French Composition, or Grandgent's French Composition, Parts I, II, III, or Blouet's French Composition, Part I, and half of Part II. François' Advanced French Composition is not recommended for the entrance requirement. It is recommended that, from the outset, attention be given to correct pronunciation, and that during the whole course of preparation the pupil be accustomed to hear and understand the spoken language. The reading of the French classics of the seventeenth century is not advised as a substitute for the works mentioned in the requirement, since the average pupil of the secondary school is not sufficiently mature for that grade of work. In no case should it be attempted before the fourth year of the high school course.

GERMAN

I. Two unit requirement:

(a) The essentials of German grammar. This includes the declension of articles, nouns, adjectives, and pronouns, the conjugation of the weak and the more usual strong verbs, both simple and compound, the use of the common prepositions; also the elements of syntax, especially the rules governing word order, the main uses of articles, of the common adverbs and conjunctions, the more common uses of modal auxiliaries, and of the subjunctive and infinitive moods.

(b) Ability to translate at sight simple English prose into correct German. Such ability may be acquired by the oral or written reproduction of the contents of selected passages, by the retranslation into German of easy English paraphrases of the text read, and by direct translation of easy English prose into German.

(c) Ability to translate at sight fairly easy German texts into good English. This ability may be gained by reading about 100 pages of such prose and verse as may be found in any good reader or collection of easy stories, or in simple tales from Volkmann, Baumbach, Heyse, Gerstäcker, Seidel, Storm, and in easy plays. This should be followed by the reading of about 200 pages of modern prose of a somewhat greater degree of difficulty, selected from texts like the following: Stöckl, Unter dem Christbaum; Hillern, Höher als die Kirche; Riehl, Burg Neideck, Der stumme Ratsherr; Eichendorff, Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts; Freytag, Die Journalisten.

II. Three unit requirement:

(a) In addition to the two unit requirement, more thorough familiarity with the less usual strong verbs, with the use of articles, cases, auxiliaries of all kinds, tenses, and moods, especially subjunctive, infinitive, and participle constructions, with the uses and meanings of the principal prefixes and suffixes.

(b) Ability to translate at sight ordinary English into correct German. Such proficiency may be gained by continuing the work specified in the two unit requirement under (b).

(c) Ability to translate at sight ordinary modern and classical German prose into good English. This may be acquired by reading, in addition to the amount specified in the two unit requirement, at least 300 duodecimo pages of advanced prose and verse selected from such works as the following: Freytag, Aus dem Staat Friedrichs des Grossen; Heine, Reisebilder; Schiller, extracts from Die Geschichte des Dreissigjährigen Kriegs, Wilhelm Tell, Die Jungfrau von Orleans; Goethe, selections from Dichtung und Wahrheit, Hermann und Dorothea, Iphigenie auf Tauris; Lessing, Minna von Barnhelm.

NOTE—It is urged that throughout the preparatory course in German careful attention be given to the importance of having pupils acquire a correct pronunciation and to the need of giving them the opportunity to hear and speak the foreign language. In view of the fact that the class-room work of the College in this subject is almost entirely conducted in German, students wishing to continue the study of the language are advised to secure practice in the use of it, in order that they may be able to understand spoken German based upon the subject-matter of the work prepared, and to reply in simple but connected sentences to questions relating to this work. A simple test of the student's ability to understand spoken German will form a part of the entrance examinations given at the College in September.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

ITALIAN

Two unit requirement:

(a) The essentials of Italian grammar, such as inflections of verbs, nouns, and adjectives, the use of pronouns, and the elements of syntax necessary for correct writing and speaking.

(b) Ability to translate simple passages of English into Italian.

(c) Ability to translate ordinary modern Italian at sight. In order to do this, it is recommended that about 300 pages of such works as the following be read: De Amicis, Cuore; Silvio Pellico, Le Mie Prigioni; Renato Fucini, Le Veglie de Neri; Short Stories selected by Wilkins and Altrocchi (Heath), and selections from Goldoni's plays or Manzoni's Promessi Sposi.

It is strongly recommended that Collodi's Viaggio di Giannettino per l'Italia Centrale (or per l'Alta Italia) be read with a careful attention to subject matter and constant reference to the map of Italy; also some short history of the nineteenth century, as used in Italian middle schools.

SPANISH

Two unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. A knowledge of the fundamental grammatical principles. The conjugation of regular and irregular verbs; the inflection of nouns, adjectives, and pronouns. The work should in scope be approximately the same as that contained in Hills and Ford, First Spanish Course; Olmsted and Gordon, Spanish Grammar; or DeVitis, Spanish Grammar.

(b) Composition. Ability to translate at sight a passage of simple English prose into correct Spanish, and to write Spanish from dictation.

(c) Translation. Ability to translate at sight, into good English, the easier modern Spanish texts. This ability may be acquired by the careful reading and translation of about 300 standard pages of prose and verse, the following texts being suggested as suitable: Some carefully graded collection of easy short stories and lyrics; Juan Valera, El pajarito verde; Perez Escrich, Fortuna; Ramón Carrión and Vital Aza, Zaragüeta; for the second year, Galdós, Marianela; Valdés, José; Alarcón, El capitán Veneno; Becquer, Legends and Tales; Taboada, Cuentos alegres; Blasco Ibáñez, La barraca.

NOTE: The candidates should be taught the Castilian pronunciation.

PHYSICS

One unit requirement:

The preparation should cover the elements of the subject, as presented in such texts as those of Millikan and Gale, Black and Davis, or Gorton. Experimental demonstrations should form an important part of the class-room instruction, and the student should have practice in the solution of simple problems. Throughout the course, special emphasis should be placed upon the illustration of principles by reference to phenomena within the daily experience of the student. Thirty laboratory experiments should be performed by each student. The requirement is identical with that of the College Entrance Examination Board. Each laboratory exercise should be preceded by a clear statement of the purpose of the experiment. The original note-book and laboratory record of school work, with experiments indexed, endorsed by the teacher, must be submitted at the time of the examination.

CHEMISTRY

One unit requirement:

A course of at least one year, with three lecture or recitation periods a week. The work should be substantially that outlined in Document No. 25 of the College Entrance Examination Board. The candidate is required to pass both a written and a laboratory examination. The original note-books and laboratory record of school work, endorsed by the teacher, must be submitted at the time of the examination.

BOTANY

One unit requirement:

The course in Botany should include the elements of morphology, anatomy, physiology, and ecology, especially of the higher plants, together with some study of the leading groups.

The student is required to present a note-book of drawings and notes which represent actual laboratory and field study for one year, and must show training in observation, accuracy and generalization. This will count at least one-third in determining admission.

The requirement is identical with that of the College Entrance Examination Board, and is described in detail in Part II of the second edition of Ganong's Teaching Botanist. Any standard modern text-book may be used.

While this course is recommended, equivalents for parts of it will be accepted if worked out in the same manner; thus a more detailed knowledge of the leading groups of plants may be offered, or scientific knowledge of the familiar flowering plants; but mere terminology, or knowledge from books only, will not be accepted.

ZOOLOGY

One unit requirement:

A course of one year, with recitations and laboratory work, closely following that prescribed by the College Entrance Examination Board. The original laboratory note-book, recording the study of about eight animals representing the chief groups, must be submitted by each candidate.

BIOLOGY

One unit requirement:

A course of one year, with recitations and laboratory work, as prescribed by the College Entrance Examination Board. The original laboratory note-book, recording biological experiments and the anatomical study of a number of representative animals and plants, must be submitted by each candidate.

ASTRONOMY

One unit requirement:

The course of study must include the elements of descriptive Astronomy with special reference to time problems, a working knowledge of almanacs, star-maps, and globes. Acquaintance with the principal constellations is fundamental, and it is essential that training be given in the use of simple apparatus for finding angles and time.

Among the observations which should receive special attention are:

locating a north and south line by the sun or by the North Star, fixing the intersection of the ecliptic and horizon in different seasons, mapping constellations with reference to the horizon, tracing diurnal and annual paths of heavenly bodies, and finding the error of a common watch from a sun dial.

The methods desired in exercises and observations are illustrated in Byrd's Laboratory Manual in Astronomy.

GEOGRAPHY

One unit requirement:

The elements of Physiography and Meteorology, occupying a year, five hours a week, of which two hours are given to laboratory exercises. Topics to be emphasized should be: the earth as a globe, the oceans and lands, as in Davis's or Dryer's Physical Geography; the atmosphere, as in Tarr's Physical Geography, and the simpler parts of Davis's Elementary Meteorology. The laboratory work should consist of systematic, progressive observation of meteorological phenomena and correlation of these elements with the facts shown on weather maps and the statements of the text. A few field excursions in the autumn and spring should be devoted to the observation and description of processes of land sculpture and types of land forms illustrated in the locality. Note-books and laboratory records, endorsed by the teacher, must be submitted at the time of the examination.

MUSIC

One unit requirement:

The one unit in music may be either: A, harmony, or B, a combination of a less advanced requirement in theory with a practical study: piano, voice, violin, or other orchestral instrument.

A. Harmony: The examination will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have had one year's systematic training, with at least three lessons a week, or its equivalent. The candidate should have acquired:

1. The ability to harmonize, in four vocal parts, simple melodies of not fewer than eight measures, in soprano or in bass. These melodies will require a knowledge of triads and inversions, of diatonic seventh chords and inversions, in the major and minor modes; and of modulation, transient or complete, to nearly-related keys.

2. Analytical knowledge of ninth chords, all non-harmonic tones, and altered chords, including augmented chords. Students are encouraged to apply this knowledge in their harmonization.

It is urgently recommended that systematic ear-training, as to interval, melody, and chord, be a part of the preparation for this examination. Simple exercises in harmonization at the pianoforte are recommended. The student will be expected to have a full knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use.

B. The following requirements in theory combined with piano, voice, violin, or other orchestral instrument:—

The examination in theory will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have had one year's systematic training, with at least one lesson a week, or its equivalent. The candidate should have acquired:

(1) A knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use; (2) the ability to analyze the harmony and form of hymn-tunes and simplest pieces for the pianoforte, involving triads and the dominant seventh chord and their inversions, passing tones, and modulation to nearly-related keys; (3) the ability to harmonize, on paper, in four vocal parts, melodic fragments involving the use of triads and the dominant seventh chord and their inversions, in major keys; (4) in ear-training the ability to name, as played by the examiner, intervals involving tones of the major scale, the three principal triads, and the dominant seventh chord in fundamental position, and the authentic, plagal, and deceptive (v or v' to vi) cadences; to write a diatonic, major melody of not more than four measures in simple time, involving half, quarter, eighth, and dotted notes, the melody to be played, in its entirety, three times by the examiner.

1. Piano. Combined with the theory requirement above. A practical knowledge of various kinds of touch; the ability to play scales, major and minor, in simple and canon forms, in sixteenth notes (at metronome speed, $\bullet| = 100$), and three-toned and four-toned arpeggios in sixteenth notes (at metronome speed, $\bullet| = 74$); the ability to play, with due regard to the tempo, fingering, phrasing, and expression, six studies of the grade of Hasert, Opus 50, Book 1, or Czerny, Opus 299, or the Bach Two Part Inventions; a sonata of the grade of Haydn's Sonata in E minor, or Mozart's Sonata in A major; four pieces by standard composers, of the grade of Mendelssohn's Songs without Words, Nos. 19 and 49, Schumann's Grillen, and Chopin's Nocturne in E flat; the ability to play at sight chorals and such pieces as the first twelve numbers of Schumann's Jugend-Album (Op. 68). A candidate wishing to offer other selections than those specified above, is advised to obtain the approval of the department.

2. Voice. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to sing with due regard to intonation, tone-quality, expression, and enunciation, the vocalises of Concone, Op. 9, and not fewer than six of the following songs: Schubert, "Who is Sylvia?" and "Hark, Hark, the Lark"; Mendelssohn, "Morgengruss"; Schumann, "An den Sonnenschein"; Brahms, "Der Sandmann"; Franz, "Widmung"; Grieg, "Das alte Lied"; Chopin, "Mädchenwunsch"; Massenet, "Ouvre tes beaux yeux"; Paine, "Matin Song"; the ability to play pianoforte accompaniments of the grade of Concone, Op. 9; the ability to sing at sight, music of the grade of hymn-tunes by Barnby, Dykes, and Stainer, and of the studies in Abt's Vocal Tutor, Part III. The student must also give evidence of having an accurate ear and of having laid a good foundation in the development of the voice. A candidate may offer equivalents for the songs mentioned, on the approval of the department.

3. Violin. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to play, with due regard to bowing, fingering, tone, intonation, and expression, such studies as those by Dont (Op. 37), Mazas (Op. 36), and Kreutzer; and such pieces as the moderately difficult solos of Spohr, Wieniawski, Godard, and Ries; the ability to read at sight such music as the second violin parts of the string quartets of Haydn and Mozart.

4. Students wishing to be examined in the playing of other instruments should correspond with the Music Department.

NOTE—Candidates who consider submitting Music for entrance to College, are advised to correspond with the Department, stating in detail what their preparation has been in theory and especially in the practical subjects. In the latter, students must give evidence of thorough foundation work in the technique of the piano, voice, violin, or other instrument, in addition to being able merely to play or sing the actual requirements mentioned.

SPOKEN ENGLISH

It is recommended that, throughout the preparatory course, special attention be paid to the student's enunciation and use of the voice.

ADVANCED STANDING

Candidates for an advanced class must fulfill the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, and, unless coming from other colleges, must be examined in the studies already pursued by the class which they wish to enter.

Students from other colleges who desire to enter an advanced class must send to the Secretary of the Board of Admission a marked catalogue of the institution from which they enter, indicating the courses of study taken, a letter of honorable dismissal from the President or Dean, and an official copy of the student's college record, together with a detailed statement of the subjects credited to them at entrance. Letters from the teachers under whom they have studied, giving the amount and quality of the work in that department, are also desirable. A detailed statement of the work taken in Physical Education should be presented for credit. In 1919 these records may be accepted at the discretion of the College in place of advanced examinations in the case of students who were prepared to enter Smith College in or before 1918.

Beginning with September, 1920, those who have entered college by certificate will in general be required to pass examinations unless they have attained exceptionally high standing in their college work. Information regarding these examinations will be given to candidates upon application.

All applications for advanced standing should be made before June 1.

Candidates for a degree must spend at least the Senior year at Smith College; but ordinarily two years of residence will be required.

NON-COLLEGIATE STUDENTS

Women not college graduates, but of an age beyond that of the ordinary undergraduate, who give evidence of a serious purpose and are otherwise properly qualified, may be admitted to single courses of study of an advanced grade, or to supervised research work, in the College, with the approval of the Dean and the instructor concerned. The fees paid by these students shall be at a rate proportional to the regular academic charges for full tuition.

GRADUATE INSTRUCTION

Graduates of Smith College and of other approved colleges may receive instruction, with or without reference to the attainment of an advanced degree. Graduate students are expected to register on the first day of the academic year with the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction in College Hall 14.

Students who are not candidates for a degree may, with the approval of the instructors concerned and of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, take any of the courses regularly offered.

Work for the degree of Master of Arts or of Doctor of Philosophy shall be planned under the direction of the department in which the principal courses are taken, and must have the approval of the instructors concerned and the Committee on Graduate Instruction. Correspondence concerning proposed work for an advanced degree should be addressed to the Secretary of the Committee, Professor Sidney N. Deane, 123 Elm Street, Northampton, Massachusetts.

The degree of MASTER OF ARTS is conferred upon graduates of Smith College and other colleges of recognized standing after the satisfactory completion in residence of a course of study approved by the Committee on Graduate Instruction. In general, the work can be completed within a year, but additional time must be given when necessary.*

The degree of DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY is rarely conferred, and then only in recognition of high scholarly attainment and of ability to carry on original research. Candidates for this degree must have pursued since graduation advanced courses of non-professional study under suitable academic direction and conditions for at least three years.

The price of tuition for graduate students is $150 a year. For those taking only partial work the fee is one-fourth of this amount for each course. College graduates engaged in professional work in or near Northampton may take partial work at special rates. For particulars they should consult the Secretary of the Committee.

On satisfactorily completing the requirements, graduate students paying the full tuition fee receive the Master's degree and diploma without further charge. The fee for this degree in all other cases is $10. The fee for the Doctor's degree is $25.

* For a detailed statement of the requirements for this degree, see the Directions for Graduate Students on page 115.

* COURSES OF STUDY

The grade of each course is indicated by the first digit of the number. Grade I courses (primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores) have numbers beginning with 1; Grade II courses (primarily for Sophomores and Juniors) have numbers beginning with 2; and so on. See General Regulations 3, p. 112.

A number in black-faced type following a course indicates the examination group to which the course belongs. A student may not in the same semester elect two courses marked as belonging to the same group.

B. Practical Courses

Regulations Regarding Practical Courses. All practical work counted within the minimum of hours must be accompanied by historical or theoretical work.

Freshmen will normally take 11; Sophomores, 21; students beginning practical art in Junior or Senior year may use for this purpose any two-hour theoretical or historical course open to them.

- 15 a. and b. Drawing in outline and simple values from objects and casts; sketching from life. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (27)
16. a and b. Drawing from casts; sketching from life; painting from still-life. For students who have taken 15. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (22)
25. a and b. Drawing from life and painting from still-life; out-of-door sketching. For students who have taken 16. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (22)
38. a and b. Drawing and painting from life; out-of-door sketching in color. For students who have taken 16 and 25. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (37)
- Art 16, 25, or 38 combined with any permissible theoretical or historical course may be counted as the equivalent of a three-hour course.

THE MAJOR

The major is based upon 22 and must proceed upon one of two plans:

I Junior Year, 31

Senior Year, 32, with one of the following courses: 37, 39, Greek 37, Greek 42.

II Junior Year, 37

Senior Year, 31 or Botany 35, with one of the following courses:
32, 39, Greek 37, Greek 42.

THE MINORS

English: Any course in Literature or Composition.

Greek: 36, 38, 45, or any advanced courses in Greek Language.

Open only to those taking Greek 37 or Greek 42.

History: 31a and b followed by 33a and b; 33a and b followed by 34.

Open only to those taking Art 32. History 33 followed by 42, open only to those taking Art 31 or 39.

French: Any courses adapted to give a knowledge of the language as an instrument. Students taking Art 32 are advised to elect courses dealing with the 18th and 19th centuries.

German: Any courses adapted to give a knowledge of the language as an instrument. Students taking Art 32 are advised to elect courses
dealing with the 18th and 19th centuries.

Italian: Any courses adapted to give a knowledge of the language as an instrument. Open only to those taking Art 31 or Art 39. 31 and 32a and b preferred. 21a and b are acceptable also.

Fees

A studio fee of $5.00 a semester is charged for each of the Practical Courses, 15, 16, 25, and 38; also for 33 if the student is not paying a fee for one of the Practical Courses; and for 34 if the student is not paying a fee for a Practical Course or for 33.

A studio fee of $2.00 a semester is charged for 21, but not required of a student paying a fee for a Practical Course or for 33.

Other fees, for illustrative material which becomes the property of the student, are: for 11, $1.00 a year; for 39, $1.00 a semester; for 22, 31, 32, or 37, $1.50 a semester.

ASTRONOMY

PROFESSOR: HARRIET W. BIGELOW, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: MARY MURRAY HOPKINS, PH. D.

INSTRUCTOR: SUSAN RAYMOND, A. B.

ASSISTANT: VERA MARIE GUSHEE, S. M.

DEMONSTRATOR: FLORENCE PEMBERTON ALLEN, A. B.

All courses in Astronomy are held in the Observatory.

11. General Astronomy. Elementary facts and principles; direct observations of constellations, motions of sun, moon, and planets; fundamental problems with simple instruments. Class periods for discussion of observation and recitation, two hours a week. Hours for day-time and evening observing and laboratory work arranged individually. The evening observing in autumn and spring averages three hours a week. Three hours, through the year. T. W. at 11; at 12; at 2; at 3; Th. F. at* 11; at 3. Professor Bigelow, Associate Professor Hopkins, Miss Raymond. (17)

21. General Astronomy. A course similar to 11 but of a more advanced character. The hours are arranged as in 11. Not open to students who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. T. W. at 12; Th. F. at 2. Associate Professor Hopkins, Miss Raymond. (17)

22a. Advanced Observing Course. Sun-spots, planetary and lunar detail, variable stars; use of portable telescopes; collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.

23b. Advanced Observing Course. Use of equatorial, transit instrument, and sextant; collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. †Three hours, second semester. Professor Bigelow.

31. Transit Instrument.

a. Spherical and practical astronomy; observations to determine time and instrumental corrections. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 22. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.

b. Theory and application of Least Squares. Observations for latitude. For students who have taken 31a. †Three hours, second semester. Professor Bigelow.

32a. Equatorial Telescope and Filar Micrometer. Theory, observations and reductions. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 22. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.

33b. History of the modern development of Astronomy. For students who have taken or are taking 22a or b, 31, or 32a. †Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.

34b. Teachers' Course. Training in the methods of teaching Astronomy as a laboratory science. Not counted within the minimum. For students who have taken 11 or 21. †One hour, second semester. Professor Bigelow.

41. Celestial Mechanics.

a. Open to Seniors who have taken or are taking 31 or 32a and have taken or are taking Mathematics 31a.

* This division is not open to Freshmen.

b. Open to Seniors who have taken 41a or Physics 36. †Three hours, each semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.

THE MAJOR

The major is based on 11 or 21 and must include 31, a and b, 32a, and 33b. It may not include 34b.

It is strongly recommended that students who intend to take Astronomy as a major should elect Mathematics 11 or 12 in Freshman or Sophomore year.

THE MINORS

Preferred minors:—

Mathematics: any courses.

Physics: any courses.

Chemistry: 11, 12, 21, 31, 32, 33, 34, and 35.

Geology: 11, 31a, 32b, 35, 36.

Mathematics 22 in Junior year, Physics 23a or 33 in Senior year.

Chemistry 11 and Physics 11—in either order. (Particularly desirable for students who have already completed Mathematics 22.)

Botany: 11, 31, 37.

Zoölogy: 11 or 21, 31, 32.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 11, 21, 22, 31, 32a, $2.50 a semester. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Astronomy will pay only one fee, provided Astronomy is the major subject.

BIBLICAL LITERATURE AND COMPARATIVE RELIGION

PROFESSORS: IRVING FRANCIS WOOD, PH. D., D. D.,

ROBERT SENECA SMITH, A. M., B. D.

INSTRUCTORS: CORNELIA AINSWORTH MONTGOMERY, A. M., B. D.,

CLARA WILLOUGHBY DAVIDSON, A. M.

11. Biblical Introduction. The literature of the Bible in its historical setting. For Sophomores only. This course satisfies the requirement in Biblical Literature. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in C. 7; at 10 in C. 7; at 12 in C. 7; at 2 in C. 6, and C. 7; at 3 in C. 7; Th. F. S. at 9 in C. 7; at 10 in C. 7; at 11 in C. 7; at 12 in C. 7. Professors Wood and Smith, Miss Montgomery, Miss Davidson. (29)

Greek 16b. Greek Testament. For Sophomores. Accepted in the Biblical requirement for the second semester of Bible 11. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9 in S. 22. Professor Caverno.

21. Biblical Introduction. Special emphasis upon the growth of religious and ethical thought during the successive stages of the Old and New Testament periods. For Juniors only. This course satisfies the requirement in Biblical Literature. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in C. 6; Th. F. S. at 9 in C. 6. Professor Wood. (29)

History 32. Early Oriental Civilizations. The history of Egypt, Babylonia, Assyria, Phenicia, Arabia, and Palestine, with its significance for later history. Special attention given to the development of ancient society. Text-book and lectures. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 7. Associate Professor Gray.

32a. Old Testament Thought. The growth of Hebrew thought to the Christian era, with an inquiry into its relation to the thought of neighboring peoples.

b. New Testament Thought. The teachings of Jesus and their relation to current Judaism, with a consideration of their modification during the Apostolic Age.

Not open to students who have taken or are taking 21. Three hours, each semester. Th. F. S. at 12 in Lib. 1. Miss Montgomery.

34a. The Development of Christian Thought. A study in the history of religion; the more important phases of Christian thought since the New Testament period, with some comparison of kindred subjects in other religions. Text-book, reading, and lectures; one paper. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in Lib. 1. Professor Wood.

35b. Comparative Religion. The history of ethnic religions. Text-book, reading, and lectures; one paper. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 7; Th. F. S. at 11 in C. 7. Professor Wood. (18)

36. Fundamentals of the Christian Faith. The Christian approach to the questions concerning the relations between God and human life. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 2 in C. 7. Professor Smith.

38. Hebrew. Elementary grammar and syntax. Reading from the Hebrew Bible. †Three hours, through the year. Miss Davidson.

THE MAJOR

The major is based upon 11 and may be made up of any combination of courses above Grade II approved by the Department.

THE MINORS

Philosophy: 31, 32, 34, 35, 36, 22, 314, and 315, or any course included in a major in Philosophy.

English: 29, 211, 214, 36, 315, 318, 41.

French: 26, 37a, 38b, 311, 312, 313, 315, 316, 45.

German: 35, 36, 39, 311.

Greek: 15, 31, 32, 34, 36, and 45 for students taking Biblical Literature 35.

Latin: 21, 23, 24, 31, 32, 34, 36.

History: 21, 22, 31, 32, 33, 41, 42.

Italian: 21, 31, 33.

Spanish: 25, 35, 45.

Zoölogy 31, followed by Economics 26.

Students taking 35b as a part of their major are strongly advised to take, either as a part of the minor or as an elective, Philosophy 34.

BOTANY

PROFESSOR: †WILLIAM FRANCIS GANONG, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: JULIA WARNER SNOW, PH. D.,

FRANCES GRACE SMITH, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: GRACE LUCRETIA CLAPP, PH. D.,

HELEN ASHHURST CHOATE, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: MARION THOMAS PLEASANTS, A. M.,

MARY PARSONS CUNNINGHAM, A. B.

All courses in Botany are held in Burton Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Botany. Outline of the fundamental facts and methods of the science. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Three hours, through the year. Dem. M. at 4; Lec. T. at 4; Lab. A, Th. F. at 9; Lab. B, Th. F. at 11; Lab. C, Th. F. at 2; [Lab. D, F. S. at 9;] [Lab. E, F. S. at 11;] Lab. F, M. T. at 11. Professor Ganong, Associate Professor Smith, Assistant Professor Choate.

21. Systematic and Economic Botany. Identification, classification, and uses of plants, studied largely in the field, together with herbarium methods.

a. Autumn flora and plants of greatest economic importance.

For students who have taken 11, or have offered Botany for entrance. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

b. Ferns, trees in winter condition, and spring flora.

For students who have taken or are taking 11. Two or three hours, each semester. § M. at 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith, Assistant Professor Choate.

22. Bacteriology and Other Phases of Microbiology. Methods of study of the principal kinds of Bacteria, Molds, and Algae in relation † Absent second semester.

- to health and to other domestic and public interests. For students who have taken 11 or Zoology 11 or 21; also for students who are taking or are planning to take Chemistry 32. Two or three hours, through the year. Lec. M. at 5; T. at 4; W. at 10, and at 2; Lab. A, T. and F. at 2; Lab. B, M. and Th. at 2; Lab. C, M. at 10, and F. at 11; Lab. D, Th. and S. at 11; Lab. E, T. and W. at 11. Assistant Professor Clapp, Associate Professor Snow.
31. Morphology of plants. A study of types selected to illustrate the evolution of the vegetable kingdom, with training in laboratory technique. This is the natural continuation of 11, especially for those intending to teach or to become laboratory experts. Three hours, through the year. Lab. M. T. at 11; Lec. W. at 11; Dem. W. at 12. Associate Professor Snow.
32. Plant Pathology. A study of the Fungi and other organisms involved in plant diseases with especial reference to their effects on the production of food plants. For students who have taken 11, and have taken or are taking any other course in the Department. Two hours, through the year. Lec. S. at 9; Lab. F. at 9. Assistant Professor Clapp. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]
33. Ecology and Plant Geography. A study of the climatic plant formations of the world, their characteristics and distribution, and the anatomical structure of certain type plants from each group. Field study in the afternoons. In the spring the study is mainly upon the plant groups as illustrated in the Northampton region. For students who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. §T. W. at 12. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith.
34. Horticulture. The theory and practice of plant-cultivation and improvement, with a study of the species commonly cultivated, and the elements of landscape gardening. For Juniors and Seniors, or Sophomores by special permission, who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. Lec. F. at 9; Dem. Th. at 9 in B. H.; Lab. Th. at 10 or at 2, and F. at 10 or at 2 in L. P. Professor Ganong, Miss Cunningham, and the Head Gardener.
35. Landscape Gardening. The principles of design underlying gardening and landscape art, with training in a knowledge of the suitable plant materials. For students who have taken 34. Three hours, through the year. §T. W. at 9. Miss Cunningham.
- 36a. History of Botany. Based largely on a study of original works with especial attention to biography and to botanical education. For students who have taken or are taking 31, 33, or 37. †Two hours, first semester. Assistant Professor Choate. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

37. Plant Physiology. Individual study of the fundamental phenomena with training in scientific methods of experiment, measurement, detection of error, induction, exposition, and illustration, and with especial reference to the educational methods and applications of Botany. For students who have taken two full courses in Botany. Three hours, through the year. §Th. F. at 4 in L. P. Professor Ganong, Miss Pleasants. (15)
41. Problems. Original studies in Plant Physiology, Morphology, or Ecology. Open also to Seniors who have taken or are taking 37. †Three or more hours, through the year. Professor Ganong, Associate Professors Snow and Smith, Assistant Professor Clapp.

THE MAJORS AND THE MINORS

- Major I. Preparation for teaching or graduate study: 21, or 33, 31, 37.
Minors, in order of preference: Zoölogy 11, with 21, 31, 33, or 35; Chemistry 11, 12 or 13, with 21, 31, or 32; Physics, Geology, Astronomy, or Mathematics: any courses.
- Major II. Preparation for practical laboratory training: 22, 31, 37.
Minors, in order of preference: Chemistry 11, 12 or 13, with 31 or 32; Zoölogy 11, with 21, 33, or 35; Physics, Geology, Astronomy, or Mathematics: any courses.
- Major III. Preparation for horticulture and landscape gardening: 34, 33, 35.
Minors, in order of preference: Art, any combination allowed by the Art Department from courses 21, 33, 34, 35, 37, 15, 16, 25, 38; Geology, Zoölogy, and other allowed sciences.
- Major IV. For general knowledge: a combination from 21, 22, 31, 33, 34.
Minors, in order of preference: Geology 11, with 12 or 34; Zoölogy 11, with 31, 34, or 35; Chemistry 11, 12 or 13, with 31 or 32; Physics, Astronomy, or Mathematics: any courses.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 21, 31, 33, $2.50 a semester. Other laboratory courses, each $5.00 a semester. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Botany will pay only the higher fee, provided Botany is the major subject.

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR: JOHN TAPPAN STODDARD, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: ELLEN PARMELEE COOK, A. M.,

ELIZABETH SPAULDING MASON, A. B.,

MARY LOUISE FOSTER, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: LAURA SOPHRONIA CLARK, A. M.,

JESSIE YERREANCE CANN, PH. D.

INSTRUCTOR: ROY RICHARD DENSLOW, A. M.

ASSISTANTS: RUTH STELLA FINCH, A. M.,

EVA GOVE SEELY, A. B.

DEMONSTRATORS: ALICE DAVENPORT SHUMWAY, A. B.,

MARGUERITE LORD, A. B.

11. General Chemistry. Lectures on general and inorganic chemistry, two hours a week; laboratory practice, one period of two and a half hours a week. Three hours, through the year. Lec. A, M. T. at 10; Lec. B, F. S. at 12 in C. H. 1; Lab. M. T. W. Th. F. at 2; W. F. at 9; W. S. at 10, in C. H. 16. Professor Stoddard, Associate Professors Cook and Foster, Assistant Professor Cann, Mr. Denslow, Miss Finch, Mrs. Seely.
12. General Chemistry. For students who offered Chemistry for entrance. Open also, with the permission of the Department, to other students who have had a year's course in Chemistry before entrance. Lectures, recitations, and laboratory work. Three hours, through the year. Lec. M. at 12 in C. H. 1; Rec. T. 11 and 12; Th. at 2; Lab. M. at 2; W. Th. at 10. Assistant Professor Clark.
13. General Chemistry and Chemical Analysis. Open only to Juniors and Seniors who have had a year's course in Chemistry before entrance. One lecture or recitation and two laboratory periods. Three hours, through the year. Lec. F. at 9; Rec. S. at 9; Lab. F. S. at 10. Assistant Professor Clark.
- 21a. Qualitative Analysis. The method of systematic analysis for the detection of the metals and the acid radicals, with practice in the analysis of a number of unknown substances. For students who have taken 11 or 12. One lecture or recitation, and two laboratory periods. Three hours, first semester. Lec. Th. at 12 in C. H. 1; Lab. M. T. at 2; Th. at 10; F. at 2; Th. at 2; F. at 9.
- b. Quantitative Analysis. A study of the methods and manipulation of exact quantitative determinations. For students who have taken 21a. One lecture or recitation, and two laboratory periods. Three hours, second semester. Lec. Th. at 12 in C. H. 1; Lab. M. T. Th. at 2; F. at 9. Assistant Professor Cann, Associate Professor Mason.

22a. Applications of chemical facts and principles to familiar substances and to the common experiences of every-day life. Lectures and discussions.

b. Chemistry in Some Important Industries. A study of the history of chemical manufactures and of the part that chemistry plays in the development and utilization of natural resources. Lectures and recitations.

For students who have taken 11, 12 or 13. Two hours, each semester.

M. T. at 2 in C. H. 1. Professor Stoddard.

31. Organic Chemistry.

a. The compounds of carbon, chiefly those of the aliphatic series. Lectures, recitations, and laboratory practice.

b. Study of the aromatic compounds. Lectures, recitations, and laboratory practice.

For students who have taken 11, 12, or 13. Rec. T. W. at 9; Th. F. at 9 in C. H. 14; Lab. M. at 9; T. at 10; T. at 2; W. at 10; Th. F. at 10 in C. H. 13. Three hours, through the year. Associate Professor Cook, Miss Finch. (34)

32. Biochemistry. The chemistry of the lipoids, proteins, and carbohydrates; extraction of typical substances and the study of the changes brought about by the action of enzymes, moulds, and bacteria. For students who have taken 21 or 13, and have taken or are taking Botany 22. Three hours, through the year. †Lec. W. at 12 in C. H. 14; Lab. T. W. at 10; Th. F. at 9 in C. H. 17. Associate Professor Foster.

33. The Laws and Theories of Chemistry. Lectures and recitations, two hours; laboratory, one hour. For students who have taken 21a and b, and a course in general Physics. †Two or three hours, through the year. Lec. W. F. at 3. Professor Stoddard.

34a. Quantitative Food Analysis. Standard methods of analysis of water and of typical food materials. Lectures, recitations and laboratory practice. Three hours, first semester. For students who have taken 31a and 21 or 13. Lec. T. at 11; Lab. M. T. at 9.

b. A continuation of 34a with the addition of some micro-chemical methods. †Three hours, second semester. Associate Professor Mason.

35. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. Lectures and recitations. Prerequisite, 21 or 13. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Stoddard.

36. Inorganic Preparations. Laboratory practice. Open only to students who are taking 35. †One hour, through the year. Professor Stoddard.

37a and b. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Laboratory practice. †Two hours, through the year. F. S. at 9.

41a and b. Advanced Work in biochemical methods and analyses, with special attention to recent work; in the preparation and identification of organic substances; or other special work. Discussions, reading, and laboratory practice. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have already taken three years of work in the Department. To be arranged by consultation with Professor Stoddard. Three hours, each semester or through the year.

See Emergency Course, p. 109.

THE MAJOR

The major is based upon 11 or 12 and must include 21. It may not include 22a.

THE MINORS

Any two courses in Astronomy, Botany, Geology, Mathematics, Physics, or Zoölogy; Botany 22 and a course in Zoölogy; a course in Mathematics and one in Physics or Astronomy.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: 11 and 12, first semester, $4.00; second semester, $3.00; all other laboratory courses, $5.00 each semester with an additional charge for breakage. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Chemistry will pay only one fee (the larger), provided Chemistry is the major subject.

ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

PROFESSOR: CHARLES FRANKLIN EMERICK, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: F. STUART CHAPIN, PH. D.,
ESTHER LOWENTHAL, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: JANE ISABEL NEWELL, A. M.,
SEBA ELDRIDGE, B. E., A. B.,
M. CHASE GOING WOODHOUSE, A. M.

INSTRUCTOR: *JOHN DONALDSON, PH. D.

LECTURER: CARRIE ADDIE GAUTHIER, A. B.

A. Economics

21. Outlines of Economics. A survey of Economic principles and such problems as trusts, railway rates, trade unions, the tariff, and money. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in G. H.; Th. F. S. at 9 in C. H. 1. Professor Emerick, Associate Professor Lowenthal. (30)
- 22a. American Industrial Development. Special treatment of the agricultural, manufacturing, and commercial expansion of the United States.

* Absent for the year.

b. Socialism and Social Reform. For students who have taken one course in the Department.

Two hours, each semester. M. 3 to 5 in S. 13. Assistant Professor Eldridge.

31a. History and Theories of Economic Control. The relations of the state and the individual in matters of trade and industry based on English history.

b. The Labor Movement. The wage system, trade unions, labor legislation.

For students who have taken one course in the Department. Three hours, each semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Lowenthal.

32a. Money, Banking, Credit, and Foreign Exchange. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in B. H. 2. Professor Emerick.

b. The Elements of Public Finance. Governmental revenues and expenditures, with special emphasis upon modern forms of taxation. For students who have taken one of the following courses: 21, or 31a. Three hours, second semester. Associate Professor Lowenthal. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

33a. History of Economic Theory. Adam Smith to John Stuart Mill. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. †Two hours, first semester. Associate Professor Lowenthal.

b. Advanced Economic Theory. A critical study of the changes in economic thought since the time of John Stuart Mill. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. †Two hours, second semester. Assistant Professor Woodhouse.

34b. Economic Aspects of the War. †Three hours, second semester. Assistant Professor Woodhouse.

35a. Recent Economic Changes. Economic development during the 19th century, including Trusts. For students who have taken 21. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 9 in S. 22. Assistant Professor Woodhouse.

b. Corporation Finance and the Railway Problem. For students who have taken one of the following courses: 21 or 31a.

Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in B. H. 2. Professor Emerick.

B. Sociology

26. The Principles of Sociology and Social Economy. In the second semester emphasis will be laid upon the problem of poverty, its causes, relief, and prevention, and upon methods of dealing with the defective and delinquent classes.

Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 10 in G. H. and B. H. 6; at 11 in C. H. 1; Th. F. S. at 12 in S. 17. Associate Professor Chapin, Assistant Professors Newell, Eldridge, and Woodhouse. (28)

36a. History of Social Theories. For students who have taken one course in the Department.

b. The Family and Child Problems. For students who have taken 21 or one semester of 26 and one other course in the Department.

Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 10 in S. 17. Assistant Professor Newell.

37a. Methods of Social Research. A critical study of the Social Survey in England and America, and a study of the methods of investigation used by commissions of the Federal and State Governments.

b. Social and Economic Statistics. Population problems, the standard of living, and problems of human inheritance statistically treated. Variation and correlation. Methods of charting and graphic portrayal.

For students who have taken one course in Economics and one course in Sociology. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Chapin and Miss Gauthier.

38b. Social Case Work. Lectures and field work in the methods and technique of family rehabilitation. Requires additional time for field work which may be given during vacations. Open to Seniors who have taken 21 or 26. Three hours, second semester. Miss Gauthier.

THE MAJORS

Economics. The major is based upon 21. It must include 32. Sociology 26 may be included.

Sociology. The major is based upon 26, and must include Economics 21 unless that course is taken as part of the minor. Economics 22 and 31 may also be included in the major in Sociology, provided that one half of the hours to be counted toward the major are in Sociology.

THE MINORS

Economics. Any courses in Sociology or in History, except History 22; Mathematics 23 with Sociology 37; Mathematics 23 with any other permissible course in Mathematics.

Sociology. Any courses in Economics; History (especially 314 and 315); Philosophy 32, 314, 315, 319; Zoology 31, 34, 41; Mathematics 23 with any other permissible course in Mathematics.

EDUCATION

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: HARVEY GATES TOWNSEND, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: EDNA ASTON SHEARER, PH. D.

21. History and Principles of Education. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in L. H. 30; Th. F. S. at 10 in L. H. 30; at 11 in L. H. 30. Associate Professor Townsend, Assistant Professor Shearer. (23)
31. Modern Educational Theory. For students who have taken 21 or Philosophy 31a. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in L. H. 32. Assistant Professor Shearer.
32. Education in the United States. Emphasis will be placed upon the transformation of the school when brought into contact with other American institutions and the ideals of American democracy. The high school, its organization and curricula, its articulation with primary and higher schools. For students who have taken 21. Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 10 in L. H. 32. Associate Professor Townsend.
- 34a. The Psychology of Secondary School Instruction. For Seniors who have taken or are taking 21. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in L. H. 32. Associate Professor Townsend.
- b. School Administration and Method. School visiting, reports, and discussions. For students who have taken 34a. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in L. H. 32. Associate Professor Townsend, Assistant Professor Shearer.
- Philosophy 314a. Genetic and Comparative Psychology. The Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence. A study of the successive stages in mental development, treating especially attention, memory, interest, habit, transfer of training, and fatigue. Lectures, recitations, and reports of reading and observation. Open to students who have taken or are taking 25a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 12 in C. 6A. Miss Clark.
41. Special Problems in Education. Topics assigned for individual study. For students who have taken or are taking 31 or 32. †Two hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Shearer.

For courses in the teaching of special subjects, see: Astronomy 34b, Botany 37, French 32b, German 32b, Latin 37, Music 39.

THE MAJOR

The major may consist of any combination of courses based on 21 or on Philosophy 21b and 25a.

THE MINORS

Philosophy: 31, 32, 314a, 315, 319.

Economics: 22, 36.

History: 24, 39.

Zoölogy: 31, 35.

Students preparing to teach may, with the consent of the departments concerned, offer as minors suitable courses in the subjects to be taught.

THE MAJOR

The major depends upon the amount of work in this subject accomplished by the student before reaching Junior year. In general, it is based on two units offered for entrance and one three-hour course taken in college, or the equivalent. A student beginning German in college and desiring to make it her major is strongly advised to carry a three-hour course in it through Freshman and Sophomore years.

The major consists of any combination of courses which satisfies the requirement, and which a student's previous training enables her to pursue. It may not include Grade I courses or 22 or 32b.

THE MINORS

Students who intend to do their major work in German should consult the head of the Department in regard to the arrangement of their minors.

THE MAJOR

The major depends upon the amount of work in this subject accomplished by the student before reaching Junior year. In general it is based on 12 or 13, and must include 36 or 37, which may not be taken until reading courses amounting to six hours have been taken. Eight hours will satisfy the major requirement, unless 36 and 37 are taken together, in which case nine hours are required.

In case only 11 has been taken before Junior year, the major requirement is nine hours, and must include 12. It is, however, strongly recommended that students beginning Greek in college should carry it in both Freshman and Sophomore year if they expect to make it a major.

Students taking Greek as a major should have a fair reading knowledge of either French or German.

B. Practical Courses

Regulations Regarding Practical Courses. Individual lessons are given in Pianoforte, Organ, Violin and other Orchestral Instruments, and Voice. These lessons are adapted to the proficiency of the student, and may be continued throughout her college course. They are supplemented by class lessons, work in the College Orchestra, ensemble playing, choir accompaniment, and singing in the Choir and Oratorio chorus. Students contemplating taking courses in practical music should come prepared to take the necessary examinations.

Elementary work in practical music is not given. The requirements for entering Pianoforte A and Violin A are identical with the entrance requirements in piano and violin stated on pages 42 and 43 of the Catalogue. Equivalents will be accepted. No knowledge of harmony is required. The requirements for entering courses in violoncello and other orchestral instruments are similar in grade to those in violin. As an alternative for entering courses in harp, the regular pianoforte requirement will be accepted. For entering Organ B, Pianoforte A or its equivalent is prerequisite. Students who have laid a suitable foundation in the elements of music, in pianoforte playing, and in reading music at sight and whose voices give promise may enter Voice A. The previous study of voice is advisable but is not required.

Two lessons a week with not less than five hours of practice a week count as two hours; one lesson a week with not less than five hours of practice counts as one hour; one lesson a week with not less than three hours of practice may be taken in addition to other practical work and counts as one hour but may not be counted within the minimum. Lessons are 30 minutes in length.

All practical work counted within the minimum of hours must be accompanied by theoretical work. Not more than two hours each year may be thus counted.

Lessons are given in Music Hall, Music Hall Annex, John M. Greene Hall and the Students' Building.

English: 211, 213, 214, 35, 36, 38, 39, 311, 312, 315.

Greek: any courses above Grade I except 35, 44, 45, 46, 47.

Latin: 31, 32, 35, 36.

French: 26, 37a, 38b, 311, 313, 315.

German: 26, 27, 36, 38, 39, 311.

Spanish: 25, 35, 45.

Italian: 31 with 32 or 33.

Psychology:

Philosophy: any courses above 21a.

Education: any courses.

Economics and Sociology: any courses.

Biblical Literature: any courses above Grade II except 38.

English: any courses above Grade I.

History: any courses above Grade I.

Spoken English: any courses above Grade I.

Art: any historical or theoretical courses above Grade I, or any combination of these with Philosophy 33.

Music: any historical or theoretical courses above Grade I, or any combination of these with Philosophy 33.

Physics: 21, 25b, 31a, 33a, 34b.

Zoölogy: 11, 21, 31, 34, 35, 41.

Mathematics: 23 with any other course.

Students taking either Philosophy or Psychology as their major are strongly advised to consult the Department in regard to their courses.

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR: FRANK ALLAN WATERMAN, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: ARTHUR TABER JONES, PH. D.

INSTRUCTORS: HANNAH LOUISA BILLINGS, A. B.,

GLADYS AMELIA ANSLOW, A. M.

ASSISTANT: MILDRED BURNETTE PORTER, A. B.

All courses in Physics are held in Lilly Hall.

11. Elementary Physics. Laws and properties of matter, sound, light, heat, electricity, and magnetism. Lectures and recitations two hours a week; laboratory work one period of two and one half hours a week. Not open to students who offered Physics for entrance. Three hours, through the year. Lab. A, M. at 2; Lab. B, T. at 10; Lab. C, T. at 2; Lab. D, W. at 10; Lab. E, Th. at 10; Lab. F, S. at 10. Rec. A, M. at 10; Rec. B, M. at 11; Rec. C, Th. at 10; Rec. D, Th. at 11; Rec.

- E, Th. at 12; Rec. F, S. at 10; Rec. G, S. at 11. Lec. A, F. at 11; Lec. B, F. at 12. Professor Waterman, Miss Billings, Miss Anslow, Miss Porter. (25)
21. Laboratory Physics. Advanced measurements in mechanics, sound, heat, light, electricity, and magnetism. Lectures on laboratory practice. Lectures, one hour; laboratory, two periods. For students who have taken 11, or who offered Physics for entrance. Three hours, through the year. †Lec. T. at 2. Lab. A, M. at 2; Lab. B, T. at 3; Lab. C and Lab. D to be arranged. Professor Waterman, Miss Anslow.
- 23a. Mechanics and Properties of Matter. Reading, recitations, and lectures illustrated by qualitative experiments. For students who have taken 11, or who offered Physics for entrance, and who have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 10. Professor Waterman.
- 25b. Electricity and Magnetism. This course includes the practical applications of electricity and the study of dynamo electric machines. Lectures, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 10. Professor Waterman.
- 31a. Sound. The physical theory of sound, the physical basis of music and architectural acoustics. Lectures, demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 9. Assistant Professor Jones.
- 32b. Heat. Nature of heat, kinetic theory of matter, heat engines, elements of thermodynamics. Reading, demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9. Assistant Professor Jones.
- 33a. Light. Nature of light, optical instruments, defects of optical systems, interference, and the application of interference methods. Reading, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 11. Assistant Professor Jones.
- 34b. Spectroscopy. The theory of the methods employed. The applications of spectroscopy in astro-physics and in the development of the electron theory. Lectures, experimental work, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 11. Miss Anslow.
36. Analytical Mechanics. The conditions for equilibrium and the equations of motion for particles, systems of particles and rigid bodies. Reading, solution of problems, and recitations. For students who have taken Mathematics 22. Three hours, through the year. †Th. F. S. at 9. Assistant Professor Jones.

38a and b. Theoretical Physics. Selected topics, lectures, reading, and recitations. For students who have taken Mathematics 22. †Three hours, each semester. Professor Waterman or Assistant Professor Jones.

41a and b. Selected problems assigned for investigation, experimental work and discussion. Open to Seniors by permission. The time will be arranged with each student and counted as three hours, through the year. Professor Waterman.

42a and b. Theoretical Physics. Selected topics. Lectures, reading, and discussions. †Three or more hours, each semester. Assistant Professor Jones.

THE MAJOR

The major is based upon 11, 21 or 23a and 25b and consists of any combination of courses which will satisfy the requirements and which the student's previous training will enable her to pursue. Students who plan to take Physics as a major are strongly advised to take Mathematics 22 not later than Junior year.

THE MINORS

Mathematics: any courses.

Astronomy: any 2 or 3 hour courses.

Chemistry: any courses.

Geology: any courses.

Botany: 11, 31, 33, 37.

Zoology: 11, 21 and any Grade III courses.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 21, 34b, and 41, each $2.50 a semester. Course 11, $5.00 a semester. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Physics need pay only the higher fee, provided Physics is the major subject.

SPANISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

PROFESSOR: *CAROLINE BROWN BOURLAND, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: SUSAN D. HUNTINGTON, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: ELIZABETH ANDROS FOSTER, A. M.,

GRETCHEN TODD, A. B.,

ALICE PHILENA F. HUBBARD, A. M.

A. Language

11. Elementary Course. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9, 10, 11, and 12 in S. 29; Th. F. S. at 9 in S. 13; at 10 in C. 6; at 11 in S. 29. Assistant Professor Huntington, Miss Foster, Miss Todd, Miss Hubbard. (35)
13. Course in Phonetics. Sounds and production of consonants and vowels. Principles of Accentuation, Phrasing, Intonation. Practice in oral reading. Phonetic transcriptions. Dictations. For students who are taking 11. One hour, through the year. M. at 2 in S. 7. Miss Hubbard. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]
21. Prose Composition. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. May be taken only in connection with a course in B. One hour, through the year. W. at 2 in S. 18. Miss Foster.
22. Prose Composition. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. Taken with 23 it may count as a three-hour course. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 2 in S. 7 and S. 28; Th. F. at 2 in S. 1. Miss Hubbard, Miss Foster. (33)

NOTE—21 and 23 may not be taken by the same student.

23. Spanish Conversation. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. May be taken only in connection with another course in Spanish. With 22 it may count as a three-hour course. Two hours, counted as one, through the year. Th. F. at 2 in S. 19 and S. 29. Assistant Professor Huntington and Miss Todd.
31. Advanced Prose Composition. For students who have taken 21 or 22. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 2 in S. 13. Miss Todd.
41. Spanish Historical Grammar. For students who have taken 31. Hour to be fixed by consultation with the head of the Department. †One hour, through the year.

B. Literature

25. Reading and analysis of modern novels and plays. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in L. H. 30; Th. F. S. at 10 in S. 29 and B. H. 2. Assistant Professor Huntington, Miss Foster, Miss Todd. (35)

* Absent on war service.

35. Spanish Literature of the 17th Century. Lectures, recitations, and collateral reading.

a. Cervantes, Don Quijote in part, and some of the Novelas Ejemplares.

b. The Spanish "Comedia," Lope de Vega, Tirso de Molina, Ruiz de Alarcón, Calderón de la Barca. For students who have taken 11 and 25 or the equivalent. Three hours, each semester. M. at 11 in S. 32; T. W. at 11 in L. H. 23. Miss Hubbard.

36. Spanish Literature from 1833 to the present. Lectures, recitations and collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 and 25 or the equivalent.

a. From the death of Ferdinand VII to 1868.

b. After 1868.

Three hours, each semester. Th. F. S. at 9 in S. 29. Assistant Professor Huntington.

37. Lectures on the History of Spanish Literature. May be taken only in connection with another grade three, or with a grade four course. Taken in connection with 31 may count as a three-hour course.

a. Spanish Literature to the death of Calderón.

b. Spanish Literature of the 19th Century.

†One hour, each semester. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

45. Older Spanish Literature. The Poem of the Cid and other early monuments. For students who have taken 11 and 25, and who have taken or are taking 35 or 36. Hours to be fixed by consultation with the head of the Department. 45 with 41 may be counted as a three-hour course. †Two hours, through the year.

THE MAJOR

The major is based upon 11 or the equivalent and must include 25 and 21 or 22; 31 and 35 or 36, unless these courses have already been taken.

Students intending to make Spanish their major are advised to take Latin 11 in Freshman year.

THE MINORS

French: any courses.

Italian: any courses.

If French 11 or Italian 11 is taken as the elective in Junior year, not less than a three-hour course or its equivalent will be accepted in Senior year.

Latin: courses above Grade I.

German: 25, 26, 27, 35, 36, 38, 39, 311, 44.

Greek: 11, 12, 13, 21, 34, 36, 41.

English: 27, 211, 214, 31, 35, 36, 37, 39, 311, 315, 317.

History: 21, 33, 34, 313.

Students electing Spanish as their major should consult the head of the Department about the choice of the minor.

SPOKEN ENGLISH

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: *CLARA BELLE WILLIAMS, A. B.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: ELVA M. FORNCROOK, A. B.,

INSTRUCTORS: ANNA WILLARD HOSFORD, ESTHER BLAISDELL, A. B.,

ELIZABETH PRENTISS WHITMARSH, A. B., CAROLINE A. YALE, LL. D.,

HELEN WEEKS LANDON, A. B.

ASSISTANT: ALMIRA MENNINGER, A. B.

LECTURER: ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL, PH. D., M. D., LL. D.

11. Fundamental Course in Vocal Expression. For Freshmen and Sophomores only. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 9 in S. 32 and Students' Building; at 12 in †A.; at 2 in †S. 32; at 3 in S. 27; T. W. at 11 in S. 32 and A.; Th. F. at 9 in A. and Students' Building; at 12 in S. 32; at 2 in S. 27; F. S. at 9 in S. 27; at 11 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Forncrook, Miss Blaisdell, Miss Whitmarsh, Miss Landon, Miss Menninger. (33)
12. Extempore Speaking. Students with specific voice or speech defects are not admitted to this course unless they are taking in addition a course in Voice Training. Not open to Freshmen. One hour, through the year. W. at 9 in S. 32. Assistant Professor Corsa.
21. Advanced Course in Vocal Expression. For students who have taken 11. 21 and 22 taken together may be counted as a three-hour course. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 9 in A.; at 3 in S. 32; Th. F. at 10 in S. 32. Miss Hosford, Miss Blaisdell, Miss Landon. (33)
22. Voice Training. Graduated exercises for the development of tone, training of the ear, cultivation of modulations of voice, and correction of defects of speech. This includes both class drill and individual work. For students who are taking 21 or have taken or are taking 11, 12, or 23. One hour, through the year. M. at 10 in S. 25; T. at 2 in S. 27; W. at 12 in S. 32 and A.; Th. at 9 in S. 27; at 11 in A. Miss Whitmarsh, Miss Landon. (33)

Courses 21 and 22 may be elected together although they are in the same examination group.

23. Presentation of Debate and Argument. For Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who have taken or are taking another course in the Department. Two hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Corsa. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

* Absent for the year.

† This division is for Sophomores.

31. Phonetics. A scientific analysis of the elements of speech based on the physiological position of the vocal organs. Presented as a general course for the study of linguistics, but of special value to students who are desirous of improving their own speech. For students who have taken 11 or 36. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 10 in S. 27. Miss Yale, Miss Landon.
32. Voice Training. Continuation of 22. For students who have taken 22. One hour, through the year. W. at 10 in A. Miss Whitmarsh. (33)
33. Study of Imagination and its Effect on Vocal Expression. For students who have taken 11 and either 21 or 22 or who have taken 36. 33 and 32 taken together may be counted as a three-hour course. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 5 in S. 32; Th. F. at 9 in S. 32. Miss Hosford. (33)
- Courses 32 and 33 may be elected together although they are in the same examination group.
34. Voice Training. Continuation of 32. For students who have taken 32. One hour, through the year. Miss Hosford. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]
35. Theory of Dramatic Presentation. For students who have taken 11 and 21 or 33, or 36. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 11 in Students' Building. Assistant Professor Forncrook.
36. Fundamental Course for Juniors and Seniors. For students who have taken no work in the Department. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 12 in S. 27. Miss Hosford.
37. Study of the Body as an Agent of Expression. For students who have taken 33, 35 or 36. 37 and 34 taken together may be counted as a three-hour course. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 11 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Forncrook.
38. Reading of Literature. For students who have taken 33 or such other courses as may be regarded by the instructor as adequate preparation. A student must be recommended for this course by her previous instructors. Three hours, through the year. Miss Hosford. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

ZOOLOGY

PROFESSOR: HARRIS HAWTHORNE WILDER, Ph. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: INEZ WHIFFLE WILDER, A. M.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: HOWARD MADISON PARSHLEY, Sc. D.,

MYRA MELISSA SAMPSON, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: *EMMETT REID DUNN, A. M.,

†MARY HARRIETT HEAD, A. M.,

CAROLINE AUSTIN HOSFORD, A. B.

ASSISTANTS: EUNICE ELIZABETH CHACE, A. B.,

LOUISE SMITH, A. M.,

LOUISE WILLIAMS, M. S.

11. General Zoölogy. An introduction to the study of animals. The lectures deal with the fundamental principles of biology and include a comprehensive survey of the animal kingdom. The laboratory work consists of the dissection and detailed study of types representing the principal classes of animals, with practice in classification and the use of the microscope. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Three hours, through the year. Lec. Th. at 2 in B. H. 6; Dem. F. at 2 in B. H. 6; Lab. A, M. T. at 9; Lab. B, M. T. at 11; Lab. C, Th. F. at 9, (Lab. D, Th. F. at 11); all laboratory work in B. H. 19. Assistant Professor Parshley, Miss Williams.
21. Anatomy and Physiology of Man and related Mammals. The laboratory work includes the detailed study of the human skeleton, and other human anatomical preparations; the dissection and study of the muscles, nervous system, and viscera, of other mammals; the microscopic study of cells, tissues, and organs; and simple physiological experiments. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Open also to Freshmen. Three hours, through the year. Section I: Lec. W. at 2, B. H. 6; Dem. W. at 3; Lab. A, M. T. at 9; Lab. B, M. T. at 11; Lab. E, M. T. at 2, in B. H. 31. Section II: Lec. Th. at 10, B. H. 6; Dem. Th. at 11; Lab. C, F. S. at 9; Lab. D, F. S. at 11; Lab. F, Th. F. at 2, in B. H. 31. Associate Professor Wilder, Miss Chace, Miss Smith. (36)
- 23b. Ornithology. Field work and lectures. The field work consists of identification of the species and observation of the habits of our local birds. This is supplemented by the lectures and the study of museum specimens. For students who are taking a laboratory course in the Department. One hour, second semester. F. at 4 in B. H. 17. Assistant Professor Sampson.
24. Natural History of Vertebrates. The study of the habits, habitats, relationships, origin and history of the local Vertebrate fauna. Leo-

* Absent on war service.

† Absent for the year.

tures, laboratory, and field work. This course may be followed directly by 32. †Three hours, through the year. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

31. Evolution.

a. Animal Evolution. The historical development of scientific theories of animal origins from the early times to the present, especially emphasizing the most recent investigations and theories.

b. Anthropology; The Evolution of Man. Comparison of the bodily structure of man and his nearest relatives; prehistoric archaeology; ethnology; and the development of human culture. Open to Juniors and Seniors. Two hours, each semester. Th. F. at 4 in B. H. 6. Professor Wilder.

32. Anatomy of Vertebrates. The laboratory work consists of dissections and drawings of a series of typical vertebrates, including a selachian, an amphibian, a reptile, a bird, and a mammal. The lectures are upon the comparative anatomy of vertebrates. For students who have taken either 11, 21, or 24. Three hours, through the year. Lec. Th. at 11 in B. H. 17; Dem. Th. at 12 in B. H. 17; Lab. F. S. at 11 in B. H. 22. Professor Wilder, Miss Hosford.

33. General Embryology, with special Reference to Vertebrates. The laboratory work is based mainly upon embryos of the dog-fish, the chick and the pig, and includes the technic of serial sections, drawing with camera, and wax-plate reconstruction. For students who have taken, or are taking, 32. All work in B. H. 8. †Three hours, through the year. Professor Wilder.

34. Entomology. The anatomy, development, classification, and ecology or bionomics of insects, with a survey of the literature of the subject. Lectures, laboratory, and field study. For students who have taken 11. †Three hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Parshley.

35. General Physiology. A comparative study of the functions of the animal body. The laboratory work consists of experimental physiology and chemical physiology. For students who have taken 21 or 32, and Physics 11 or Chemistry 11. Lec. M. at 11 in B. H. 17; Dem. M. at 12 in B. H. 17; Lab. A, T. W. 11-1; Lab. B, Th. F. 2-4. Three hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Sampson.

41. Physical Anthropology; observations and measurements of the skulls and skeletons of the principal human races, including both recent and prehistoric forms; also the study and measurements of the facial features and the proportions of the living body. Open to Seniors who have had 21 and 31. A reading knowledge of French and German is necessary. Mainly a laboratory course, with explanatory lectures, reading, and seminary work. †Three hours, through the year. Professor Wilder.

42. Research Problems. A separate subject is assigned to each student, who selects the main direction of her research from the list following. A reading knowledge of French and German is desirable. Open to those Graduate students who are ready for the work, and to Seniors who have taken the prerequisites asked for.

1. Problems in Vertebrate Morphology and Embryology. 33 is a prerequisite. Professor Wilder, Associate Professor Wilder.

2. Problems in Invertebrate Morphology and Taxonomy, especially Entomology. Students must have had 11, 34, and one other course in the Department. Assistant Professor Parshley.

3. Problems in Physiology. 35 is a prerequisite. Assistant Professor Sampson.

4. Problems in Animal Distribution and Species-formation. Students must have had three courses in the Department, including 24. [Omitted in 1918-1919.]

A Seminary for the presentation of reviews of recent literature and the preliminary report of the results of individual research is held once a week during the year by the Faculty members of the Department, and is open, by invitation only, to a few advanced students.

For Emergency Course, see p. 109.

THE MAJORS

All students who select Zoölogy as their major subject must include Course 11, except in Sequence V, which requires 21. Students are advised to select one of the following sequences, in accordance with their preference, or plans for their future work.

I. For Vertebrate Morphology (Anatomy, Embryology, etc.) 32, 33, 42. 1. 24 is also desirable.

II. For Vertebrate Zoölogy (Taxonomy, Ecology, Distribution, etc.) 24, 32, 33.

III. For Invertebrate Zoölogy, especially Entomology. 24, (or 32), 34, 42. 2.

IV. For Physiology: 21, 35, 42. 3.

V. For Anthropology: 32, 33, 41, following 21 as the introductory course.

VI. For General Biological Teaching: 21, 32, 35, or 21, 24, 34. The first gives more anatomy and physiology; the second more knowledge of the species and work out of doors.

VII. For Medicine: 21, 32, 33, or 21, 32, 35, or 21, 24, 32.

THE MINORS

In accordance with the rules concerning minors any subject, other than Zoölogy, included in Groups IV and V, is allowed as a minor. The Department, however, recommends especially the following, as the logical accompaniments of the various major sequences:

- I. Botany 11, 21, 31; or Geology 11, 35.
- II. Botany 11, 21, or 33; or Geology 11, 35.
- III. Botany 11, 21; or Philosophy 311, 312.
- IV. Chemistry 11, 31, or Philosophy 311, 312. In case Chemistry has been taken before the Junior year, either Chemistry 21 or 31, or Physics 11, is advised as the minor for Juniors; and if Chemistry 31 has been taken in the Junior year, Chemistry 32a and b or 32a and 34b are advised as the minor for Seniors.
- V. Sociology 26 and Mathematics 23, in either order; or Geology 21, 35.
- VI. Any two of the following, not already taken: Botany 11, 21, 31, 33; or Geology 11, 21, 35.
- VII. Botany 11, 22; or Chemistry 11, (12), 21, or 11, (12), 31.

If, in any of the above cases, one or more of the above courses has already been taken, and no alternative is here suggested, any other advanced courses in the Departments named may be used to make up the minor.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 11, 21, 32, 33, 34, and 41; $5.00 a semester. Course 35 has a fee of $5.00, and an additional charge for breakage. Course 24 has a fee of $2.50 a semester. In the courses listed under 42 there is no set fee, but each student is expected to pay for the material she uses. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Zoölogy will pay only the higher fee, provided Zoölogy is the major subject.

EMERGENCY COURSE

- 31a. Hospital Laboratory Technic. Designed to provide the practical training necessary for assistants to physicians in war hospital laboratories. Open to students who have taken a year of either Botany or Zoölogy (including training in the use of the compound microscope), and a year of Chemistry. Students are admitted to this course only after consultation with one of the teachers in charge of the course. Laboratory work with brief explanatory talks. Fee, $10.00. Hours to be arranged upon consultation with the instructors. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. 10-1. Associate Professors Foster and Wilder, Assistant Professors Clapp and Sampson,
- 31b. Repetition of 31a.

REGULATIONS OF THE COURSE OF STUDY

GENERAL STATEMENTS

1. Administrative Board: for the Class of 1919, Dean Barbour; for the Class of 1920, Dean McElwain; for the Class of 1921, Dean Mary M. Cook; for the Class of 1922, Dean Benedict; Professor Mensel and Professor Robert Seneca Smith; Dean Comstock, chairman.
2. Requests for Changes in the Course Elected.
 - (a) All requests for changes in the course elected must be filed in the Office of the Class Deans on or before September 1 on official blanks. These blanks may be obtained in the Office of the Class Deans and will be sent by mail on application.
 - (b) Changes of course after the first of September will be permitted the student only upon the payment of a fee of $2 for each course changed. No fee will be charged in case of changes for reasons beyond the control of the student.
 - (c) After the second Saturday of the first semester and after the beginning of the second semester no petitions for changes of course will be considered by the Administrative Board, except in cases of serious illness or for other reasons beyond the control of the student. Such changes may be made without fee. After the spring vacation no courses may be dropped without the consent of the College Physician.
 - (d) If a course is withdrawn by an instructor, the student will be permitted, without fee, to make another election which does not conflict with courses already chosen.
3. Students are required to make themselves familiar with all regulations regarding the course of study. While all possible aid and direction will be given by the Class Deans, the students will be held responsible for errors in their choice of studies.
4. Every student is required to present her course card, properly filled out, at the time and place designated in the Weekly Bulletin. All courses taken must be entered upon this card. Changes in elections are allowed only by permission of the Administrative Board.
5. Students who wish to carry more than two hours in excess of the required minimum for any year must obtain the permission of the Administrative Board.

6. No student is permitted to take more than the minimum number of hours if she has an entrance condition not made up, or if in the previous semester she has failed in three hours of work, except as permission may be given by vote of the Administrative Board.

A student who has lost her former class standing in consequence of unsatisfactory work may not take more than the minimum number of hours until for at least one semester her record shall be without grades below C in any department. Exceptions to this rule may be allowed in extraordinary cases by vote of the Administrative Board.

7. No credit will be given for French 11, German 11, Spanish 11, or Italian 11, unless the subject is continued through the year.

In general, only those courses announced as semester courses may be taken as such. That is to say, a year course may not be dropped or entered in the middle of the year except by special permission from the Administrative Board.

8. Students entering with advanced work should consult Professor Irving F. Wood regarding the method of obtaining credit and the right to examination in such work.
9. Students wishing to do work during the summer in order to gain college credit must secure in advance the consent of the department concerned and of the Administrative Board.
10. Members of the entering class, found upon examination by the department of Spoken English to be notably defective in enunciation and in the general use of the voice, are strongly advised to take Spoken English 11.
11. Juniors and Seniors wishing to do intensive work in a subject may be allowed, with the approval of the department concerned and by special permission of the Administrative Board, to apply two of their required hours to additional work in that subject. Request for such adjustment of hours should be made in writing when the registration cards are returned.
12. Attention is called to the fact that Greek 42, History of Greek Sculpture, is open to students who have not studied, as well as to those who have studied Greek, while Greek 38, Greek Literature in Translation, is open only to students who have not taken Greek.
13. Juniors and Seniors are required to take four periods of exercise a week, of not less than one hour each, from October 1 to June 1, and to present reports as may be directed.
14. Any course elected by fewer than five students may be withdrawn.
15. Students are not allowed to become regular visitors at classes to which they do not belong without the consent of the Administrative Board. A student who wishes to make an occasional visit to a class should secure the consent of the instructor in charge. The permission should be asked for beforehand, either in person at an office hour or by a formal note.

THE REVISED CURRICULUM

The curriculum has been arranged on the basis of principles and with reference to the methods which educational experience has proved to be adapted to the fulfillment of the clearly defined aims of a college of liberal arts. The student, therefore, before electing her courses for the Freshman year, should read carefully the following outline of the entire college course and should endeavor from the beginning to understand the plan of her own college course as a whole.

Every student should observe carefully that she is dealing with a Group System which regulates her entire course. She should study the groups and attempt to understand their relationship to each year's work and to analyze their meaning for the course as a whole.

It is of the utmost importance for the student to use wisely the elective privileges of the first two years. One of the distinctive features of the curriculum is that it offers the opportunity to pursue courses in any department before the close of Sophomore year. The significance of that possibility lies in the fact that the major subject of the two upper years must be one which has been taken in either Freshman or Sophomore year or in both.

The selection of the major subject is the most important choice which the student is asked to make. It determines largely the character of the two upper years. This question, therefore, should be kept in mind from the beginning. The work of the earlier years should be so distributed among the different groups that the student may acquire the knowledge of the various fields of study and of her own tastes and capabilities that will enable her to choose wisely the subject in which she is to concentrate her effort in the later years of her course.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Sixty hours, including two in Hygiene and Physical Education, are required for graduation. They are distributed among the four years as follows: Freshman 16, Sophomore 16, Junior 14, Senior 14.
2. In each year the student must carry at least three three-hour courses.
3. All courses are classified in four grades. Those intended primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores are designated as Grade I, for Sophomores and Juniors as Grade II, for Juniors and Seniors as Grade III, and for Graduate Students as Grade IV. In the two upper years at least 22 hours must be above Grade I, of which not less than nine must be above Grade II. If the major subject consists of nine hours, six at least shall be above Grade II; if of eight hours, at least five shall be above Grade II.

4. Each student must elect her major and minor subjects at the close of the Sophomore year.
5. The major is based upon a two- or three-hour course taken in Freshman or Sophomore year. It consists of a three-hour course in Junior year, followed by two three-hour courses, or a three-hour course and a two-hour course, in Senior year. It occupies, therefore, either eight or nine hours in the two upper years.
6. Major subjects may not be chosen in Spoken English or Hygiene. Practical work cannot be counted within the major, but students offering a major of eight hours in Music or Art will be permitted in the Senior year to count within the minimum two hours of practical work.
7. Except for the provision made in General Regulation 6 not more than six hours in Group VI may in any year be counted within the minimum, and every course in practical Art or Music so counted must be accompanied by a course in theory. In any case not more than two hours of practical work each year may be counted within the minimum.
8. A student may not carry both practical Art and practical Music within the minimum, and may not elect within the minimum at the same time courses in the three departments of Art, Music, and Spoken English.

GROUPS

- I. English Language and Literature.
- II. Greek, Latin.
- III. French, German, Italian, Spanish.
- IV. Mathematics, Astronomy, Physics, Chemistry.
- V. Geology, Botany, Zoölogy.
- VI. Art, Music, Spoken English.
- VII. History, Economics and Sociology.
- VIII. Philosophy, Education, Bible.
- IX. Hygiene and Physical Education.

FRESHMAN YEAR

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---------|
| 1. GROUP I. English | 3 hours |
| 2. GROUP II. Greek or Latin | 3 hours |

If a total of 6 units in two classical languages was offered for entrance, the student may elect any subject open to Freshmen.

3. GROUP III. French, or German, or Italian, or Spanish 3 hours
If the language chosen was not offered for entrance, this requirement may be met in either Freshman or Sophomore year.

If a total of 5 units in two modern languages was offered for entrance, the student may elect any subject open to Freshmen.

4. GROUP IV. Mathematics, or Astronomy, or Physics, or Chemistry 3 hours
If a science is chosen, a classical language must be taken in Freshman year.

5. GROUP IX. Hygiene and Physical Education 1 hour

6. ELECTIVE 3 hours
The student should observe that in addition to courses in Groups I to IV certain courses in Groups V and VI and History in Group VII are open as electives to Freshmen.

16 hours

SOPHOMORE YEAR

1. GROUP IV OR V. Science 3 hours

If Mathematics was chosen in Freshman year, the student may elect any science. If a science was chosen in place of Mathematics, the student must select a subject from Group V, which may be taken in either Sophomore or Junior year.

If this science requirement was taken as an elective in Freshman year, or if 2 units of science were offered for entrance and a science was chosen in Freshman year, the student may then elect any course open to Sophomores.

2. GROUP VII. History 3 hours

If the required course was elected in Freshman year, the student may choose any subject open to Sophomores. If 3 units of History were offered for entrance, the student may take either History or Economics.

3. GROUP VIII. Philosophy, or Bible 3 hours

One must be taken in Sophomore year, the other in either Sophomore or Junior year.

DIRECTIONS FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

Students pursuing graduate work should register on the first day of the academic year at the office of the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, College Hall 14. The choice of studies must be made under the direction of the department in which the major is taken and with the approval of the instructors concerned.

The course of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts shall consist of a major and a closely related minor. The major shall be within a single department, and the minor within a related department. When, however, the department of the major includes several lines of work the minor may also be selected from this department, provided that the minor differs in character from the major.

A year's work for the degree of Master of Arts is the equivalent of four three-hour courses. The courses in the major must be of Grade III or Grade IV, and at least two must be of Grade IV. (See General Regulation 3, p. 112.) In general, the minor must be of Grade III or IV. For each course below Grade IV one hour of supplementary work is required. The courses counted for the degree of Master of Arts must be completed with distinction.

The candidate for the degree of Master of Arts is required to present a paper embodying the results of a special study comprised in the major, and to pass an examination in each course taken. The required paper must be presented on or before the twentieth of May of the year in which the degree is received. A bound type-written or printed copy of an accepted paper or thesis must be placed by the candidate in the college library.

Grade IV courses are primarily for Graduate Students. A statement of the Grade III courses which are open to Graduate Students may be had upon application to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction.

SCHOLARSHIP REGULATIONS

1. Grades are assigned with the following significations: A, high honor; B, honor; C, credit; D, pass; E, failure.
2. A failure may be made up only by repeating the subject in class or by taking a substitute course of an equivalent number of hours. Such a substitute course must conform to the regulations of the curriculum applicable to the course for which the substitute is offered.
3. A student who has failed in five or more hours of work in a semester receives an official warning. Entrance conditions which have not been removed by the end of the first semester of the second year are counted as failures, each entrance unit being reckoned as three semester hours. A student who receives warnings in two consecutive semesters or in any three semesters is excluded from college, unless special exception be made by vote of the Faculty.
4. Any student whose scholarship is generally unsatisfactory, although not coming specifically under the above rules, may be brought before the Faculty for action and excluded from College.

5. (a) For graduation a student must have to her credit a total of 64 semester-hours above grade D.
(b) In each semester eight of the required minimum of hours shall be above grade D.
(c) If more than the minimum number of hours be taken, the requirement of hours above grade D must be increased by one for each hour in excess of the minimum.
(d) If a student is allowed to carry less than the required number of hours for any semester, 60 per cent. of her hours shall be above grade D. And the requirement of hours above this grade for the two or more semesters covering the period of the shortage and its removal by excess of hours shall be equal to the sum of the requirements normally demanded in these semesters.
6. (a) Notice of deficiency in the required number of hours above grade D is sent to the student by the Registrar.
(b) This deficiency is removed when the student has made, in addition to her semester class requirement (see 5 above), the number of hours above grade D in which she was deficient.
(c) A student who receives a notice of a deficiency in two successive semesters or in any three semesters loses her class standing and is rated with the class next below.
(d) If a student incurs a deficiency, and if during the two succeeding semesters she fails to make up the deficiency, she loses her class standing and is rated with the class below.
(e) A student who has a shortage of more than three hours for one semester, or more than two hours for a year, loses her class standing and is rated with the class next below. Any shortage of hours permitted by the Administrative Board may be made up, subject to the approval of the Board, by a corresponding excess of hours in either semester of the succeeding year or years; or the excess of hours may be distributed between the semesters in any manner which the Board approves.
7. (a) Class standing lost through deficiency may be regained when the student has made, in addition to her semester class requirement (see 5 above) the number of hours above grade D in which she was deficient.
(b) Failure to regain class standing within a year causes a student to be brought before the Administrative Board for special action, with the presumption that she will be excluded from College. The same presumption holds in the case of the student who has lost class standing and who, at the end of the following semester, has a record so poor that the regaining of class standing within a year is impossible. The final disposal of such cases rests with the Faculty acting on the recommendation of the Administrative Board.

8. In the courses designated as year courses the mark which the student obtains at the end of the first semester will be regarded as only tentative and the final mark for the year's work will be that which the student obtains at the end of the second semester.

ABSENCE FROM COLLEGE EXERCISES

Every student is expected to attend all of her scheduled college exercises, and will be held responsible for the full content of each course of study. No change from division to division is allowed in order to prevent or remove records of absences.

- (a) Such absences as may occur are classified and handled as follows:

1. Absences on account of illness. These absences will be excused by the instructor upon the presentation of a signed statement from the College Physician. Students will be given opportunity to make up work which has been missed, when the nature of the work permits it.
2. Absences on account of illness of members of the family or other serious trouble at home. These absences will be excused by the instructor upon the presentation of a signed statement by the Registrar. Students will be given opportunity to make up work which has been missed, when the nature of the work permits it.
3. Absences at the beginning and end of vacations, and before and after holidays. Every one of these absences must be accounted for by a signed statement from the Registrar or the College Physician. When these absences come under Class 1 or Class 2, the work may be made up as at any other time. When the absence is occasioned by some reason other than the reasons included under Classes 1 and 2, permission to make up the work missed may be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Absences of this last-named type will be allowed by the Registrar for urgent reasons only.
4. Absences for other reasons. The responsibility for all other absences rests entirely upon the student.
 - (a) No student may claim opportunity to make up the work missed.
 - (b) Absence may reduce the grade in such manner as the instructor may determine.

- (b) A student who has absences, whether excused or unexcused, numbering more than seven in a three-hour course, five in a two-hour course, or three in a one-hour course must apply to the Administrative Board for permission to enter the examination in that course.
- (c) Students coming under any one of the following heads will be required to present an excuse from the College Physician or the Registrar for every absence from class.
 1. Students who at the end of the preceding semester have received an official warning or notice of deficiency.
 2. Students in the Freshman Class who by reason of entrance conditions have entered on trial.
 3. Students who on account of social misconduct seem to require special supervision.

ABSENCE FROM EXAMINATIONS

A student necessarily absent from a semester examination must report her absence, with the reason therefor, at the Registrar's office, personally or by letter, or by sending a doctor's certificate, within twenty-four hours after the time set for the examination. If the reason for absence is regarded by the Registrar as satisfactory, the student will be given another opportunity for examination. If the absence occurs at the time of the midyear examinations, the opportunity will be given within two weeks after the opening of the next semester. If the absence occurs during the final examinations, the opportunity will be given during the examination period in June or at the time of the entrance examinations in September. If the reasons for absence are not regarded as satisfactory by the Registrar, the student will be conditioned in the work covered by the examination until it is made up under the direction of the department.

Students may not take examinations or tests at the same time as the rest of the class in other than the officially appointed places unless the work is formally supervised.

No student will be excused from an examination given her class except by vote of the Faculty obtained through the department concerned.

GENERAL INFORMATION

RESIDENCE

Smith College has twenty-three halls of residence, housing more than eight hundred students. It is the aim of the College to make these houses homelike and pleasant, as well as to create in them conditions favorable for study. Except for seven of the smaller houses, each has its own kitchen, dining room, and living rooms, and is presided over by a Head of the House, who devotes her whole time to the administration of the house and to personal care of the students in her charge. A member of the Faculty of Instruction lives in each house.

Application for rooms in the halls of residence should be made to the Dean as long before entrance as possible. Such applications are received only from those who have applied for admission to the College and have made the deposit of $10, which is then required. Rooms are assigned to entering students in the order of application, but preference will be given to those who in the June preceding entrance are known to be free from entrance conditions. Order of application is not considered in making assignments after the Freshman year, and order of assignment to the three upper classes is determined by lot.

1. No room can be engaged for a shorter time than one year.

2. A student who accepted a campus assignment before entering College and who wishes in some succeeding year to go into another campus house is at liberty to draw for assignments with her class. With this exception students are not transferred from one of the halls of residence to another.

3. After September 1 students may not give up rooms which have been assigned to them, except in case of withdrawal from college, or other imperative reason.

* 4. Students are not received in halls of residence until the day before the opening of College. The first meal is served at 1.00 P. M.

5. Students of the Freshman Class are expected to give up their rooms at noon of the Friday before Commencement.

6. Each student must provide her own towels. The necessary bedding and furniture are provided by the College.

7. An extra charge is made for meals sent to a student's room or for extra service.

Students may obtain board and lodging in houses privately owned and managed, at an expense varying from $8 to $17 a week. These houses must be approved by the College, and a list of houses so approved may be had by application to the Dean. Any student who desires to lodge in a house not included in the printed list is required to consult the Dean before engaging her room.

HEALTH

The health of students is under the care of the College Physician, who gives her entire time to the practice of preventive medicine with the teaching of efficient living. Daily office hours are held for consultation, and every student may have free advice upon all matters in any way affecting her health. When college opens, a complete medical and physical examination of each student is made by the College Physician and members of the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education. Data from this examination and from the questions answered at entrance are carefully recorded, and it is expected that by this means the College

* Exceptions to this rule are made for students whose entrance is assured, but who have some examinations still to take, and for students who are obliged to return early for examinations to remove entrance conditions or complete work. These may occupy the rooms assigned them in the college houses on the day of their examinations, unless an examination is at 9.00 A. M., in which case they may occupy their rooms the night before. In no case, however, are the houses open before Monday night of examination week. Any one wishing to avail herself of the privilege of arriving early must notify the Head of the House to which she has been assigned.

Physician may become thoroughly acquainted with the needs of each individual. Modifications in prescriptions of physical exercise are then made. Reëxaminations are given and these prescriptions changed as often as necessary. No student is allowed to take part in competitive games or heavy gymnastics, or to be a member of basket ball, hockey, or other team, unless pronounced physically fit.

Health Regulations

1. All absence from academic exercises which is due to illness must be excused by the College Physician.

2. An illness, no matter how slight, must be reported at once to the College Physician by the Head of the House in order that the College may be assured that all possible care is being given the student and may be able to guard other students by investigating the cause of illness.

3. A student ill enough to be in bed for more than a day or two will not ordinarily be allowed to remain in a college house, whether on or off the campus. Communicable diseases are cared for at the infirmary; opportunity for rest and recuperation is given at Sunnyside; and serious cases are cared for at the Dickinson Hospital. No student may be taken for medical treatment to these or to any other institution or private house without the approval of the College Physician.

4. Permission to leave college because of illness must, in every case, be obtained from the College Physician.

5. Any student who has been exposed to a communicable disease while away from college shall not return to college until she has explained the circumstances to the College Physician, and fulfilled whatever conditions shall be deemed necessary in the specific case.

EXPENSES

Tuition	$200.00
Fee for graduation	10.00

Board and room in halls of residence 350.00
(This sum includes the washing of a dozen plain pieces weekly.)

Fee for courses in Astronomy, Chemistry, Physics, Zoölogy, and Botany for the college year will be found on pages 51, 58, 101, 109 and 55.

Fee for required course in Physical Education 5.00

Fee for elective courses in Physical Education extending from November 1 to spring recess 2.50

Fee for practical work in Art for the college year 10.00

Fees for practical courses in Music:

Vocal or Instrumental, for the college year:

Two half-hour lessons or one hour lesson a week $100.00

One half-hour lesson a week 50.00

Use of room for piano or vocal practice, one hour daily 10.00

Use of practice organs in John M. Greene Hall, one hour daily 25.00

Use of college orchestral instruments, one hour daily 10.00

Use of room for violin or other practice, one hour daily 5.00

Expenses at the Infirmary or Sunnyside:

By the day $2.00 to $3.00

By the week $14.00 to $21.00

NOTE—With the completion of the Elisabeth Mason Infirmary, a change in fees will be made. This change will be announced in the spring publication of the College. Students paying the $200 tuition will be entitled each year to two weeks' use of the Infirmary without charge.

One-half of the annual fees for tuition and board must be paid in advance at the beginning of each semester. Five per cent. will be added to all college bills which are unpaid at the end of the first month. No deduction will be made for absences, except for prolonged illness.

A few college rooms of extra size and desirability may be had upon the payment of an additional fee of from $25 to $150. There are, also, a few suites, the additional fee for which is, at a maximum, $200. Some suites, however, may be had at a lower price. Information concerning these rooms and suites may be had from the Dean.

Two of the college houses offer less expensive accommodations than the others. One of these is the Tenney House, the gift of Mrs. Mary A. Tenney. The students in this house coöperate in the purchase of food and in the duties of housekeeping. The cost of lodging in Tenney House varies from $35 to $70 a year according to the size and desirability of the rooms. Current prices determine the cost of supplying the table.

In memory of Mrs. Tenney ten scholarships have been established known as the Tenney Residence Scholarships. These consist of $100 each to be applied toward residence in any college house. They are awarded to students of approved character and scholarship in the Senior and Junior classes upon the recommendation of a committee whose chairman is Professor Anna A. Cutler.

The Lawrence House is now devoted to an experiment in coöperative housekeeping. Each of the sixty-two students in the house is supposed to take care of her own room and to give approximately an hour a day to the work of the house. For this service a reduction of $125 is made in the charge for board and room. In other words, board and room may be had in the Lawrence House for $225 for the college year. Students desiring to enter this house should make special application to the Dean, not later than March in the spring before entrance.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

A limited number of annual scholarships have been established to assist meritorious students who would otherwise be unable to meet the expense of a college education.

These scholarships are awarded when satisfactory written testimonials are made by persons, not relatives, that such aid is necessary; and such statements must be presented at the beginning of each year, if the scholarship is to be renewed.

The following scholarship funds also have been established:—

The Sophia Ingalls Wallace Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by the Hon. Rodney Wallace.

The Sophia Billings Wallace Scholarship fund of $5,000, also founded by the Hon. Rodney Wallace.

The Rodney Wallace Scholarship fund of $10,000, founded by Mr. Herbert I. Wallace and Mr. George R. Wallace, as a memorial to their father, the Hon. Rodney Wallace of Fitchburg, for twenty-five years Trustee of Smith College.

The Elizabeth Bartlett Phillips Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. James Phillips, Jr.

The Mary Nichols Billings Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. Charles E. Billings. According to the wish of the founder, in the award of this scholarship the daughters of missionaries, or those preparing for foreign missionary work, will receive the preference.

The Constance Elaine Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Miss Caroline Phelps Stokes. The benefit of this scholarship is to be given to young women who intend to be teachers, and who otherwise could not obtain a college education. Preference is to be given to those living outside of the United States; failing applicants from abroad, to students from Massachusetts or Connecticut.

The Nellie Eddie Mudge Scholarship fund of $2,000, founded by Dr. Seldon J. Mudge.

The Elizabeth Fobes Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Miss Elizabeth Fobes.

The Emma E. Scranton Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by the friends of Miss Scranton.

The Oakland Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by a non-graduate member of the class of 1895.

The Julia Ball Thayer Scholarship fund of $6,000, founded by Miss Julia Beatrice Thayer, for the education of any deserving students, preference being given to those from Keene, N. H.

The Gannett Scholarship fund of $2,000, given by the Gannett Association of Boston, in memory of Rev. George Gannett, Principal of the Gannett Institute of Boston, on the condition that applicants who are nominated by the executive committee of the Gannett Association, and who present satisfactory evidence of high scholarship, shall be preferred in the award of the scholarship. When no such applicant is presented, the scholarship may be awarded at the discretion of the college authorities.

The Helen Ayer Marden Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Mr. Frank W. Marden for students of vocal music.

The College Choir and the College Glee Club each contribute funds for a scholarship annually, and the College awards six scholarships in Music each year.

The Class of 1883 Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by the class of 1883, and given by preference to daughters of members of the class.

The Mary Duguid Dey Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. Donald Dey of Syracuse, N. Y., of the class of 1884, and Alumna Trustee of Smith College from 1896 to 1902. This scholarship is to be awarded to members of the three upper classes on the basis of superior scholarship and ability, preference being given to daughters of clergymen and teachers.

The Mary Lanning Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lanning of Hastings, Neb. This scholarship is awarded to a member of the Sophomore Class.

The Sadie D. Scott Scholarship fund of $6,000, founded by Walter Scott of Butler Brothers, New York, for worthy young women who are unable themselves to bear the expense of a college education.

The Helen Kate Furness Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Horace Howard Furness, LL. D. According to the wish of the founder, the income of this fund is awarded for the best essay on a Shakespearean theme. The subjects for each year are announced by the Committee on the Shakespeare prize in the catalogue of the previous year. There is no restriction on the length of the essays, but in general they are not to be shorter than 4,000 or longer than 10,000 words. The essays should be handed in at the President's office on the first Monday after the Easter recess, signed with an assumed name and accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the real name of the competitor. The competition is open to all undergraduates of Smith College. The subject for 1918 is "Shakespeare and the Sea"; for 1919, "Shakespeare and Patriotism."

The Clara French Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. Mary E. W. French, the income to be given to that member of the Senior Class who has made the greatest progress in the study of English language and literature. In June, 1918, this scholarship was awarded to Marian Taylor of Newton Center, Mass.

A scholarship of $200 is granted annually to a graduate of Smith Academy in Hatfield, entering the Freshman class, the candidate to be nominated by the authorities of Smith Academy.

The Arthur Ellis Hamm Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Elizabeth Creevey Hamm, of the class of 1905, in memory of her husband, Captain Arthur Ellis Hamm, the income to be awarded annually to a member of the Freshman Class on the basis of the mid-year record.

Two tables of the value of $50 each are maintained by the College at seaside laboratories for the benefit of students who show marked proficiency in the departments of Zoölogy and Botany. In the summer of 1918 the Zoölogy table at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., was assigned to Dorothy Wolff (Smith 1918). The Botany table at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., was assigned to Anna Fessenden (Smith 1918).

The sum of $50 annually is contributed by the College toward the maintenance of a woman's table at the Stazione Zoologica at Naples. This table is under the control of the Naples Table Association, and is assigned for convenient periods throughout the entire year to graduates of Smith and other women's colleges. Application for this should be made to the Secretary of the Association, Mrs. Ada Wing Mead, 283 Wayland Ave., Providence, R. I.

The College is one of the institutions coöperating to support the Classical School at Athens and Rome. The reports of these schools are sent regularly to the College, and graduates will be welcomed to all the privileges which the schools offer.

The sum of $100 annually is contributed by the College toward the maintenance of the American School of Archaeology at Jerusalem. Any of our graduates may enjoy the privileges of the school, and may compete for the annual fellowship, which yields $800 a year.

A prize of $200 is offered to the student who, in the judgment of the examiners, passes the best examination in the studies required for admission. Competitors for this prize must present themselves for their entire examination in June under the College Entrance Examination Board or at Smith College in September. In September, 1918, this prize was awarded to Alice Mildred Richardson of New Bedford, Mass., who was prepared for college at the High School in New Bedford.

The Latin-American Scholarship fund of $7,500, founded by the Class of 1890. This scholarship is given to a student from a Latin country, or, if no such applicant is presented, to a student from some other foreign country. The scholarship was awarded for the year 1918-1919 to Hortensia Balarezo of Quito, Ecuador.

FELLOWSHIPS

Six fellowships, of the value of five hundred dollars each, have been established by the Trustees of Smith College

for the encouragement of advanced work in the various departments of study. They are open to women graduates, of not less than one year's standing, either of Smith College or of other colleges of equal rank, and are awarded annually, subject to renewal at discretion. While established primarily for study at Smith College, they may be used, especially in the case of graduates, or those who have been graduate students or members of the Faculty of Smith College, for study elsewhere in this country or abroad, with the consent of the department concerned and of the Committee on Graduate Instruction. It is expected that each applicant will submit to the Committee specimens of her work for examination by the department in which she desires to study. Non-resident fellows are required to register at the beginning of the college year with the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, and they should report to him the scope and nature of their work. The holders of these fellowships in residence at Smith College are required to render some assistance, not instruction, and not to exceed six hours a week in the respective departments. They are not to undertake remunerative employment, but are expected to devote most of their time to a specified line of work under the direction of the instructors, and to present a thesis, embodying the results of their studies, at the end of the year. The work so done may be taken to qualify them for an advanced academic degree. A bound type-written or printed copy of the thesis must be placed in the college library by the holder of a fellowship. Applications for these fellowships should be sent with the proper credentials by March first to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, Professor Sidney N. Deane, 123 Elm Street, Northampton, Mass.

The Smith College Alumnae Association and the Inter-collegiate Community Service Association offer a joint fellowship of $450 to a graduate of Smith College. The fellow is in residence for the nine months of the fellowship year in either the Boston, New York, or Philadelphia College Settlement, taking in connection with practical work at the Settlement, academic work at the Boston School for Social Workers, at Columbia University, or at Bryn Mawr College. Application should be made to Miss Hilda Smith, Chairman of the I. C. S. A. Fellowship Committee, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

STUDENTS' AID SOCIETY

The Smith Students' Aid Society, organized in 1897, offers, to the extent of its means, loans of varying amounts to students of approved scholarship and character from the three upper classes. These loans are payable within three years after the graduation of the class to which the student belongs, and bear no interest during that time. If for any reason the loan is not returned at the expiration of three years, interest at the rate of four per cent. is charged, due notice of the same being given. Contributions to the work of this Society may be sent to its Treasurer, Mrs. James A. Webb, Jr., Madison, N. J.

APPOINTMENT BUREAU

The College maintains an office which has general supervision over the remunerative work undertaken by undergraduates, and in which Seniors, alumnae, and former students who wish professional positions may be registered.

Steady employment, such as waiting on table for board, may often be found for members of the three upper classes. Students of the Freshman Class can rarely do much outside work without damage to health or scholarship; and it is generally better for a student to delay her entrance to college until she is ready to meet the expenses of the first year. Students wishing any kind of employment are urged to register with the Appointment Bureau, and correspondence on the subject of self-help is invited. The Director is glad to give assistance or advice whenever it is within her power to do so.

The Bureau registers graduates and former students at a charge of one dollar, no further fee being required in any case. Full particulars are kept on file as to the training, equipment, and experience of all those who are on the lists, and an advisory committee of the Faculty supervises the work of making recommendations to possible employers. Information from the records is supplied freely to those desiring to engage teachers, social workers, secretaries, laboratory assistants, etc. Address, Appointment Bureau, Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

LECTURESHIP FUND

The nucleus of an Alumnae Lectureship Fund, established in 1910 by the gift of $1,250 from the class of 1885, was increased in 1915 to $1,567. The income of this fund is used each year to provide a lecture by a distinguished scholar not connected with the College. In 1917-1918 this fund aided in securing on Washington's birthday, an oration by Professor John Dewey of Columbia University.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS

In connection with many of the departments, clubs are organized under the joint management of teachers and students, for advanced or special work supplementing that of the class-room, for securing lecturers from abroad, and for stimulating an interest in the wider aspects of the work of the departments. Membership in these clubs is by election, to which students of approved standing are eligible. No student may belong to more than three clubs, including the departmental clubs, the musical clubs, the literary societies, the Current Events Club, and Spectator. The departmental clubs are:

The Studio Club, The Telescopium, The Oriental Society, The Colloquium, La Société Française, Der Deutsche Verein, The Greek Club, Il Tricolore, The Mathematical Club, The Clef Club, The Philosophical Society, The Physics Club, El Club Español, The Voice Club, The Biological Society.

LECTURES AND CONCERTS

In addition to the regular courses which constitute the curriculum the College provides a large number of open lectures by distinguished speakers from other universities at home and abroad and from the outside world.

The Music Department organizes two series of concerts given approximately monthly, one in the afternoons and the other in the evenings. Appearances of the following artists have been arranged for the present academic year:

Russian Symphony Orchestra, The Flonzaley Quartet, Trio de Lutèce, Mary Jordan, Maurice Dambois, Reinald Werrenrath, Mabel Garrison, Boston Symphony Orchestra, Philharmonic Orchestra, Josef Hoffman, Sophie Braslau.

The Department of Art organizes at intervals special loan exhibitions which supplement the collections of the Hillyer Art Gallery.

GENERAL SURROUNDINGS

Northampton is attractively and conveniently situated in the beautiful Connecticut River Valley eighteen miles north of Springfield on the line of the Boston and Maine Railroad. The advantages it offers in its care of public health and safety and in its churches, library, hospital, and municipal theatre make it a desirable setting for the College.

COLLEGE HALL, which includes lecture and recitation rooms, contains also the offices of administration and a large hall for general academic purposes.

SEELYE HALL, which was given by friends of President Seelye with the understanding that the building should bear his name, contains department offices, and twenty-three recitation rooms which seat altogether fifteen hundred students.

THE JOHN M. GREENE HALL, given by Mr. John D. Rockefeller and other donors, and named in honor of the senior member of the Board of Trustees, is an auditorium, the seating capacity of which is nearly twenty-three hundred. It contains an exceptionally fine four-manual organ, which was given by the class of 1900 as a memorial to Mrs. Cornelia Gould Murphy, and two accessory two-manual organs.

THE LIBRARY, the gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie and other donors, is centrally located in relation to the academic work, and occupies a building of modern construction and equipment. In addition to department seminar rooms, containing special collections, there are general reading and study rooms of ample size furnished with reference books to meet the needs of the student body. The number of books and pamphlets in the library is 71,928. The open shelf system permits free access to this collection of books to students as well as to officers of the college. For the encouragement of cultural reading a room has been attractively furnished in which to provide for leisure hours the works of standard authors in the best editions. The atmosphere of the room is that of a private library where reading for its own sake may be enjoyed.

LILLY HALL OF SCIENCE, the gift of Mr. Alfred Theodore Lilly, contains the lecture rooms, laboratories, and library of the department of Physics.

BURTON HALL, on the Lower Campus, was opened for use by the Departments of Botany and Zoölogy in September, 1914. It is an ample building of the most modern type of fireproof construction, and is provided with the best equipment for the study of the life sciences.

CHEMISTRY HALL, in part the gift of the class of 1895 and their friends, was built in 1898 and has been enlarged by a considerable addition in 1918. It is very fully equipped with lecture room, library, laboratories, class-rooms, offices for instructors, and the latest appliances for chemical work.

THE OBSERVATORY, given by President L. Clark Seelye and Mr. A. Lyman Williston in honor of their wives, Henrietta Chapin Seelye and Sarah Tappan Williston, is furnished with an equatorial telescope of eleven inches aperture, a four-inch transit instrument with zenith level, a sidereal clock, and two chronographs. An addition built and furnished from the Eliza Appleton Haven Fund, contains a large lecture and laboratory room with flat roof for observing, four portable telescopes, alt-azimuth instruments, simple apparatus for teaching astronomy, and a six-inch equatorial for student use.

MUSIC HALL contains class, teaching and practice rooms, and a recital hall in which is located the music library. The department is equipped with 15 grand and 34 upright pianos, and with player-pianos and victrolas. It has the use of the four-manual organ and the two two-manual organs in John M. Greene Hall, as well as of a large three-manual organ in Assembly Hall.

THE HILLYER ART GALLERY, the gift of Mr. Winthrop Hillyer, is provided with studios and exhibition rooms, and contains extensive collections of casts, engravings, and paintings, illustrating the history and characteristics of ancient and modern art. Graham Hall, a large lecture hall fitted with lantern and screens, has been added to the gallery as the gift of Mrs. Christine Graham Long of St. Louis, of the Class of 1910.

THE ALUMNAE GYMNASIUM, given by members of the Alumnae Association and their friends, contains a large hall arranged for gymnastic exercise and indoor sports, dressing-rooms, and a swimming-tank.

THE STUDENTS' BUILDING, built mainly by the efforts of the students and the alumnae, and designed to be the centre of the social life of the students, contains a large hall for social purposes and rooms for the student organizations and the departmental clubs.

THE LYMAN PLANT HOUSE, the gift of Mr. Edward Hutchinson Robbins Lyman, in memory of his mother, Anne Jean Lyman, comprises nine ample and well-stocked green-houses, devoted to illustration of the vegetation of different climates and the provision of material for laboratory study, together with attached physiological and horticultural laboratories.

THE BOTANIC GARDEN, designed for horticultural study, embraces a large collection of trees and shrubs arranged about the college grounds, and also an herbaceous garden containing sections to illustrate plant classification and habits.

SUNNYSIDE, the gift of Mrs. John Storer Cobb, provides a most attractive and comfortable home for students who need temporarily the rest afforded by quiet surroundings and comparative isolation.

AN INFIRMARY for contagious diseases is maintained under the control of the college.

THE ELIZABETH MASON INFIRMARY, the cost of which has been met by a fund raised by the Alumnae Association, will be opened early in 1919. Its name commemorates Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Howland, a graduate of the Class of 1904 and daughter of Mr. Frank H. Mason of Akron, Ohio, whose gift completed the fund. It is a fire-proof building which affords thirty-eight beds for the use of students and which has been carefully designed to serve the peculiar purposes of a college infirmary.

THE ALLEN RECREATION FIELD, the gift of Mr. Frank Gates Allen, is a ten-acre field not far from the campus where such sports as hockey, tennis, archery, cricket, volley ball, clock golf, and basket-ball may be played. An attractive club-house, maintained by the Athletic Association, is situated on the field.

BEQUESTS

Gifts to the college may take the form of scholarships, of professorships, of additions to the material equipment, or of contributions to the permanent endowment fund. Special conditions may, of course, be attached to any gift.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to The Trustees of Smith College, a Corporation established by law in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of $. to be invested and preserved inviolably for the endowment of Smith College, located at Northampton, Mass.

SMITH COLLEGE

Smith College was founded by Miss Sophia Smith of Hatfield, Massachusetts, who bequeathed for its establishment and maintenance $393,105.60, a sum which in 1875, when the last large payment was received and the institution was opened, amounted to nearly if not quite a half million of dollars. She also appointed the first trustees of the College, selected Northampton as its seat, and stated as its object, "the establishment and maintenance of an institution for the higher education of young women, with the design to furnish them means and facilities for education equal to those which are afforded in our colleges for young men."*

The College was incorporated and chartered by the State in March, 1871, and thereby empowered "To grant such honorary testimonials, and confer such honors, degrees, and diplomas as are granted or conferred by any university, college, or seminary in the United States." It opened in September, 1875, with fourteen students, and granted its first degrees in June, 1879.

The College is Christian, seeking to realize the ideals of character inspired by the Christian religion. It is, however, entirely unsectarian in its management and instruction. As there is no college church, the students are expected to attend the churches in the city. They are expected also to be present at the daily religious exercises of the College. A voluntary vesper service is held on Sunday afternoons in the John M. Greene Hall. The religious life of the College is further expressed in the Smith College Association for Christian Work, membership in which is open to students and faculty, whatever their religious affiliations. In this organization are united the various religious and philanthropic activities of the College.

* The Rev. John M. Greene, D. D., first suggested to Miss Sophia Smith the idea of this college and was her confidential adviser in her bequest. The foundation for a Chair of Greek was established in his honor.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Application for membership in the Freshman Class should be made as early as possible, in order to insure the prompt completion of all preliminary arrangements.

2. Each applicant for admission to College must fill out a registration form which will be furnished upon request and return it to the Secretary of the Board of Admission together with a registration fee of ten dollars. The College reserves the right at any time to cancel the registration of a student who in maturity of character or in physical strength seems unequal to the demands of college life.

3. Every candidate for admission will be required to present satisfactory testimonials as to moral character and fitness to do college work, including an official transcript of her school record. Blank forms will be sent by the Secretary of the Board of Admission at the proper time. Admission to College is possible in one of two ways, by the Old Plan or by the New Plan, as described in the following pages.

Candidates for admission must secure the permission of the Board of Admission before examinations under the New Plan may be taken. They should furnish their school records to date and state the subjects offered for examination between the beginning of the last year of preparation and January 15 of the year in which the examinations are to be taken. The record of the remainder of the school course should be sent to the Secretary of the Board of Admission by July 1 of the year of entrance.

School records and letters of recommendation for candidates wishing to enter under the Old Plan should be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board of Admission by July 1.

In exceptional cases, application for admission may, however, be made at any time prior to the September examinations.

4. Candidates entering College by the Old Plan must take the final examination in any subject within two years of the time of entering College. The examination in History and preliminary examinations in the elementary parts of a subject may be taken earlier.

5. Candidates offering Botany, Zoölogy, Biology, Astronomy or Geography for entrance should send the required note-books and laboratory records, certified by the instructor, to the Secretary of the Board of Admission before June 15. Candidates offering Chemistry or Physics are not required to send in their note-books, but should submit a certificate covering the entire course and signed by the instructor. The forms for the laboratory note-books and the certificate forms will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

6. Candidates for the examinations held at Smith College in September must fill out application forms which may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of Admission. These forms should be returned before September 15 accompanied by a fee of six dollars.

Before taking examinations in September candidates for admission must register at one of the times specified on pages 24 and 25. Those whose entrance credits are complete should present themselves for registration on Monday, September 27, or on one of the days of the preceding week.

7. Mount Holyoke College, Vassar College, Wellesley College, and Smith College will jointly conduct examinations in Chicago, September 20-23, 1920. These examinations are not open to students who wish to repeat preliminary examinations in which they have failed in June. Information regarding these examinations and application forms may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of Admission. Application for the examinations accompanied by a fee of six dollars must be filed before September 1.

8. A prize of two hundred dollars will be given to the student who, entering by the Old Plan, passes the best examination in all the subjects required for admission. Competitors for this prize must complete these examinations in one or two examination periods.

A similar prize of two hundred dollars will be awarded to the student who passes the best examinations under the New Plan.

METHODS OF ADMISSION

Upon the satisfactory fulfillment of requirements students will be admitted to Smith College by the following methods:

(A) By the Old Plan, i. e., by examinations in all subjects presented for admission. These examinations are conducted by

1. Smith College
2. The College Entrance Examination Board
3. The Board of Regents of the State of New York

(B) By the New Plan of Admission as explained on pages 26 and 27.

A. OLD PLAN OF ADMISSION

1. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY SMITH COLLEGE

Examinations for admission will be held at the College in September. Candidates desiring to be examined in June must take the examinations conducted under the supervision of the College Entrance Examination Board. A candidate may, at her option, take all her examinations in June or in September, or she may take part in June and part in September.

 2.00 P. M.— 5.00 P. M. Biology, Botany, Italian

2. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD

In 1920, the entrance examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board will be held June 21–26.

Examinations of 1920

In June, 1920, there will be separate blank forms for the "application for examination" and "certificate of recommendation". The former should be addressed to the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117 Street, New York, N. Y.; the latter to the Secretary of the Board of Admission of Smith College. Both forms may be obtained from the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board upon request by mail.

If the application is received sufficiently early by the College Entrance Examination Board the examination fee will be $6.00 for candidates examined in the United States and Canada and $20.00 for candidates examined outside of the United States and Canada. The fee, which must accompany the application, should be remitted by postal order, express order, or draft on New York to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined outside of the United States or Canada must reach the Secretary of the Board at least six weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 10, 1920.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points west of the Mississippi River, or in Canada, must be received at least four weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 24, 1920.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points east of the Mississippi River, or on the Mis-issippi River, must be received at least three weeks in advance of the first day of the examinations, that is, on or before May 31, 1920.

When the candidate has failed to obtain the required blank form of application for examination, the usual examination fee will be accepted if the fee arrive not later than the specified date, accompanied by a memorandum containing the name and address of the candidate, the examination center at which she wishes to present herself, and a list of all subjects in which she may have occasion to take the Board's examinations.

Applications received later than the dates named will be accepted only upon payment of $6.00 in addition to the usual fee.

A list of the places at which the examinations are to be held by the Board in June, 1920, will be published about March 1. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points, to receive proper consideration, should be transmitted to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board not later than February 1.

3. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE REGENTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Candidates may present credentials of the Regents of the State of New York. These will be accepted as far as they cover the requirements for admission to Smith College, if the grade is sufficiently high to meet the requirements of the Board of Admission.

STUDENTS ENTERING FROM CANADIAN SCHOOLS

Students prepared at Canadian schools who have passed the examinations for Senior Matriculation at McGill University or the University of Toronto will be admitted to the Freshman Class of Smith College.

B. NEW PLAN OF ADMISSION

The new method depends on two kinds of evidence:

1. Evidence submitted by the school, consisting of
 - (a) A school report covering the entire record of subjects and grades for four years.
 - (b) A statement from the school principal including an estimate of the applicant's scholarly interest, special ability, and character.
2. Evidence submitted by the candidate, consisting of Four comprehensive examinations, selected from each of the following groups:
 - (1) English or History, selected by the applicant.
 - (2) A foreign language, selected by the applicant.

- (3) Mathematics, or Chemistry, or Physics, selected by the applicant.
- (4) A fourth subject, designated by the applicant from the subjects which may be offered for admission. This choice must be approved by the Board of Admission of Smith College.

These four examinations must be taken at one time.

At least two examinations must cover more than two admission units* each.

The candidates for admission must take the comprehensive examination in each subject chosen which covers all the units offered for entrance.

Under the New Plan the candidate, if admitted to College, will be admitted free from all conditions. Failure to meet completely the standard in both kinds of evidence required will not necessarily involve rejection of the applicant; the Board of Admission may accept unusual excellence in one part of the credentials submitted as offsetting unsatisfactory evidence or even failure in another part. If the candidate fails of admission in June, she will not be debarred from taking examinations under the old system in September, and she may be credited under the Old Plan with any subject in which her June examination has been satisfactory; but she may not take the comprehensive examinations for admission under the New Plan before June of the following year.

It is believed that this new type of admission combines the best elements of the former certificate system and of the examination system in that it requires the school record and estimate of character, and also demands examinations designed to test the candidate's intellectual power, not alone her memory of prescribed facts. Furthermore, the method offers the applicant the fullest opportunity to show her ability in subjects in which she believes herself best qualified.

This plan substitutes a uniform method of administration in place of the various certificate forms previously used and gives the school entire freedom in the sequence of its work making no requirement of certain subjects in the last years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission to Smith College must have completed the requirements for admission as described below. These requirements are stated in terms of units. The unit is that formulated by the National Conference Committee on Standards of Colleges and Secondary Schools, as follows: A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. Under ordinary circumstances a satisfactory year's work in any subject cannot be accomplished in less than one hundred and twenty sixty-minute hours or their equivalent; hence, a unit would commonly mean the equivalent of five recitations a week for one year in one branch of study.

*NOTE—A unit commonly means the equivalent of five recitations a week for one year in one branch of study.

Fifteen units are required for admission, of which ten or eleven units are absolutely required, while five or four units may be chosen from the list of elective subjects.

ENGLISH

REQUIREMENT

The study of English in school has two main objects, which should be considered of equal importance: (1) command of correct and clear English, spoken and written; (2) ability to read with accuracy, intelligence, and appreciation, and the development of the habit of reading good literature with enjoyment.

GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION

The first object requires instruction in grammar and composition. English grammar should ordinarily be reviewed in the secondary school; and correct spelling and grammatical accuracy should be rigorously exacted in connection with all written work. The principles of English composition governing punctuation, the use of words, sentences, and paragraphs should be thoroughly mastered; and practice in composition, oral as well as written, should extend through the secondary school period. Written exercises may well comprise letter-writing, narration, description, and easy exposition and argument. It is advisable that subjects for this work be taken from the student's personal experience, general knowledge, and studies other than English, as well as from her reading in literature. Finally, special instruction in language and composition should be accompanied by concerted effort of teachers in all branches to cultivate in the student the habit of using good English in her recitations and various exercises, whether oral or written.

LITERATURE

The second object is sought by means of the reading and study of a number of books from which may be framed a progressive course in literature. The student should be trained in reading aloud and be encouraged to commit to memory notable passages both in verse and in prose. As an aid to literary appreciation, she is further advised to acquaint herself with the most important facts in the lives of the authors whose works she reads and with their place in literary history. She should read the books carefully, but her attention should not be so fixed upon details that she fails to appreciate the main purpose and charm of what she reads.

A few of these books should be read with special care, greater stress being laid upon form and style, the exact meaning of words and phrases, and the understanding of allusions.

EXAMINATION

Candidates will have the option of taking either of two examinations: (1) a "Comprehensive" examination; (2) a "Restricted" examination, based in part on a prescribed list of books.

However accurate in subject-matter, no paper will be considered satisfactory if seriously defective in punctuation, spelling, or other essentials of good usage.

Each examination will be divided into two parts, one of which will be on grammar and composition, and the other on literature.

Comprehensive and Restricted Examinations

In grammar and composition, the candidate may be asked specific questions upon the practical essentials of these studies, such as the relation of the various parts of a sentence to one another, and those good usages of modern English which one should know in distinction from current errors. The main test in composition will consist of one or more essays developing a theme through several paragraphs; the subjects will be drawn from the books read, from the candidate's other studies, and from his personal knowledge and experience quite apart from reading. For this purpose the examiner will provide several subjects, perhaps eight or ten, from which the candidate may make her own selections. She will not be expected to write more than four hundred words an hour.

LITERATURE

Comprehensive Examination

The purpose of this examination will be to enable the candidate to show that she has read, understood, and appreciated a sufficient amount of English literature. The paper will include some questions that cannot be answered except by candidates who are able to apply what they have learned to passages of literature which they have not read before. Suggestions for books to be read in preparation for this examination will be found in the list of recommended reading appended to this report.

Restricted Examination

This examination will include:

A. Questions designed to test such knowledge and appreciation of literature as may be gained by an intelligent reading of the books given in list A below.

B. A test on the books in list B below. This will consist of questions upon their content, form, and structure, and upon the meaning of such words, phrases, and allusions as may be necessary to an understanding of the works and an appreciation of their salient qualities of style. General questions may also be asked concerning the lives of the authors, their other works, and the periods of literary history to which they belong.

When parts A and B of the restricted examination are taken at different times, each will include a test in grammar and composition.

RESTRICTED LIST

A. Books for Reading

The books provided for reading are arranged in the following groups, from each of which at least two selections are to be made, except that for any book in Group I a book from any other may be substituted.

Group I. Classics in Translation. The Old Testament—at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther.

The Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I-V, XV, and XVI.

The Aeneid.

The Odyssey and the Aeneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

Group II. Drama. Shakespeare: Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Julius Cæsar.

Group III. Prose Fiction. Dickens: A Tale of Two Cities; George Eliot: Silas Marner; Scott: Quentin Durward; Hawthorne: The House of the Seven Gables.

Group IV. Essays, Biography, etc. Addison and Steele: The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers; Irving: The Sketch Book—selections covering about 175 pages; Macaulay: Lord Clive; Parkman: The Oregon Trail.

Group V. Poetry. Tennyson: The Coming of Arthur, Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, The Passing of Arthur; Browning: Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, The Pied Piper, "De Gustibus"—Instans Tyrannus; Scott: The Lady of the Lake; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner; and Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum.

B. Books for Study

The books provided for study are arranged in four groups, from each of which one selection is to be made.

Group I. Drama. Shakespeare: Macbeth, Hamlet.

Group II. Poetry. Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus; Book IV of Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series) with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley.

Group III. Oratory. Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; Washington's Farewell Address; Webster's First Bunker Hill Oration, and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Group IV. Essays. Macaulay: Life of Johnson; Carlyle: Essay on Burns, with a brief selection from Burns's Poems.

COMPREHENSIVE LIST

The following list is not intended to be in any sense prescriptive. Its purpose is rather to indicate, by examples, the kind of literature that secondary pupils should be taught to appreciate. Books of equal merit, covering a similar range of literary types, will be accepted as equivalents.

A fairly exhaustive list of books suitable for use in secondary schools will be included in the Report of the National Joint Committee on the Reorganization of High School English, to be published soon by the United States Commissioner of Education.

Group I. Classics in Translation. The Old Testament, comprising at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther.

The Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I-V, XV, XVI, XVII.

The Iliad, with the omission, if desired, of Books XI, XIII, XIV, XV, XVII, XXI.

The Aeneid.

The Odyssey, Iliad, and Aeneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

Group II. Drama. Everyman; Shakespeare: Midsummer-Night's Dream, Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Twelfth Night, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, King John, Richard II, Richard III, Henry V, Coriolanus, Julius Caesar, Macbeth, Hamlet; Goldsmith: She Stoops to Conquer; Sheridan: The Rivals.

Group III. Prose Fiction. Malory: Morte d'Arthur; Bunyan: Pilgrim's Progress, Part I; Swift: Gulliver's Travels (Voyages to Lilliput and to Brobdingnag); Defoe: Robinson Crusoe, Part I; Goldsmith: Vicar of Wakefield; Frances Burney: Evelina; Scott's Novels; Jane Austen's Novels; Maria Edgeworth: Castle Rackrent, The Absentee; Dickens's Novels; Thackeray's Novels; George Eliot's Novels; Mrs. Gaskell: Cranford; Kingsley: Westward Ho!, Hereward the Wake; Reade: The Cloister and the Hearth, Griffith Gaunt; Lytton: Last Days of Pompeii; Blackmore: Lorna Doone; Hughes: Tom Brown's School-days; Stevenson: Treasure Island, Kidnapped, Master of Ballantrae, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde; Kipling: Kim, Captains Courageous, Jungle Books; Cooper's Novels; Poe: Selected Tales; Hawthorne: The House of the Seven Gables, Twice Told Tales, Mosses from an Old Manse; Howells: The Rise of Silas Lapham, A Boy's Town; Wister: The Virginian; Cable: Old Creole Days; Short stories by various standard writers, as Bret Harte, Aldrich, Page, Hale, and Barrie.

Group IV. Essays, Biography, Oratory, etc. Addison and Steele: The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers, Selections from the Tatler and Spectator; Boswell: Selections from the Life of Johnson; Franklin: Autobiography; Washington: Farewell Address; Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; Irving: Life of Goldsmith; Southey: Life of Nelson; Lamb: Essays of Elia; Lockhart: Life of Scott; Thackeray: Lectures on Swift, Addison, and Steele in the English Humorists; Macaulay: Lord Clive, Warren Hastings, Milton, Addison, Goldsmith, Frederic the Great, Madame d'Arblay, Life of Johnson, Two Speeches on Copyright, History of England, Chapter III; Trevelyan: Selections from the Life of Macaulay; Carlyle: Essay on Burns; Ruskin: Sesame and Lilies, Selections; Dana: Two Years before the Mast; Webster: First Bunker Hill Oration; Lincoln: Selections, including at least the Speech at Cooper Union, the two Inaugurals, the Speeches in Independence Hall and at Gettysburg, the Last Public Address, the Letter to Horace Greeley; together with a brief memoir or estimate of Lincoln; Parkman: The Oregon Trail; Emerson: Manners, Self-Reliance; Thoreau: Walden; Lowell: Selected Essays; Holmes: The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table; Burroughs: Selected Essays; Warner: In the Wilderness; Curtis: Prue and I, Public Duty of Educated Men; Stevenson: An Inland Voyage and Travels with a Donkey; Huxley: Autobiography and selections from Lay Sermons, including the addresses on Improving Natural Knowledge, A Liberal Education, and A Piece of Chalk; Hudson: Idle Days in Patagonia; Clemens: Life on the Mississippi; Riis: The Making of an American; Bryce: The Hindrances to Good Citizenship; A collection of Essays by Bacon, Lamb, DeQuincey, Hazlitt, Emerson, and later writers; A collection of Letters by various standard writers.

Group V. Poetry. Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series): Books II and III, with special attention to Dryden, Collins, Gray, Cowper, and Burns; Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series), Book IV, with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley; Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus, Lycidas; Pope: The Rape of the Lock; Goldsmith: The Traveler and The Deserted Village; A collection of English and Scottish Ballads, as, for example, some Robin Hood ballads, The Battle of Otterburn, King Estmere, Young Beichan, Bewick and Grahame, Sir Patrick Spens, and a selection from later ballads; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner, Christabel, and Kubla Khan; Byron: Childe Harold, Canto III or IV, and The Prisoner of Chillon; Scott: The Lady of the Lake, Marmion; Macaulay: The Lays of Ancient Rome, The Battle of Naseby, The Armada, Ivry; Tennyson: The Princess, The Coming of Arthur, The Holy Grail, Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, and The Passing of Arthur; Browning: Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, The Pied Piper, "De Gustibus"—Instans Tyrannus; Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum, The Forsaken Merman, Balder Dead; Selections from American Poetry, with special attention to Bryant, Poe, Lowell, Longfellow, Whittier, and Holmes.

MATHEMATICS

Algebra: Factors, common divisors and multiples, fractions, ratio and proportion, inequalities, powers and roots, exponents, equations of the first and second degrees with one or more unknown quantities, radicals and equations involving radicals, arithmetical and geometrical progressions, binomial theorem for positive integral exponents.

It is assumed that pupils will be required throughout the course to solve numerous problems which involve putting questions into equations. Some of these problems should be chosen from mensuration, from physics, and from commercial life. The use of graphical methods and illustrations, particularly in connection with the solution of equations, is also expected.

Plane Geometry: The usual theorems and constructions of good text-books, including the general properties of plane rectilinear figures, the circle and the measurement of angles, similar polygons, areas, regular polygons, and the measurement of the circle; the solution of numerous original exercises, including loci problems; applications to the mensuration of lines and plane surfaces.

There will be no formal examination in Arithmetic, but familiarity with its processes is presupposed.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

HISTORY

For admission to Smith College, each candidate must present one of the following units:

(a) Ancient History, with special reference to Greek and Roman history, and including also a short introductory study of the more ancient nations and the chief events of the early Middle Ages, down to the death of Charlemagne.

(b) Mediaeval and Modern European History, from the death of Charlemagne to the present time.

(c) English History.

(d) American History and Civil Government.

The examiners will assume that for each unit the candidate has had five exercises a week for one year. She should have used a text-book of not less than 500 pages and have done an equal amount of parallel reading. Geographical knowledge will be tested by means of outline maps.

NOTE—The department of History strongly recommends that every candidate offer Ancient History as a part of her preparation.

Candidates may also present for admission one or two units additional from the list of courses designated above as a, b, c, and d.

GREEK

I. Two unit requirement:

Grammar. Four books of Xenophon's Anabasis.

II. Three unit requirement:

In addition to the two unit requirement, three books of Homer's Iliad.

Satisfactory equivalents will be accepted. Practice in reading at sight and in writing Greek, with systematic study of grammar should be pursued throughout the course for either the two or three unit requirement.

Specifications of the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

LATIN

Four unit requirement:

Candidates should be familiar with the forms and syntax of the language and possess a vocabulary sufficient to translate Latin into idiomatic English and English into correct Latin. They should also be able to translate at sight Latin prose and poetry of moderate difficulty and to read Latin prose and verse according to the Roman method of pronunciation with strict attention to vowel quantities. To attain such proficiency not less than five forty-minute periods a week for four years should be given to the study of Latin. The amount of prepared reading should not be less than four books of Caesar's Gallic War, seven Orations of Cicero (counting the Manilian Law as two) and six books of Vergil's Aeneid. The reading may be selected from other works of the above authors or from Nepos, Sallust, and Ovid, but it must include the pro Archia and two other orations of Cicero and two books of the Aeneid.

It is of special importance that practice in writing easy Latin at sight should be continued throughout the entire period of preparation in connection with the reading of the Latin authors. In the last year special attention should be given to translating continuous English into Latin in both the prepared and the sight work.

Those who enter by the old system of examination may take

1. Papers 1, 4, 5, and 6 of the College Entrance Examination Board.
- The scope of the examinations will include:

Translation at Sight of prose and verse.

Prescribed Reading. Candidates will be examined upon the following prescribed reading with questions on subject-matter, literary and historical allusions, and prosody.

In 1920, 1921, and 1922. Cicero, the third oration against Catiline and the orations for Archias and Marcellus; Vergil, Aeneid, II, III, and VI.

In 1923, 1924, and 1925. Cicero, the fourth oration against Catiline and the oration for the Manilian Law; Vergil, Aeneid, I and IV; Ovid, Metamorphoses, Book III, 1-137 (Cadmus); IV, 55-166 (Pyramus and Thisbe), and 663-764 (Perseus and Andromeda); VI, 165-312 (Niobe); VIII, 183-235 (Daedalus and Icarus); X, 1-77 (Orpheus and Eurydice); XI, 85-145 (Midas).

Grammar and Composition.

or 2. The Comprehensive Examination of the College Entrance Examination Board. Beginning with September, 1918, this examination will be substituted for the examinations formerly set by Smith College.

FRENCH

I. Two unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. A knowledge of the fundamental principles of grammar is required. Special attention should be given to the inflection of nouns and adjectives, the use of all pronouns, the conjugation of regular and irregular verbs. Candidates will be expected to have acquired the essentials of French syntax, and common idiomatic phrases. The candidate's knowledge of grammar, as well as her ability to use grammatical forms and structure, will be tested by direct questions and by the translation into French of simple connected English sentences.

(b) Composition. Ability to write in French a paragraph dictated from some of the books read, to translate at sight a passage of easy English prose into French, and to answer in French questions asked by the teacher.

For composition, François' Introductory French Composition (American Book Company) is recommended.

(c) Translation. Ability to translate at sight standard modern French, to be acquired by reading, in addition to the Elementary requirement, not less than 300 duodecimo pages of prose, which may be chosen from any of the following books: Maupassant, Selections (Ginn); Mérimée, Colomba (Ginn); Sandeau, Mlle. de la Seiglière, the play (Holt or Heath); Loti, Pêcheur d'Islande (Heath). It is strongly recommended that some work like Lavissee, Histoire de France, Cours moyen (Paris), or perhaps Super's Readings from French History (Allyn and Bacon) be read and studied for its subject-matter, as well as for the practice it affords in translation. It is important that the passages set be rendered into clear and idiomatic English.

(d) If the student wishes to continue the study of French in college, she will need additional drill in understanding the spoken language and in using it to reply to questions asked on the subject-matter read.

II. Three unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. In addition to the points mentioned in the two unit requirement in grammar, the student will be expected to have acquired a more complete knowledge of syntax, as well as correctness in the wider application of rules and a freer use of idiomatic expressions.

(b) Composition. Ability to translate into French at sight a paragraph of ordinary English, to write in French a résumé of any of the books read, to follow a recitation conducted in French, and to answer in that language questions asked by the instructor.

(c) Translation. It is believed that the necessary proficiency in translation at sight can be acquired by reading, in addition to the two unit requirement, not less than 300 duodecimo pages of prose and poetry which may be chosen from such works as the following: Scribe et Legouv , Bataille de Dames (Heath); Balzac, Eug nie Grandet (Holt); Bowen, French Lyrics; V. Hugo, La Chute (Heath); Taine, L'ancien r gime (Heath). It is strongly recommended that the latter be carefully studied with reference to its subject-matter and also as a basis for abstracts by the students. Passages set for translation must be rendered into clear and idiomatic English.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

NOTE: Proficiency in composition can be obtained by the thorough study of any standard grammar, by oral and written exercises, by memorizing, by conversation, by dictation, and by composition, if carefully corrected. Books suggested are Bouvet's Exercises and Syntax, Fran ois' French Composition, or Grandgent's French Composition, Parts I, II, III, or Blouet's French Composition, Part I, and half of Part II. Fran ois' Advanced French Composition is not recommended for the entrance requirement. It is recommended that, from the outset, attention be given to correct pronunciation, and that during the whole course of preparation the pupil be accustomed to hear and understand the spoken language. The reading of the French classics of the seventeenth century is not advised as a substitute for the works mentioned in the requirement, since the average pupil of the secondary school is not sufficiently mature for that grade of work. In no case should it be attempted before the fourth year of the high school course.

GERMAN

I. Two unit requirement:

(a) The essentials of German grammar. This includes the declension of articles, nouns, adjectives, and pronouns, the conjugation of the weak and the more usual strong verbs, both simple and compound, the use of the common prepositions; also the elements of syntax, especially the rules governing word order, the main uses of articles, of the common adverbs and conjunctions, the more common uses of modal auxiliaries, and of the subjunctive and infinitive moods.

(b) Ability to translate at sight simple English prose into correct

German. Such ability may be acquired by the oral or written reproduction of the contents of selected passages, by the retranslation into German of easy English paraphrases of the text read, and by direct translation of easy English prose into German.

(c) Ability to translate at sight fairly easy German texts into good English. This ability may be gained by reading about 100 pages of such prose and verse as may be found in any good reader or collection of easy stories, or in simple tales from Volkmann, Baumbach, Heyse, Gerstäcker, Seidel, Storm, and in easy plays. This should be followed by the reading of about 200 pages of modern prose of a somewhat greater degree of difficulty, selected from texts like the following: Stökl, Unter dem Christbaum; Hillern, Höher als die Kirche; Riehl, Burg Neideck, Der stumme Ratsherr; Eichendorff, Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts; Freytag, Die Journalisten.

II. Three unit requirement:

(a) In addition to the two unit requirement, more thorough familiarity with the less usual strong verbs, with the use of articles, cases, auxiliaries of all kinds, tenses, and moods, especially subjunctive, infinitive, and participle constructions, with the uses and meanings of the principal prefixes and suffixes.

(b) Ability to translate at sight ordinary English into correct German. Such proficiency may be gained by continuing the work specified in the two unit requirement under (b).

(c) Ability to translate at sight ordinary modern and classical German prose into good English. This may be acquired by reading, in addition to the amount specified in the two unit requirement, at least 300 duodecimo pages of advanced prose and verse selected from such works as the following: Freytag, Aus dem Staat Friedrichs des Grossen; Heine, Reisebilder; Schiller, extracts from Die Geschichte des Dreissigjährigen Kriegs, Wilhelm Tell, Die Jungfrau von Orleans; Goethe, selections from Dichtung und Wahrheit, Hermann und Dorothea, Iphigenie auf Tauris; Lessing, Minna von Barnhelm.

NOTE—It is urged that throughout the preparatory course in German careful attention be given to the importance of having pupils acquire a correct pronunciation and to the need of giving them the opportunity to hear and speak the foreign language. In view of the fact that the class-room work of the College in this subject is almost entirely conducted in German, students wishing to continue the study of the language are advised to secure practice in the use of it, in order that they may be able to understand spoken German based upon the subject-matter of the work prepared, and to reply in simple but connected sentences to questions relating to this work. A simple test of the student's ability to understand spoken German will form a part of the entrance examinations given at the College in September.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

ITALIAN

Two unit requirement:

(a) The essentials of Italian grammar, such as inflections of verbs, nouns, and adjectives, the use of pronouns, and the elements of syntax necessary for correct writing and speaking.

(b) Ability to translate simple passages of English into Italian.

(c) Ability to translate ordinary modern Italian at sight. In order to do this, it is recommended that about 300 pages of such works as the following be read: De Amicis, Cuore; Silvio Pellico, Le Mie Prigioni; Renato Fucini, Le Veglie de Neri; Short Stories selected by Wilkins and Altrocchi (Heath), and selections from Goldoni's plays or Manzoni's Promessi Sposi.

It is strongly recommended that Collodi's Viaggio di Giannettino per l'Italia Centrale (or per l'Alta Italia) be read with a careful attention to subject matter and constant reference to the map of Italy; also some short history of the nineteenth century, as used in Italian middle schools.

SPANISH

Two unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. A knowledge of the fundamental grammatical principles. The work should in scope be approximately the same as that contained in Hills and Ford, First Spanish Course; Olmsted and Gordon, Spanish Grammar; or DeVitis, Spanish Grammar.

(b) Composition. Ability to translate at sight a passage of simple English prose into correct Spanish, and to write Spanish from dictation.

(c) Translation. Ability to translate at sight, into good English, the easier modern Spanish texts. This ability may be acquired by the careful reading and translation of about 300 standard pages of prose and verse, the following texts being suggested as suitable: Some carefully graded collection of easy short stories and lyrics; Juan Valera, El pajar verde; Perez Escrich, Fortuna; Ramón Carrión and Vital Aza, Zaragüeta; for the second year, Galdós, Marianela; Valdés, José; Alarcón, El capitán Veneno; Becquer, Legends and Tales; Taboada, Cuentos alegres; Blasco Ibañez, La barraca.

NOTE: The candidates should be taught the Castilian pronunciation.

CHEMISTRY

One unit requirement:

A course of at least one year with three lecture or recitation periods a week in addition to laboratory practice. The course should include individual laboratory work comprising at least forty experiments as required by the College Entrance Examination Board. Reports of all experiments should be recorded in the pupil's own words and should contain a statement of the phenomena observed and the conclusions that may be drawn therefrom.

The student must present a certificate covering the entire course and signed by the teacher. Printed forms for this purpose will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

PHYSICS

One unit requirement:

The preparation should cover the elements of the subject, as presented in such texts as those of Millikan and Gale, Black and Davis, or Gorton. Experimental demonstrations should form an important part of the class-room instruction, and the student should have practice in the solution of simple problems. Throughout the course, special emphasis should be placed upon the illustration of principles by reference to phenomena within the daily experience of the student. Thirty laboratory experiments should be performed by each student. The requirement is identical with that of the College Entrance Examination Board. Each laboratory exercise should be preceded by a clear statement of the purpose of the experiment.

A certificate signed by the teacher and covering the whole course must be submitted. Printed forms for this purpose will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

BOTANY

One unit requirement:

The course in Botany should include the elements of morphology, anatomy, physiology, and ecology, especially of the higher plants, together with some study of the leading groups.

The student is requested to present a note-book of drawings and notes which represent actual laboratory and field study for one year, and must show training in observation, accuracy and generalization. This will count at least one-third in determining admission.

The requirement is identical with that of the College Entrance Examination Board, and is described in detail in Part II of the second edition of Ganong's Teaching Botanist. Any standard modern text-book may be used.

While this course is recommended, equivalents for parts of it will be accepted if worked out in the same manner; thus a more detailed knowledge of the leading groups of plants may be offered, or scientific knowledge of the familiar flowering plants; but mere terminology, or knowledge from books only, will not be accepted.

ZOOLOGY

One unit requirement:

A course of one year, with recitations and laboratory work, closely following that prescribed by the College Entrance Examination Board. The original laboratory note-book, recording the study of about eight animals representing the chief groups, must be submitted by each candidate.

BIOLOGY

One unit requirement:

A course of one year, with recitations and laboratory work, as prescribed by the College Entrance Examination Board. The original laboratory note-book, recording biological experiments and the anatomical study of a number of representative animals and plants, must be submitted by each candidate.

ASTRONOMY

One unit requirement:

The course of study must include the elements of descriptive Astronomy with special reference to time problems, a working knowledge of almanacs, star-maps, and globes. Acquaintance with the principal constellations is fundamental, and it is essential that training be given in the use of simple apparatus for finding angles and time.

Among the observations which should receive special attention are: locating a north and south line by the sun or by the North Star, fixing the intersection of the ecliptic and horizon in different seasons, mapping constellations with reference to the horizon, tracing diurnal and annual paths of heavenly bodies, and finding the error of a common watch from a sun dial.

The methods desired in exercises and observations are illustrated in Byrd's Laboratory Manual in Astronomy.

GEOGRAPHY

One unit requirement:

The elements of Physiography and Meteorology, occupying a year, five hours a week, of which two hours are given to laboratory exercises. Topics to be emphasized should be: the earth as a globe, the oceans and lands, as in Davis's or Dryer's Physical Geography; the atmosphere, as in Tarr's Physical Geography, and the simpler parts of Davis's Elementary Meteorology. The laboratory work should consist of systematic, progressive observation of meteorological phenomena and correlation of these elements with the facts shown on weather maps and the statements of the text. A few field excursions in the autumn and spring should be devoted to the observation and description of processes of land sculpture and types of land forms illustrated in the locality. Note-books and laboratory records, endorsed by the teacher, must be submitted at the time of the examination.

MUSIC

One unit requirement:

The one unit in music may be either: A, harmony, or B, a combination of a less advanced requirement in theory with a practical study: piano, voice, violin, or other orchestral instrument.

A. Harmony: The examination will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have had one year's systematic training, with at least three lessons a week, or its equivalent. The candidate should have acquired:

1. The ability to harmonize, in four vocal parts, simple melodies of not fewer than eight measures, in soprano or in bass. These melodies will require a knowledge of triads and inversions, of diatonic seventh chords and inversions, in the major and minor modes; and of modulation, transient or complete, to nearly-related keys.

2. Analytical knowledge of ninth chords, all non-harmonic tones, and altered chords, including augmented chords. Students are encouraged to apply this knowledge in their harmonization.

It is urgently recommended that systematic ear-training, as to interval, melody, and chord, be a part of the preparation for this examination. Simple exercises in harmonization at the pianoforte are recommended. The student will be expected to have a full knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use.

B. The following requirements in theory combined with piano, voice, violin, or other orchestral instrument:—

The examination in theory will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have had one year's systematic training, with at least one lesson a week, or its equivalent. The candidate should have acquired:

- (1) A knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use; (2) the ability to analyze the harmony and form of hymn-tunes and simplest pieces for the pianoforte, involving triads and the dominant seventh chord and their inversions, passing tones, and modulation to nearly-related keys; (3) the ability to harmonize, on paper, in four vocal parts, melodic fragments involving the use of triads and the dominant seventh chord and their inversions, in major keys; (4) in ear-training the ability to name, as played by the examiner, intervals involving tones of the major scale, the three principal triads, and the dominant seventh chord in fundamental position, and the authentic, plagal, and deceptive (v or v^7 to v_1) cadences; to write a diatonic, major melody of not more than four measures in simple time, involving half, quarter, eighth, and dotted notes, the melody to be played, in its entirety, three times by the examiner.

1. Piano. Combined with the theory requirement above. A practical knowledge of various kinds of touch; the ability to play scales, major and minor, in simple and canon forms, in sixteenth notes (at metronome speed, $\bullet = 100$), and three-toned and four-toned arpeggios in sixteenth notes (at metronome speed, $\bullet = 74$); the ability to play, with due regard to the tempo, fingering, phrasing, and expression, six studies of the grade of Hasert, Opus 50, Book 1, or Czerny, Opus 299, or the Bach Two Part Inventions; a sonata of the grade of Haydn's Sonata in E minor, or Mozart's Sonata in A major; four pieces by standard composers, of the grade of Mendelssohn's Songs without Words, Nos. 19 and 49, Schumann's Grillen, and Chopin's Nocturne in E flat; the ability to play at sight chorals and such pieces as the first twelve numbers of Schumann's Jugend-Album (Op. 68). A candidate wishing to offer other selections than those specified above, is advised to obtain the approval of the department.

2. Voice. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to sing vocalises of Concone, Op. 9, and not fewer than six of the following songs: Any song by MacDowell, any Schubert song, Brahms Wiegenlied, Grieg "Mit einer Primula Veris," Handel "Lascio ch' io pianga," Giordani "Caro mio bien," Mozart "Wiegenlied," Godard "Florian's Song;" any one of the Weckerlin Bergerettes; any one of the standard Folk Songs; and to play accompaniments of the grade of Concone Op. 9; and to sing at sight music of the grade of hymn tunes of Barnby, Dykes and Stainer and of studies in Abt's Vocal Tutor.

A candidate must give evidence of an accurate ear and of having laid a good foundation in the development of the voice. She must also exhibit to some extent an understanding of song interpretation.

A candidate may offer equivalents for the songs mentioned, on the approval of the Department.

3. Violin. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to play, with due regard to bowing, fingering, tone, intonation, and expression, such studies as those by Dont (Op. 37), Mazas (Op. 36), and Kreutzer; and such pieces as the moderately difficult solos of Spohr, Wieniawski, Godard, and Ries; the ability to read at sight such music as the second violin parts of the string quartets of Haydn and Mozart.

4. Violoncello. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to play, with regard to bowing, fingering, and intonation, major and minor scales, 3 octaves, major arpeggios, 3 octaves; studies of the grade of Schroeder, Dotzauer (Fischer Edition, Bk. I), Grützmacher (Bk. I), and Merk; such pieces as the Romberg Sonatas, a sonata by Corelli, and the Concertstück in G major by Goltermann.

5. Students wishing to be examined in the playing of other instruments should correspond with the Music Department.

Students intending to elect practical music who have not offered music for entrance, must take an examination when they register at the beginning of the college year. The examination will be based on the above requirements for entrance, no knowledge of theory, however, being required.

SPOKEN ENGLISH

It is recommended that, throughout the preparatory course, special attention be paid to the student's enunciation and use of the voice.

ADVANCED STANDING

Candidates for an advanced class must fulfill the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, and, unless coming from other colleges, must be examined in the studies already pursued by the class which they wish to enter.

Students from other colleges who desire to enter an advanced class must send to the Secretary of the Board of Admission a marked catalogue of the institution from which they enter, indicating the courses of study taken, a letter of honorable dismissal from the President or Dean, an official copy of their college records, and a detailed statement of the subjects credited to them at entrance. Letters from the teachers under whom they have studied, giving the amount and quality of the work pursued, are also desirable. A detailed statement of the work done in Physical Education should be presented for credit.

Students who have entered other colleges by certificate will in general, on entering Smith College, be required to pass not less than four examinations unless they give evidence of exceptionally high scholarship. These examinations may be entrance examinations by the Old Plan or New Plan or examinations on college work as determined by the Board of Admission.

All applications for advanced standing should be made before June 1.

Candidates for a degree must spend at least the Senior year at Smith College; but ordinarily two years of residence will be required.

NON-COLLEGIATE STUDENTS

Women not college graduates, but of an age beyond that of the ordinary undergraduate, who give evidence of a serious purpose and are otherwise properly qualified, may be admitted to single courses of study of an advanced grade, or to supervised research work, in the College, with the approval of the Dean and the instructor concerned. The fees paid by these students shall be at a rate proportional to the regular academic charges for full tuition.

GRADUATE INSTRUCTION

Graduates of Smith College and of other approved colleges may receive instruction, with or without reference to the attainment of an advanced degree. Graduate students are expected to register on the first day of the academic year with the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction in College Hall 14.

Students who are not candidates for a degree may, with the approval of the instructors concerned and of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, take any of the courses regularly offered.

Work for the degree of Master of Arts or of Doctor of Philosophy shall be planned under the direction of the department in which the principal courses are taken, and must have the approval of the instructors concerned and the Committee on Graduate Instruction. Correspondence concerning proposed work for an advanced degree should be addressed to the Secretary of the Committee, Professor Sidney N. Deane, 123 Elm Street, Northampton, Massachusetts.

The degree of MASTER OF ARTS is conferred upon graduates of Smith College and other colleges of recognized standing after the satisfactory completion in residence of a course of study approved by the Committee on Graduate Instruction. If the student's undergraduate course contained less than a Smith College major in the subject chosen for graduate study, she will, as a rule, need more than one year to complete the work for the degree.*

The degree of DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY is rarely conferred, and then only in recognition of high scholarly attainment and of ability to carry on original research. Candidates for this degree must have pursued since graduation advanced courses of non-professional study under suitable academic direction and conditions for at least three years.

The price of tuition for graduate students is $150 a year. For those taking only partial work the fee is one-fourth of this amount for each course. College graduates engaged in professional work in or near Northampton may take partial work at special rates. For particulars they should consult the Secretary of the Committee.

On satisfactorily completing the requirements, graduate students paying the full tuition fee receive the Master's degree and diploma without further charge. The fee for this degree in all other cases is $10. The fee for the Doctor's degree is $25.

* For a detailed statement of the requirements for this degree, see the Directions for Graduate Students on page 121.

*COURSES OF STUDY

The grade of each course is indicated by the first digit of the number. Grade I courses (primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores) have numbers beginning with 1; Grade II courses (primarily for Sophomores and Juniors) have numbers beginning with 2; and so on. See General Regulations 1, p. 118.

A number in black-faced type following a course indicates the examination group to which the course belongs. See General Statements 5, p. 116.

Not counted within the minimum for Juniors and Seniors. Two hours counted as one, through the year. M. 2-4 in A. G. and another division to be arranged. Assistant Professor Senseney. (24)
22. General History of Art. From Egypt and Greece to the Italian decadence. The masterpieces of architecture, sculpture, and painting, considered as a record of the thought and feeling of the race. Lectures, readings, and special work in the museum. Two hours through the year. M. T. at 4 in G. H. Professor Churchill.
- History 22. Greek and Roman Archaeology. The prehistoric and classical periods. Architecture and sculpture, with study of vases, coins, terra-cottas, gems, and painting. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 2 in S. 5. Associate Professor Gray.
31. Italian Painting. An intensive study of the painting of the Italian Renaissance; lectures and research. For students who have had 22; to others by special permission. Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 11 in G. H. Assistant Professor Kennedy.
32. Modern Painting. The development of the art as regards subject, technique, and aesthetic content, from the 17th century to the present time. Lectures, readings, and special work in the museum. For students who have taken 22 and 31, or equivalents; for others only with the permission of the instructor. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in G. H. Professor Churchill.
33. History of Design. Illustrated lectures. Problems in analysis, and inventions based on classic motifs. For students who have taken or are taking 21. Two hours, through the year. T. 2-4 in A. G. and another division to be arranged. Assistant Professor Senseney. (17)
34. Theory of Design. Advanced studies in analysis and principles of composition, with problems and inventions. Lectures, reading, class and individual criticism. For students who have taken or are taking 33. Two hours, through the year. W. 2-4; Th. 2-4 in A. G. Assistant Professor Senseney. (24)
35. Perspective. Theory of vision; principles of linear and aerial perspective. For students who are taking 16 or 25. †One hour, through the year. Assistant Professor Strong.
36. Artistic Anatomy. The structure, proportions, and action of the human body as related to graphic representation. For students who are taking 25 or 38. †One hour, through the year. Assistant Professor Strong.

37. Architectural Design. Principles as exemplified in the historical styles; applications to modern practice. Lectures and research. For students who have had 22; to others by special permission. Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 9 in G. H. Assistant Professor Kennedy.
39. Italian Sculpture. An intensive study of the masters of Florence in their relation to Renaissance sculpture as a whole. Lectures and research. For students who have had 31; to others by special permission. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 2 in G. H. Assistant Professor Kennedy.
- 311a. The Development of House Furniture from Greece and Rome to the early nineteenth century, with especial attention to the adaptation of forms to the civilization of their period. For students who have taken 22, and 21 or 15; to others by special permission. †Two hours, first semester. Assistant Professor Whitmore.
- Greek 37. Greek Art. The architecture, sculpture, and minor arts of Greece, with special reference to their value as illustrations of Greek literature. For students who have taken or are taking at least one course in the Greek Department. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Deane.
- Greek 42. History of Greek Sculpture. Illustrated lectures, reading, and reports. Open also to Seniors who have taken Greek 37 or a general course in Archaeology. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Deane.
41. Special Topics. Hours and place to be arranged.

B. Practical Courses

Regulations Regarding Practical Courses. All practical work counted within the minimum of hours must be accompanied by historical or theoretical work.

Freshmen will normally take 11; Sophomores, 21; students beginning practical art in Junior or Senior year may use for this purpose any two-hour theoretical or historical course open to them.

- 15a. Drawing in outline and simple values from objects and casts; sketching from life. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (27)
- 15b. The same. †Two hours, second semester. (27)
- 16a. Drawing from casts; sketching from life; painting from still-life. For students who have taken 15. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (22)
- 16b. The same. †Two hours, second semester. (22)

25a. Drawing from life and painting from still-life; out-of-door sketching. For students who have taken 16. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (22)

25b. The same. †Two hours, second semester. (22)

38a. Drawing and painting from life; out-of-door sketching in color. For students who have taken 16 and 25. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Tryon, Assistant Professor Strong. (37)

38b. The same. †Two hours, second semester. (37)

Art 16, 25, or 38 combined with any permissible theoretical or historical course may be counted as the equivalent of a three-hour course.

THE MAJOR

Based on 22.

Essential Courses: 31, 32, and two or three hours of courses in Art above Grade II.

Optional Courses: Art 37, 39; Botany 35; French 316a, 316b, 317a, 318b; German 36, 311; Greek 37, 42; History 33a, 31a, 31b; Italian 31, 32a, 32b; Philosophy 33.

Fees

A studio fee of $5.00 a semester is charged for each of the Practical Courses, 15, 16, 25, and 38; also for 33 if the student is not paying a fee for one of the Practical Courses; and for 34 if the student is not paying a fee for a Practical Course or for 33.

A studio fee of $2.00 a semester is charged for 21, but not required of a student paying a fee for a Practical Course or for 33.

Other fees, for illustrative material which becomes the property of the student, are: for 11, $1.50 a year; for 39, $1.00 a semester; for 22, 31, 32, or 37, $2.25 a semester.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: MARY MURRAY HOPKINS, PH. D.

INSTRUCTOR: SUSAN RAYMOND, A. M.

ASSISTANT: VERA MARIE GUSHEE, S. M.

DEMONSTRATOR: FLORENCE PEMBERTON ALLEN, A. B.

All courses in Astronomy are held in the Observatory.

11. General Astronomy. Elementary facts and principles; direct observations of constellations, motions of sun, moon, and planets; fundamental problems with simple instruments. Class periods for discussion of observation and recitation, two hours a week. Hours for day-time and evening observing and laboratory work arranged individually. The evening observing in autumn and spring averages

- three hours a week. Three hours, through the year. T. W. at 11; at 12; at 2; at 3; Th. F. at* 11; at 3. Professor Bigelow, Associate Professor Hopkins, Miss Raymond, Miss Gushee. (17)
21. General Astronomy. A course similar to 11 but of a more advanced character. The hours are arranged as in 11. Not open to students who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. T. W. at 12; Th. F. at 2. Associate Professor Hopkins, Miss Raymond. (17)
- 22a. Advanced Observing Course. Sun-spots, planetary and lunar detail, variable stars; use of portable telescopes; collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 23b. Advanced Observing Course. Use of equatorial, transit instrument, and sextant; collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. †Three hours, second semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 31a. Transit Instrument. Spherical and practical astronomy; observations to determine time and instrumental corrections. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 21 or 22. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 31b. Transit Instrument. Theory and application of Least Squares. Observations for latitude. For students who have taken 31a. †Three hours, second semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 32a. Equatorial Telescope and Filar Micrometer. Theory, observations and reductions. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 21 or 22. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 33b. History of the modern development of Astronomy. For students who have taken or are taking 22a or 23b, 31, or 32a. †Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.
- 34b. Teachers' Course. Training in the methods of teaching Astronomy as a laboratory science. Not counted within the minimum. For students who have taken 11 or 21. †One hour, second semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 41a. Celestial Mechanics. Open to Seniors who have taken or are taking 31a, 31b, or 32a and have taken or are taking Mathematics 31a. †Three hours, first semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.
- 41b. Celestial Mechanics. Open to Seniors who have taken 41a or Physics 36. †Three hours, second semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.

* This division is not open to Freshmen.

THE MAJOR

Based on 11 or 21.

Essential Courses: 31a, 31b, and one other three hour course (not 34b); and Mathematics 21 or 22.

Optional Courses: Astronomy, any courses.

Mathematics, any courses.

Physics, any courses.

Chemistry, 11, 12, 13, 21a and 21b, 31a and 31b, 33, 35, 36.

Geology, 11, 31a, 32b, 35, 36a, 36b.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 11, 21, 22a, 23b, 31, 32a, $2.50 a semester. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Astronomy will pay only one fee, provided Astronomy is the major subject.

BIBLICAL LITERATURE AND COMPARATIVE RELIGION

PROFESSORS: IRVING FRANCIS WOOD, PH. D., D. D.,

ROBERT SENECA SMITH, A. M., B. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: CLARA WILLOUGHBY DAVIDSON, A. M.

INSTRUCTOR: CORNELIA AINSWORTH MONTGOMERY, A. M., B. D.

11. Biblical Introduction. The literature of the Bible in its historical setting. For Sophomores only. This course satisfies the requirement in Biblical Literature. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in C. 7; at 10 in C. 7; at 12 in C. 7; at 2 in C. 6, and C. 7; at 3 in C. 7; Th. F. S. at 9 in C. 7; at 10 in C. 7; at 11 in C. 6; at 12 in C. 7. Professors Wood and Smith, Assistant Professor Davidson, Miss Montgomery. (29)

Greek 16b. Greek Testament. For Sophomores. Accepted in the Biblical requirement for the second semester of Bible 11. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9. Professor Caverno.

21. Biblical Introduction. Special emphasis upon the growth of religious and ethical thought during the successive stages of the Old and New Testament periods. For Juniors only. This course satisfies the requirement in Biblical Literature. Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 9 in C. 6. Professor Wood.

History 32a. Early Oriental Civilizations. The history of Egypt, Babylonia, Assyria, Phoenicia, Arabia, and Palestine, with its significance for later history. Special attention given to the development of ancient society. Open to Sophomores who have taken or are taking 12. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 7. Associate Professor Gray.

- History 32b. Modern Oriental Civilisations. The history of the Nearer East, India, Japan, and China. Open to Sophomores who have taken or are taking 12. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 7. Associate Professor Gray.
- 32a. Old Testament Thought. The growth of Hebrew thought to the Christian era, with an inquiry into its relation to the thought of neighboring peoples. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 21. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 12 in Lib. 1. Miss Montgomery.
- 32b. New Testament Thought. The teachings of Jesus and their relation to current Judaism, with a consideration of their modification during the Apostolic Age. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 21. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 12 in Lib. 1. Miss Montgomery.
- 34a. The Development of Christian Thought. A study in the history of religion; the more important phases of Christian thought since the New Testament period, with some comparison of kindred subjects in other religions. Text-book, reading, and lectures; one paper. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in C. 7. Professor Wood.
- 35b. Comparative Religion. The history of ethnic religions. Text-book, reading, and lectures; one paper. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in C. 7. Professor Wood.
36. Fundamentals of the Christian Faith. The Christian approach to the questions concerning the relations between God and human life, with special reference to the problems of modern thought and social readjustment. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 2 in C. 7. Professor Smith.
37. The Historical Environment of Early Christianity. An introduction to the study of political, economic, cultural, and religious conditions in the Mediterranean World from the Conquest of Alexander the Great to Constantine, with reference to the evolution of Early Christianity. †Three hours, through the year. Miss Davidson.
38. Hebrew. Elementary grammar and syntax. Reading from the Hebrew Bible. †Three hours, through the year. Miss Davidson.
39. Religious Education. An inquiry into the psychology and pedagogy of religious instruction and an application of the principles to the subject matter of religious education. †Two hours, through the year. Miss Montgomery.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: HELEN ASHHURST CHOATE, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: ELIZABETH F. GENUNG, B. S., M. S. A., CATHARINE E. KOCH, B. S., A. M., M. L. D.

ASSISTANT: SARA BACHE-WIIG, A. B., M. S.

All courses in Botany are given in Burton Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Botany. Outline of the fundamental facts and methods of the science. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Three hours, through the year. Dem. M. at 4 in 6; Lec. T. at 4 in 6; Lab. A, Th. F. at 9; Lab. B, Th. F. at 11; Lab. C, Th. F. at 2. Associate Professor Snow, Assistant Professor Choate.
12. General Botany. Informational course. The salient facts about plants, especially in relation to human activities and interests. A lecture or a recitation and the equivalent of two and one-half hours of demonstration or outdoor study each week. Two hours, through the year. †T. at 4 in L. P. Professor Ganong and Associate Professor Smith. Can be taken only as a free elective, i.e., not as one of the required sciences, nor in preparation for other courses in the department. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 11.
- 21a. Systematic and Economic Botany. Identification, classification, and uses of plants, studied largely in the field, autumn flora and plants of greatest economic importance.
For students who have taken 11, or have offered Botany for entrance. Two or three hours, first semester. †M. at 5 in 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith, Miss Bache-Wiig.
- 21b. Systematic and Economic Botany. Ferns, trees in winter condition, and spring flora, with herbarium methods.
For students who have taken or are taking 11. Two or three hours, second semester. †M. at 2 in 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith, Miss Bache-Wiig.

22. Bacteriology and Other Phases of Microbiology. Methods of study of the principal kinds of Bacteria, Molds, and Algae in relation to health and to other domestic and public interests. For students who have taken 11 or Zoölogy 11 or 21; also for students who are taking or are planning to take Chemistry 32. Three hours, through the year. Lec. W. at 2 and F. at 10 in 2; Lab. A, T. and F. at 2; Lab. B, M. and Th. at 2; Lab. C, M. and Th. at 10; [Lab. D, Th. and S. at 10]. Miss Genung.
31. Morphology of plants. A study of types selected to illustrate the evolution of the vegetable kingdom, with training in laboratory technique. This is the natural continuation of 11, especially for those intending to teach or to become laboratory experts. Three hours, through the year. Lab. M. T. at 11; Lec. W. at 11 in 2; Dem. W. at 12. Associate Professor Snow.
- [32. Plant Pathology. A study of the Fungi and other organisms involved in plant diseases with especial reference to their effects on the production of food plants. For students who have taken 11, and have taken or are taking any other course in the Department. Two hours, through the year. Lec. S. at 9 in 2; Lab. F. at 9. Associate Professor Snow. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
33. Ecology and Plant Geography. A study of the climatic plant formations of the world, their characteristics and distribution, and the anatomical structure of certain type plants from each group. In the spring the study is mainly upon the plant groups as illustrated in the Northampton region. For students who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. §M. T. at 12 in 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith.
34. Horticulture. The theory and practice of plant-cultivation and improvement, with a study of the species commonly cultivated, and the elements of landscape gardening. For Juniors and Seniors, or Sophomores by special permission, who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. Lec. F. at 9 in 2; Dem. Th. at 9 in 2; Lab. Th. at 10 or at 2, and F. at 10 or at 2 in L. P. Professor Ganong, Miss Koch, and the Head Gardener.
35. Landscape Gardening. The principles of design underlying gardening and landscape art, with training in a knowledge of the suitable plant materials. For students who have taken 34. Three hours, through the year. §T. W. at 9. Miss Koch.

- [36a. History of Botany. Based largely on a study of original works with especial attention to biography and to botanical education. For students who have taken or are taking 31, 33, or 37. †Two hours, first semester. Assistant Professor Choate. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
37. Plant Physiology. Individual study of the fundamental phenomena with training in scientific methods of experiment, measurement, detection of error, induction, exposition, and illustration, and with especial reference to the educational methods and applications of Botany. For students who have taken two full courses in Botany. Three hours, through the year. †Th. F. at 4 in L. P. Professor Ganong, Assistant Professor Choate.
41. Problems. Original studies in Plant Physiology, Morphology, Bacteriology or Ecology. Open also to Seniors by special permission. †Three or more hours, through the year. Professor Ganong, Associate Professors Snow and Smith, Miss Genung.

THE MAJORS

Based on 11.

Major I. Training in the science of Botany.

Essential Courses: 21 or 33, 31, 37.

Optional Courses: Botany 22, 32, 34, 36a, 41.

Zoölogy 11, 21, 31, 33, 35.

Chemistry 11, 12 or 13, 21, 31, 32.

Physics 11.

Geology 11, 21.

Major II. Horticulture and Landscape Gardening.

Essential Courses: 34, 33, 35.

Optional Courses: Botany 21, 32.

Art, any combination allowed by the Art Department from Courses 21, 33, 34, 35, 37, 15, 16, 25, 38.

Every student taking major I should make sure that her education in science does not lack some work in Zoölogy, Chemistry, and Physics, while a course in general Geology is desirable.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 21, 31, 33, $2.50 a semester. Other laboratory courses, each $5.00 a semester. No fee is charged in Course 12. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Botany will pay only the higher fee, provided Botany is the major subject.

ASSISTANT: EVA GOVE SEELY, A. B.

DEMONSTRATORS: PRISCILLA E. WOOD, A. B., THELMA R. PUTNAM, B. S.

All courses in Chemistry are given in Chemistry Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Chemistry. Lectures on general and inorganic chemistry, two hours a week; laboratory practice, one period of two and a half hours a week. Three hours, through the year. Lec. M. T. at 10 in 1; Lab. M. T. W. Th. F. at 2; W. at 9 and 10, in 16. Professor Stoddard, Associate Professor Cook, Assistant Professors Clark and Denslow, Miss Burt, Mrs. Seely. (19)
12. General Chemistry. For students who offered Chemistry for entrance. Open also, with the permission of the Department, to other students who have had a year's course in Chemistry before entrance. One lecture, one recitation, and one laboratory period of two and a half hours a week. Three hours, through the year. Lec. M. at 12 in 1; Rec. T. 11 and 12; Th. at 2 in A.; Lab. M. T. at 2; W. Th. at 10 in B. Assistant Professor Clark.
13. General Chemistry and Chemical Analysis. Open only to Juniors and Seniors who have had a year's course in Chemistry before entrance. One lecture, one recitation, and two laboratory periods of two hours each. Three hours, through the year. Lec. F. at 9; Rec. S. at 9 in A.; Lab. F. S. at 10 in B. Assistant Professor Clark.
- 21a. Qualitative Analysis. The method of systematic analysis for the detection of the metals and the acid radicals, with practice in the analysis of a number of unknown substances. For students who have taken 11 or 12. One lecture, one recitation, and two laboratory periods of two hours each. Three hours, first semester. Lec. Th. at 10 in 1; Sect. A Rec. M. at 2 in A.; Lab. M. 3-5; T. 2-4 in G.; Sect. B Rec. F. at 2 in A.; Lab. Th. 2-4; F. 3-5 in 11; Sect. C Rec. F. at 10 in 14; Lab. Th. F. 11-1 in G. Each section is limited to 20 students. Associate Professors Cann and Mason.

- 21b. Quantitative Analysis. A study of the methods and manipulation of exact quantitative determinations. For students who have taken 21a. One lecture, one recitation, and two laboratory periods of two hours each. Three hours, second semester. Hours and instructors as in 21a.
- 22a. Applications of chemical facts and principles to familiar substances and to the common experiences of every-day life. Lectures and discussions. For students who have taken 11, 12, or 13. Two hours, first semester. M. T. at 2 in 1. Professor Stoddard.
- 22b. Chemistry in Some Important Industries. A study of the history of chemical manufactures and of the part that chemistry plays in the development and utilization of natural resources. Lectures and recitations.
For students who have taken 11, 12 or 13. Two hours, second semester. M. T. at 2 in 1. Professor Stoddard.
- 31a. Organic Chemistry. The compounds of carbon, chiefly those of the aliphatic series. Lectures and recitations, two hours; two laboratory periods of two hours each. For students who have taken 11, 12, or 13. Rec. T. W. at 9 and at 10; Th. F. at 9 in 14; Lab. M. at 9; M. T. at 2; T. W. at 11; Th. F. at 10 in 13. Three hours, first semester. Associate Professor Cook, Miss Finch. (34)
- 31b. Organic Chemistry. Study of the aromatic compounds. Lectures and recitations, two hours; two laboratory periods of two hours each. For students who have taken 31a. Three hours, second semester. Hours and instructors as in 31a. (34)
32. Biochemistry. The chemistry of the lipoids, proteins, and carbohydrates; extraction of typical substances and the study of the changes brought about by the action of enzymes, molds, and bacteria. For students who have taken 21 or 13, and have taken or are taking Botany 22. Three hours, through the year. Lec. W. at 12 in 1; Lab. T. 10-1; W. 10-12; Th. 9-12; F. 9-11 in 17. Associate Professor Foster.
33. The Laws and Theories of Chemistry. Lectures and recitations, two hours; laboratory, one period of two and a half hours. For students who have taken 21a and 21b, and a course in general Physics. †Two or three hours, through the year. Lec. T. Th. at 5; Lab. W. at 3. Professor Stoddard, Associate Professor Cann.
34. Quantitative Food Analysis. Standard methods of analysis of water and of typical food materials. Lecture or recitation one hour; laboratory practice, five hours. Three hours, through the year. For - students who have taken 31a and 21 or 13. Lec. T. at 9; Lab. M. T. at 10. Associate Professor Mason.

35. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. Lectures and recitations. Prerequisite, 21 or 13. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Stoddard.
36. Inorganic Preparations. Laboratory practice. Open only to students who are taking 35. †One hour, through the year. Professor Stoddard.
- 37a. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Laboratory practice. †Two hours, first semester. F. S. at 9. Associate Professor Mason.
- 37b. A continuation of 37a. †Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Mason.
- 41a. Advanced Work. Special topics in organic or inorganic chemistry. Discussions, reading, and laboratory practice. To be arranged by consultation with Professor Stoddard or Associate Professor Cook. †Three hours, first semester.
- 41b. The same. †Three hours, second semester.
- 42b. Practice in extraction and analysis of biochemical products; the making of preparations; and the study of the current biochemical journals. Open to Seniors who are taking or have taken 32. Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Foster.
43. Advanced work in the methods of extraction of biochemical products, with analyses of the finished preparation. Discussions, reading and laboratory work. For students who have taken 22, 31, 32, and 33. Three hours or more, through the year. Associate Professor Foster.

THE MAJOR

Based on 11 or 12, or on 21, if taken before Junior year.

Essential Courses: 21, 31, 33; or 31, 33 and one other course of Grade III.

Optional Courses: Chemistry: Any courses above Grade II.

Botany 22.

Geology: 11, 31a, 32b.

Zoology: 21, 35.

Mathematics: any courses.

Physics: any courses.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: 11 and 12, first semester, $4.00; second semester, $3.00; all other laboratory courses, $5.00 each semester with an additional charge for breakage. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Chemistry will pay only one fee (the larger), provided Chemistry is the major subject.

ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

PROFESSORS: CHARLES FRANKLIN EMERICK, PH. D.,

For students who have taken one course in the Department. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Lowenthal. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
- [31b. The Labor Movement. The wage system, trade unions, labor legislation. For students who have taken one course in the Department. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Lowenthal. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
- 32a. Money, Banking, Credit, and Foreign Exchange. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in S. 26. Professor Emerick.
- 32b. Corporation Finance and the Railway Problem. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in S. 26. Professor Emerick.
- 33a. Economic Theory and Theory of Socialism, 1776-1875. The classical economists, Adam Smith to Cairnes. The Ricardian Socialists and Karl Marx. For students who have taken 21 or 31a, or by special permission. †Three hours, first semester. Associate Professor Lowenthal.

*Absent for first semester.

- 33b. Economic Theory and Theory of Socialism from 1875. A critical study of the changes in economic thought since the time of John Stuart Mill and in socialist theory since Karl Marx. For students who have taken 21 or 31a, or by special permission. †Three hours, second semester. Assistant Professor Woodhouse.
- 34a. Economics of Consumption. A study in the cost of living and the retail market. Three hours, first semester. M. at 10 in B. H. 6 T. W. at 10 in G. H. Assistant Professor Woodhouse.
- 34b. The Elements of Public Finance. Governmental revenues and expenditures, with special emphasis upon modern forms of taxation. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Lowenthal.
- 35b. Economic Aspects of Reconstruction. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9 in Lib. 9. Assistant Professor Woodhouse.

B. Sociology

- 26a. The Principles of Sociology. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 10 in G. H. at 11 in C. H. 1; Th. F. S. at 12 in S. 17. Professor Chapin, Assistant Professors Woodhouse and Drachsler, Miss Smith. (28)
- 26b. Social Economy. The problem of poverty, its causes, relief, and prevention. Methods of dealing with the defective and delinquent classes. For students who have taken 26a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 10 in G. H. and B. H. 6; at 11 in C. H. 1; Th. F. S. at 12 in S. 17. Professor Chapin, Assistant Professors Woodhouse and Drachsler, Miss Smith. (28)
- [36a. The Social, Economic, and Political Status of Women: A comparative and historical study. For students who have taken 21 or 26. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 10 in S. 17. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
- [36b. The Family and Child Problems. For students who have taken 21 or 26. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 10 in S. 17. Omitted in 1919-1920.]

33. Composition and Counterpoint. Detailed study of rhythm, melody, harmonic accompaniment, elements of form. Contrapuntal treatment of voice parts. Imitation. The writing of preludes, inventions, classical dances, and songs. For students who have taken 21. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Sleeper.
34. Keyboard Harmony. Modulation and transposing are included. For students who have taken 21. One hour, through the year. M. at 11; F. at 9. Professor Sleeper. (32)
- 35a. Special Topics in Music History. The Symphony from Mozart to

- Tschaikowsky. For students who have taken 31 or 32; for others by special permission. Two hours, first semester. Th. F. at 4. Associate Professor Welch. (15)
- 35b. Special Topics in Music History. Opera in the 19th Century. For students who have taken 31 or 32. For others by special permission. Two hours, second semester. Th. F. at 4. Associate Professor Welch. (15)
- [36. History of Pianoforte Music. For Seniors who have taken 31 or 32 and are taking 323, 324, or 425. †One hour, through the year. F. at 2. Associate Professor Locke. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
37. Musical Form and Free Composition. Composition in the chief forms of music, including the sonata. Drill in scoring for small orchestra. For students who have taken 33. By special permission, for those who have taken 21. †Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9. Professor Sleeper, Mr. Sessions.
38. Counterpoint, Canon, and Fugue. A course designed to supplement 37, for students who choose Musical Composition as their major. May be taken without 37 by students who have taken 33. †Two hours, through the year. Mr. Sessions.
39. The Teaching of Public School Music. Methods of teaching. Outlines of work. Class drill, supplemented by visits to the Northampton Public Schools. †One hour, through the year. M. at 5. Mr. Short.
- [310. Advanced Keyboard Harmony. For students who have taken 34. †One hour, through the year. Associate Professor Moog. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
- 311a. Beethoven. A general survey of his work, with detailed study of representative works. Relation of form and content to his life and time. Open to students who have taken 23, 31 or 32; to others by special permission. †Three hours, first semester. Mr. Sessions.
- 311b. Cesar Franck and His School. For those who have taken 311a; for others by special permission. †Three hours, second semester. Mr. Sessions.
- 312a. Studies in Sacred Music. History and Theory of Church Music. Lectures, readings, study of examples. For students who have taken 31 or 32; for others by special permission. †One hour, first semester. Professor Sleeper.
- 312b. Studies in Sacred Music. The Oratorio. Detailed study of typical works from Handel to Elgar. For students who have taken 31 or 32; for others by special permission. †Two hours, second semester, counting as one. Professor Sleeper.

41. Advanced Composition in the Larger Forms. For students who have taken 37 or the equivalent. †Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 12. Professor Sleeper.
42. Orchestration. Original composition and scoring for the large orchestra. Study of classical and modern scores. For students who have taken 37 and 38 or the equivalent. †Two hours, through the year. Mr. Sessions.

B. Practical Courses

Courses in Practical Music may be entered in the middle of the year, subject to the Entrance Requirements on pages 44 and 45 of the Catalogue.

Regulations Regarding Practical Courses. Individual lessons are given in Pianoforte, Organ, Violin and other Orchestral Instruments, and Voice. These lessons are adapted to the proficiency of the student, and may be continued throughout her college course. They are supplemented by class lessons, work in the College Orchestra, ensemble playing, choir accompaniment, and singing in the Choir and Oratorio chorus.

Students contemplating taking courses in practical music should come prepared to take the necessary examinations. Elementary work in practical music is not given.

Two lessons a week with not less than five hours of practice a week count as two hours; one lesson a week with not less than five hours of practice counts as one hour; one lesson a week with not less than three hours of practice may be taken in addition to other practical work and counts as one hour but may not be counted within the minimum. Lessons are 30 minutes in length.

All practical work counted within the minimum of hours must be accompanied by theoretical work. Not more than two hours each year may be thus counted.

Lessons are given in Music Hall, Music Hall Annex, John M. Greene Hall and the Students' Building.

Pianoforte

Associate Professors Bliss, Bates and Locke, Assistant Professors Hamilton and Goode, Mrs. Olmsted, Miss Frazier.

Students electing Piano must pass an examination upon registering. The requirements are identical with the entrance requirements on page 44 of the catalogue. No knowledge of harmony is required.

121. Pianoforte A. Studies of the grade of Czerny, Opus 299, Bach Two-Part Inventions; sonatas of the grade of the Mozart in D (Schirmer, No. 14); salon and recital music.
222. Pianoforte B. Studies of the grade of Cramer-Bülow, Bach Three-Part Inventions; sonatas of the grade of Beethoven, Opus 14, No. 2; salon and recital music.

323. Pianoforte C. Studies of the grade of Clementi-Tausig Gradus ad Parnassum; Moscheles, Opus 70 or 95; Bach Suites; sonatas of the grade of Beethoven, Opus 27, No. 1; salon and recital music.

324. Pianoforte D. Studies of the grade of Chopin, Opus 10 and 25, Bach Preludes and Fugues; sonatas of the grade of Beethoven, Opus 81a; salon and recital music.

425. Pianoforte E. Advanced work for students who have taken 324.

Organ

Associate Professor Moog.

232. Organ B. Manual and pedal technique. Short pieces involving the fundamental principles of registration. For students who have taken 121 or the equivalent.

333. Organ C. Mendelssohn's organ works; smaller preludes and fugues of Bach; easier work of the modern French masters. Class work in church service playing.

334. Organ D. Merkel and Rheinberger sonatas; master organ works of Bach. Class lessons in the history of the organ and organ music.

435. Organ E. Continued study of the larger works of Bach; advanced works of the modern French, English and American schools. For students who have taken 334.

Violin

Professor Holmes, Assistant Professor Gleason.

Requirements same as on page 44 of the catalogue, no knowledge of harmony, however, being required.

141. Violin A. Development of tone and ground work of technique. Sonatas of the 17th and 18th centuries, including those of Corelli, Veracini, or Handel. Shorter works.

242. Violin B. Concertos of Viotti, Rode, Kreutzer, de Beriot. Sonatas of Schubert or Handel. Salon music taken in connection with Studies of Sercik, Dont, Mazas. A systematic study of scales and arpeggios.

343. Violin C. Concertos of Bach, Spohr, Vivaldi, Mozart. Works of the grade of the suites of Ries. Etudes of Kreutzer or Fiorillo. Advanced scales.

344. Violin D. Study of Chamber music. Sonatas of Beethoven, Gade or Grieg; concertos of Viotti, Mendelssohn, Bach, Spohr; studies of Rode and Kreutzer. Advanced work in double stopping.

445. Violin E. Concertos of Bruch, Wieniawski, Vieuxtemps; sonatas of Bach; etudes of Rovelli or Gavinies. For students who have taken 344.

Orchestral Instruments

Mr. Janser, Violoncello; Miss Frazier, Harp; Mr. Dow, Cornet, Trumpet, Horn.

Requirements similar in grade to those for Violin.

The requirements for entering Harp are identical with entrance requirements in Harp as stated on page 44 of the catalogue. The regular pianoforte requirement will be accepted as an alternative.

151, 252, 353, 354, 455. Courses in violoncello, harp, and other orchestral instruments similar in grade to those given in pianoforte, organ, and violin.

Voice

Professor Olmsted, Assistant Professors Dale, Post, Miss Williams.

Requirements: Suitable foundation in the elements of music, in playing and in reading music, combined with some vocal ability. Examination upon registering necessary.

161. Voice A. Voice development. Technical studies. English and foreign songs of the grade of "Six Songs from an Old Garden." MacDowell, Opus 26.

For Seniors who have taken any of the elective courses or who are taking 31a or 32a. †Two hours, through the year. M. T. in Lib. 13. Assistant Professor Elkus.
36. British Philosophy. Locke, Berkeley, Hume, Mill, Spencer. Reading and discussion of selected texts. Two hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Elkus.
41. Seminary. †F. at 4.30 in Lib. 13. Professor Gardiner and members of the Department.

B. Psychology

- 25a. Psychology. Introductory course. Recitations, demonstrations, and lectures. Required, with 21b, in either Sophomore or Junior year. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 9 in C. 8; at 11 in C. 8, and L. H. 33; at 12 in C. 11 and G. H.; Th. F. S. at 10 in C. 8 and C. 10; at 11 in C. 8 and C. 11; at 12 in C. 8. Professors Cutler and Rogers, Associate Professor Townsend, Assistant Professors Elkus and Shearer, Miss Gough. (21)
- 26a. Experimental Psychology. Laboratory work and discussions dealing with the main topics of general experimental psychology. Habit formation, memory, association, reaction. Open to students who have taken or are taking 25a. Two or three hours, first semester. M. T. (W.) 2-4 in the Psychological Laboratory. Miss Gough.
- 26b. Experimental Psychology. Imagery, perception, judgment, fatigue. Open to students who have taken 25a. Two or three hours, second semester. M. T. (W.) 2-4 in the Psychological Laboratory. Miss Gough.

313. Advanced General Psychology. A systematic study of the problems of general psychology, treated from the standpoints of various authors. Reports, discussions, and laboratory experiments in connection with each topic. Open to students who have taken or are taking 26. Three hours, counted as two, each semester (the time being divided between lectures and laboratory work). Th. F. S. at 12 in the Psychological Laboratory.

A three-hour course may be made by combining this course with 317 or with an hour of 319. Miss Gough.

314a. Genetic and Comparative Psychology. The Psychology of Childhood and Adolescence. A study of the successive stages in mental development, treating especially attention, memory, interest, habit, transfer of training, and fatigue. Lectures, recitations, and reports of reading and observation. Open to students who have taken 25a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 12 in C. 6. Assistant Professor Shearer.

314b. Genetic and Comparative Psychology. Comparative Psychology. A study of animal, race, and abnormal psychology, and individual mental differences. Lectures, recitations, and papers on selected topics. Open to students who have taken 25a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 12 in C. 6. Assistant Professor Shearer.

315. Social Psychology. Lectures, recitations, and essays. The main human mental capacities studied in their development in social relationships. Psychological factors in selected social phenomena. Open to students who have taken 25a. Two hours, through the year. M. T. (W.) at 9 in C. 11. Professor Rogers.

A three-hour course may be made by combining this course with 317 or with an hour of 319.

317. Mental Tests. A laboratory study of tests for the measurement of intelligence and other mental functions. Open to students who have taken 25a. One hour, through the year. W. 2-4 in C. 8. Professor Rogers.

318. Mental Hygiene and Mental Reconstruction. Topics in abnormal psychology, mental hygiene, and psychotherapy, studied with special reference to applications in education and social work. Open to Seniors whose total previous and simultaneous enrolment, outside of this course, in psychology, education and sociology, amounts to four courses, and to others only by special permission. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. 2-4 in the Psychological Laboratory. Professor Rogers.

A three-hour course may be made by combining this course with 317 or with an hour of 319.

319a. Experimental Studies. Open under suitable circumstances to students who are taking or have taken any course in Psychology beyond 25a. The approval of an instructor in the Department is required for admission. †Two or three hours, or one hour if accompanied by any other course in psychology. Professor Rogers, Miss Gough.

319b. A continuation of 319a.

42a. Experimental Psychology. Special problems. Open to Seniors with the permission of the Department. Two or three hours, first semester. Professor Rogers, Miss Gough.

42b. Experimental Psychology. Special Problems. Open to Seniors with the permission of the Department. Two or three hours, second semester. Professor Rogers, Miss Gough.

Philosophy

Based on 25a and 21b.

Essential Courses: 31a, 31b, and 32a, 32b and at least two more hours above Grade II.

Optional Courses:

Philosophy: any courses beyond the requirement.

Psychology: 26, 313, 314, 315.

Education: 21, 31.

Biblical Literature: 34a, 35b, 36.

Economics: 21, 33.

Sociology: 26, 39a and 39b.

History: 31, 33, 34, 36, 341, 344, 347.

English: 36, 39, 211, 312, 322.

Greek: 31a, 34a, 31b, 34b, 33b.

Latin: 36a, 32a.

French: 36, 39.

German: 36, 311.

Italian: 31.

Theoretical courses in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry and Zoölogy with the approval of the Department.

Students including 33 (Aesthetics) in the major may also elect, with the approval of the instructor, from the courses in the various literatures in drama, lyric and poetic form, prose fiction, literary criticism, and from the theoretical and historical courses in the fine arts, including music.

As some of the above options have closer relation with certain branches of philosophy than with others, the student should carefully select her major course with reference to her dominant interests, the course selected being in all cases subject to the approval of the Department.

Psychology

Based on 25a and 21b.

Essential Courses: 26 (unless taken in Sophomore year) and two or more of the following, selected with reference to the interest predominating in the choice of the optional courses: 313, 314, 315 and 319 or 42.

Optional Courses:

Psychology: any courses.

Philosophy: any courses.

Education: any courses.

Physics: 21, 31a, 33a, 25b.

Zoölogy: 21, 31, 35.

Mathematics: 23.

Sociology: 26, 36, 37.

History: 341, 343, 344, 345.

Spoken English: 31.

Art and Music: any of the theoretical courses combined with two hours of practical work.

The list of optional courses makes it possible for the student to select her major with reference either to general training in psychology or to the bearing on psychology of philosophy, education, language, social studies, and the fine arts. The selection of courses is subject to the approval of the Department.

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR: FRANK ALLAN WATERMAN, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: ARTHUR TABER JONES, PH. D.

INSTRUCTORS: HANNAH LOUISA BILLINGS, A. B.,

GLADYS AMELIA ANSLOW, A. M.

ASSISTANT: MILDRED BURNETTE PORTER, A. B.

All courses in Physics are given in Lilly Hall.

11. Elementary Physics. Laws and properties of matter, sound, light, heat, electricity and magnetism. Lectures and recitations two hours a week; laboratory work one period of two and one half hours a week. Not open to students who offered Physics for entrance. Three hours, through the year. Lab. M. at 2; T. at 10; T. at 2; W. at 10; Th. at 10; Th. at 2; F. at 2; S. at 10. Rec. M. at 10; M. at 11; Th. at 10; Th. at 11; Th. at 12; S. at 10; S. at 11. Lec. F. at 11; F. at 12. Professor Waterman, Miss Billings, Miss Anslow, Miss Porter. (25)
21. Laboratory Physics. Advanced measurements in mechanics, sound, heat, light, electricity, and magnetism. Lectures on laboratory practice. Lectures, one hour; laboratory, two periods. For students who have taken 11, or who offered Physics for entrance. Three hours, through the year. Lec. T. at 2. Lab. A, M. at 2; Lab. B, T. at 3; Lab. C and Lab. D to be arranged. Professor Waterman, Miss Anslow.

23a. Mechanics and Properties of Matter. Reading, recitations, and lectures illustrated by qualitative experiments. For students who have taken 11, or who offered Physics for entrance, and who have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 10. Professor Waterman.

25b. Electricity and Magnetism. This course includes the practical applications of electricity and the study of dynamo electric machines. Lectures, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 10. Professor Waterman.

31a. Sound. The physical theory of sound, the physical basis of music and architectural acoustics. Lectures, demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 9. Associate Professor Jones.

32b. Heat. Nature of heat, kinetic theory of matter, heat engines, elements of thermodynamics. Reading, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9. Associate Professor Jones.

33a. Light. Nature of light, optical instruments, defects of optical systems, interference, and the application of interference methods. Reading, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 11. Associate Professor Jones.

34b. Spectroscopy. The theory of the methods employed. The applications of spectroscopy in astro-physics and in the development of the electron theory. Lectures, experimental work, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. M. T. W. at 11. Three hours, second semester. Miss Anslow.

36. Analytical Mechanics. The conditions for equilibrium and the equations of motion for particles, systems of particles and rigid bodies. Reading, solution of problems, and recitations. For students who have taken Mathematics 21 or 22, or are taking Mathematics 22. †Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 9. Associate Professor Jones.

38a. Theoretical Physics. Selected topics. Lectures, reading, and recitations. For students who have taken Mathematics 21 or 22, or are taking Mathematics 22. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Waterman or Associate Professor Jones.

- 38b. Continuation of 38a. †Three hours, second semester.
- 41a. Selected problems assigned for investigation, experimental work, and discussion. Open to Seniors by permission. The time will be arranged with each student and counted as three hours, first semester. Professor Waterman.
- 41b. Continuation of 41a. Three hours, second semester.
- 42a. Theoretical Physics. Selected topics. Lectures, reading, and discussions. †Three or more hours, first semester. Associate Professor Jones.

THE MAJOR

- For students who do not offer Physics for entrance.
Based on Physics 11; Mathematics 11 or 12.
Essential Courses: Physics 23a, 25b, 32b, 33a; Mathematics 21 or 22.
Optional Courses:
 Physics 21, 31a, 34b, 36, 38, 41a, and 41b.
 Mathematics, any courses in addition to those required.
 Astronomy, any courses.
 Chemistry, any courses.
- For students who offer Physics for entrance.
Based on Physics 21, or 23a and 25b; Mathematics 11 or 12.
Optional Courses as above.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 21, 34b and 41, each $2.50 a semester; Course 11, $5.00 a semester. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Physics need pay only the higher fee, provided Physics is the major subject.

A. Voice

11. Fundamental Course. The purpose of the course is to correct voice and speech defects; to improve speech for every-day life; to give the student a foundation for advanced work in speaking, reading and presenting of plays. The class hours will be used for lectures and for practical experimentation of the student in speaking and reading before a group. The class hours will be supplemented by supervised practice individually or in small groups. Though 11 is not always required as a prerequisite it is advised for all courses.

Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 9 in S. 32; at 12 in *A.; at 2 in *S. 32; at 3 in S. 27; T. W. at 11 in *S. 32 and in A.; Th. F. at 9 in S. 32 and Students' Building; at 11 in *S. 27; at 12 in S. 32; at 2 in S. 27; F. S. at 9 in A.; at 11 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Louden, Miss Blaisdell, Miss Landon, Dr. Avery, Miss Cooney. (33)

12b. Fundamental Course. Open to those Freshmen who in voice examinations have been advised to take a course for speech improvement. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9 in B. H. 17; Th. F. S. at 12 in S. 27. Miss Blaisdell, Miss Cooney. (33)

22. Voice Training. An advanced course for the correction and development of voice. Prerequisite 11. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 10 in C. H. 14; at 2 in S. 27; Th. F. at 10 in S. 27. Miss Landon. (33)

[31. Phonetics. A scientific analysis of the sounds of the English language. A study is made of two phonetic systems, Bell and the International. Presented as a general course for students interested in linguistics. No prerequisite but 11 advised. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 10 in S. 27. Miss Yale, Miss Landon. Omitted in 1919-1920.]

32. Phonetics. Analysis of English sounds based on the physiological position of the vocal organs. Recommended for foreign students and students with marked difficulty in enunciation or pronunciation. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 12 in S. 24. Miss Landon.

36. Fundamental Course in Voice and Speech. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have taken no work in the department. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 12 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Hosford.

[38a. Voice and Speech Defects. A study of faults of voice and speech, and correction of such faults. It is a theory course designed for students who expect to teach or who are especially interested in the problems of speech. Open to students who have had 22 or have obtained special permission of the department. †Three hours, first semester. Omitted in 1919-1920.]

Speech Clinic. Available for all students whether taking courses in the department or not. Its purpose is to advise students in the right use of the voice and to assist in practice. It will be open definite hours in the week, and other hours by appointment. No credit will be given.‡

* This division is for Sophomores only.

‡ Any student in any course may be requested to do corrective work in voice in connection with the course if the instructor in charge thinks it is advisable.

B. Public Speaking

23. Forms of Public Address. Practice in the preparation and delivery of speeches. Open to all students, except Freshmen, who have obtained permission of the department. Permission will be granted students who have the ability to speak without voice defects and to use English adequately. Three hours, through the year. M. at 11 in S. 32; T. W. at 11 in A. H. Dr. Avery.
24. Argumentation and Debate. Practice in brief-making and presenting of arguments and debates. Open to all students, except Freshmen, who have obtained permission of the department. Permission will be granted to students who have the ability to speak without voice defects and to use English adequately. †Three hours, through the year. Dr. Avery.

C. Reading

21. Reading. This course gives training and practice in the reading aloud of various forms of literature. Open to students who have had 11 or who have special permission of the department. Permission will be granted to students who have the ability to speak without voice defects. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 9 in A.; at 3 in S. 32; Th. F. at 10 in S. 32. Assistant Professors Hosford, Loudon, Miss Landon. (33)
33. Advanced Reading. Prerequisite 21. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 12 in S. 32; Th. F. at 9 in S. 32. Assistant Professor Loudon. (33)

D. Drama

35. Experimentation in Play Production. A study of the theory of staging and of modern tendencies in stage design. Practice in the organization of committees necessary in stage production, in modelling stage settings and in directing rehearsals. The purpose of the course is to arouse appreciation of the art of the theatre and to prepare students to put on school and community plays. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have had 11 or 21. English 210, 311, and 36 are advised. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 11 in Students' Building. Assistant Professor Eliot.
37. Presentation of Dramatic Material. This course is designed to develop the student in voice and pantomime through the presentation of dramatic material. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have had two years of work in the Department. English 311 and 36 are advised. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 11 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Hosford.

CURATOR: EDITH PRISCILLA BUTLER, A. B.

All courses in Zoölogy are given in Burton Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Zoölogy. An introduction to the study of animals. The lectures deal with the fundamental principles of biology and include a comprehensive survey of the animal kingdom. The laboratory work consists of the dissection and detailed study of types representing the principal classes of animals, with practice in classification and the use of the microscope. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Three hours, through the year. Lec. Th. at 2 in 6; Dem. F. at 2 in 6; Lab. A, M. T. at 9; Lab. B, M. T. at 11; Lab. C, Th. F. at 9 (Lab. D, Th. F. at 11); all laboratory work in 19. Associate Professor Parshley, Miss Williams.

21. Anatomy and Physiology of Man and related Mammals. The laboratory work includes the detailed study of the human skeleton, and other human anatomical preparations; the dissection and study of the muscles, nervous system, and viscera, of other mammals; the microscopic study of cells, tissues, and organs; and simple physiological experiments. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Open also to Freshmen. Three hours, through the year. Section I: Lec. W. at 2 in 6; Dem. Th. at 10; Lab. A, M. T. at 9; Lab. B, M. T. at 11; Lab. C, M. T. at 2 in 31. Section II: Lec. W. at 10 in 6; Dem. Th. at 12; Lab. D, F. S. at 9; Lab. E, F. S. at 11; Lab. F, Th. F. at 2 in 31. Associate Professor Wilder, Assistant Professor Sampson, Miss Hosford, Miss Chace, Miss Smith. (36)

23b. Ornithology. Field work and lectures. The field work consists of identification of the species and observation of the habits of our local birds. This is supplemented by the lectures and the study of museum specimens. Open to students who have taken or are taking a

- 31a. Evolution. Animal Evolution. The historical development of scientific theories of animal origins from the early times to the present, especially emphasizing the most recent investigations and theories. Open to Juniors and Seniors. Two hours, first semester. Th. F. at 4 in 6. Professor Wilder.
- [31b. Anthropology: The Evolution of Man. Comparison of the bodily structure of man and his nearest relatives; prehistoric archaeology; ethnology; and the development of human culture. Open to Juniors and Seniors. Two hours, second semester. Th. F. at 4 in 6. Professor Wilder. Omitted in 1919-1920.]
32. Anatomy of Vertebrates. The laboratory work consists of dissections and drawings of a series of typical vertebrates, including a selachian, an amphibian, a reptile, a bird, and a mammal. The lectures are upon the comparative anatomy of vertebrates. For students who have taken either 11, 21, or 24. Three hours, through the year. Lec. S. at 11 in 17; Dem. S. at 12 in 17; Lab. Th. F. at 11 in 22. Professor Wilder, Miss Hosford.
33. General Embryology, with special Reference to Vertebrates. The laboratory work is based mainly upon embryos of the dog-fish, the chick and the pig, and includes the technic of serial sections, drawing with camera, and wax-plate reconstruction. For students who have taken, or are taking, 32. All work in B. H. 8. †Three hours, through the year. Professor Wilder, Miss Smith.
34. Entomology. The anatomy, development, classification, and ecology or bionomics of insects, with a survey of the literature of the subject, and practice in mounting and preserving specimens for the cabinet. Lectures, laboratory, and field study. For students who have taken 11. †Three hours, through the year. Associate Professor Parshley.
35. General Physiology. A comparative study of the functions of the animal body. The laboratory work consists of experimental physiology and chemical physiology. For students who have taken 21 or 32, and Physics 11 or Chemistry 11. Lec. S. at 9 in 17; Dem. S. at 10 in 17; Lab. A, Th. F. 9-11; Lab. B, Th. F. 2-4 in 23. Three hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Sampson.

- [41. Physical Anthropology; observations and measurements of the skulls and skeletons of the principal human races, including both recent and prehistoric forms; also the study and measurements of the facial features and the proportions of the living body. Open to Seniors who have had 21 and 31. A reading knowledge of French and German is necessary. Mainly a laboratory course, with explanatory lectures, reading, and seminary work. †Three hours, through the year. Professor Wilder. Omitted in 1919-1920.]

Research Courses

A separate subject is assigned to each student, who selects the main direction of her research from the list following. A reading knowledge of French and German is desirable. Open to those Graduate students who are ready for the work, and to Seniors who have taken the prerequisites asked for.

42. Problems in Vertebrate Morphology and Embryology. 33 is a prerequisite. Professor Wilder, Associate Professor Wilder.
43. Problems in Invertebrate Morphology and Taxonomy, especially Entomology. Students must have had 11, 34, and one other course in the Department. Associate Professor Parshley.
44. Problems in Physiology. 35 is a prerequisite. Assistant Professor Sampson.
- [45. Problems in Animal Distribution and Species-formation. Students must have had three courses in the Department, including 24. Omitted in 1919-1920.]

A Seminary for the presentation of reviews of recent literature and the preliminary report of the results of individual research is held once a week during the year by the Faculty members of the Department, and is occasionally open, by invitation only, to a few advanced students.

THE MAJORS

Based on 11.

Students are advised to select one of the following sequences, in accordance with their preference or their plans for work in the future:

I. For Vertebrate Morphology (Anatomy, Embryology, etc.):

Essential Courses: 32, 33, 42.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 21, 24.

Botany 11, 21, 31.

Geology 11, 35.

II. For Vertebrate Zoölogy (Taxonomy, Ecology, Distribution, etc.):

Essential Courses: 24, 32, 33.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 21, 45.

Botany 11, 21, 33.

Geology 11, 35.

III. For Invertebrate Zoölogy (especially Entomology):

Essential Courses: 24 (or 32), 34, 43.

Optional Courses: Botany 11, 21.

IV. For Physiology:

Essential Courses: 21, 35, 44.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 32, 33.

Chemistry 11, 31.

In case Chemistry has been taken before the Junior year, either Chemistry 21 or 31, or Physics 11, is advised for Juniors; and if Chemistry 31 has been taken in the Junior year, Chemistry 32, or 34, are advised for Seniors.

V. For Medicine:

Essential Courses: 21, 32, 33, or 21, 32, 35.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 34, 42, 43, 44.

Botany 11, 22.

Chemistry 11, (12), 21, or 11, (12), 31.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 11, 21, 32, 33, 34, and 41; $5.00 a semester. Course 35 has a fee of $5.00, and an additional charge for breakage. Course 24 has a fee of $2.50 a semester. In Courses 42 to 45 there is no set fee, but each student is expected to pay for the material she uses. Students taking simultaneously two or more laboratory courses in Zoölogy will pay only the higher fee, provided Zoölogy is the major subject.

REGULATIONS OF THE COURSE OF STUDY

GENERAL STATEMENTS

1. The Administrative Board is constituted as follows:
The Dean, chairman; Dean McElwain for the Class of 1920; Dean Mary M. Cook for the Class of 1921; Dean Benedict for the Class of 1922; Dean Barbour for the Class of 1923; Professor Mensel and Professor Robert Seneca Smith.
2. Each student is required to make herself familiar with all regulations governing the courses of study, and to present her course card, properly filled out, at the time and place designated in the Weekly Bulletin. While all possible aid and direction will be given by the Faculty Advisers and the Class Deans, each student will be held responsible for errors in her choice of studies.
3. Sixty hours, including two in Hygiene and Physical Education, are required for graduation. They are distributed among the four years as follows: Freshman, 16, Sophomore, 16, Junior, 14, Senior, 14.
4. In each year the student must carry at least three three-hour courses.
5. Courses which belong to the same examination group may not be taken in the same semester. A number in black-faced type following a course indicates the examination group to which the course belongs.
6. (a) A student may not carry in any year less than the required minimum number of hours, nor more than two hours above the required minimum, except with the permission of the Administrative Board.
(b) No student who has failed to remove an entrance condition may take more than the required minimum number of hours, except with the permission of the Administrative Board.
(c) Any shortage of hours permitted by the Administrative Board may be made up by a corresponding excess of hours distributed over succeeding semesters in any manner approved by the Board.
7. Intensive work in a course, counting as one or two hours in that course and credited within the minimum of hours, may be done by Juniors and Seniors with the approval of the department concerned and the permission of the Administrative Board.

8. No student is allowed to attend a class either as an occasional or a regular visitor except with the permission of the instructor in charge of the course.
9. No credit will be given for French 11, German 11, Spanish 11, or Italian 11, unless the subject is continued through the year.

In general, a year course may not be dropped or entered in the middle of the year except with the permission of the Administrative Board and the consent of the department concerned. When such a course is dropped, the presumption is against allowing credit for the first semester.

10. Any course elected by fewer than five students may be withdrawn.
11. (a) Changes in courses elected may be made only with the permission of the Administrative Board. No petitions for changes of courses will be considered later than September first for the first semester, or after the beginning of the second semester, except for reasons beyond the control of the student.

(b) Requests for such changes must be filed in the office of the Class Deans, on official blanks to be obtained in that office.

(c) If changes on the course card are made necessary by reason of carelessness on the part of the student, a fee of two dollars will be charged.

12. Students wishing to do work during the summer in order to gain college credit must secure in advance the consent of the department concerned and of the Administrative Board.
13. Students who wish to obtain credit for work done at other colleges should consult Professor Irving F. Wood.

THE CURRICULUM

The curriculum has been arranged on the basis of principles and with reference to the methods which educational experience has proved to be adapted to the fulfillment of the clearly defined aims of a college of liberal arts. The student, therefore, before electing her courses for the Freshman year, should read carefully the following outline of the entire college course and should endeavor from the beginning to understand the plan of her own college course as a whole.

Every student should observe carefully that she is dealing with a Group System which regulates her entire course. She should study the groups and attempt to understand their relationship to each year's work and to analyze their meaning for the course as a whole.

It is of the utmost importance for the student to use wisely the elective privileges of the first two years. One of the distinctive features of the curriculum is that it offers the opportunity to pursue courses in any department before the close of Sophomore year. The significance of that possibility lies in the fact that the major subject of the two upper years must be one which has been taken in either Freshman or Sophomore year or in both.

The selection of the major subject is the most important choice which the student is asked to make. It determines largely the character of the two upper years. This question, therefore, should be kept in mind from the beginning. The work of the earlier years should be so distributed among the different groups that the student may acquire the knowledge of the various fields of study and of her own tastes and capabilities that will enable her to choose wisely the subject in which she is to concentrate her effort in the later years of her course.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. All courses are classified in four grades. Those intended primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores are designated as Grade I, for Sophomores and Juniors as Grade II, for Juniors and Seniors as Grade III, and for Graduate Students as Grade IV. In the two upper years at least 22 hours must be above Grade I, of which not less than nine must be above Grade II. In the major subject at least six hours must be above Grade II.
2. The major, which is elected at the close of the Sophomore year, is based upon a two- or three-hour course taken in Freshman or Sophomore year. It consists of five or six hours in Junior year, followed by seven to nine hours in Senior year. It occupies, therefore, twelve to fifteen hours in the two upper years.
3. Major subjects may not be chosen in Spoken English or Hygiene. Practical work cannot be counted within the major, but students offering a major of eight hours in Music or Art will be permitted in the Senior year to count within the minimum two hours of practical work.
4. Except for the provision made in General Regulation 3 not more than six hours in Group VI may in any year be counted within the minimum, and every course in practical Art or Music so counted must be accompanied by a course in theory. In any case not more than two hours of practical work each year may be counted within the minimum.
5. A student may not carry both practical Art and practical Music within the minimum, and may not elect within the minimum at the same time courses in the three departments of Art, Music, and Spoken English.

GROUPS

- I. English Language and Literature.
- II. Greek, Latin.
- III. French, German, Italian, Spanish.
- IV. Mathematics, Astronomy, Physics, Chemistry.
- V. Geology, Botany, Zoölogy.
- VI. Art, Music, Spoken English.
- VII. History and Government, Economics and Sociology.
- VIII. Philosophy and Psychology, Education, Biblical Literature and Comparative Religion.
- IX. Hygiene and Physical Education.

FRESHMAN YEAR

1. GROUP I. English 3 hours
 2. GROUP II. Greek or Latin 3 hours
If a total of 6 units in two classical languages was offered for entrance, the student may elect any subject open to Freshmen.
 3. GROUP III. French, or German, or Italian, or Spanish 3 hours
If the language chosen was not offered for entrance, this requirement may be met in either Freshman or Sophomore year.
If a total of 5 units in two modern languages was offered for entrance, the student may elect any subject open to Freshmen.
 4. GROUP IV. Mathematics, or Astronomy, or Physics, or Chemistry 3 hours
If a science is chosen, a classical language must be taken in Freshman year.
 5. GROUP IX. Hygiene and Physical Education 1 hour
 6. ELECTIVE 3 hours
The student should observe that in addition to courses in Groups I to IV certain courses in Groups V and VI and History in Group VII are open as electives to Freshmen.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

1. GROUP IV OR V. Science 3 hours
If Mathematics was chosen in Freshman year, the student may elect any science. If a science was chosen in place of Mathematics, the student must select a subject from Group V, which may be taken in either Sophomore or Junior year.

If this science requirement was taken as an elective in Freshman year, or if 2 units of science were offered for entrance and a science was chosen in Freshman year, the student may then elect any course open to Sophomores.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| 2. GROUP VII. History and Government | 3 hours |
| If the required course was elected in Freshman year, the student may choose any subject open to Sophomores. | |
| If 3 units of History were offered for entrance, the student may take either History or Economics. | |
| 3. GROUP VIII. Philosophy and Psychology, or Biblical Literature and Comparative Religion | 3 hours |
| One must be taken in Sophomore year, the other in either Sophomore or Junior year. | |
| 4. GROUP IX. Hygiene and Physical Education | 1 hour |
| 5. ELECTIVE | 6 hours |
| The student should observe that courses in all departments are open as electives to Sophomores. | |

JUNIOR YEAR

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| 1. A MAJOR SUBJECT | 5 or 6 hours |
| Continuing a two- or three-hour course taken in Freshman or Sophomore year or in both. | |
| 2. A DISTRIBUTION SUBJECT | 2 or 3 hours |
| Chosen from some group other than that of the major. | |
| 3. BIBLICAL LITERATURE AND COMPARATIVE RELIGION, OR PHILOSOPHY AND PSYCHOLOGY | 3 hours |
| Whichever was not taken in Sophomore year. If both were taken in Sophomore year, the student may elect any subject open to Juniors. | |

DIRECTIONS FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

Students pursuing graduate work should register on the first day of the academic year at the office of the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, College Hall 14. The choice of studies must be made under the direction of the department in which the major is taken and with the approval of the instructors concerned.

The course of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts shall consist of a major and a closely related minor. The major shall be within a single department, and the minor within a related department. When, however, the department of the major includes several lines of work the minor may also be selected from this department, provided that the minor differs in character from the major.

A year's work for the degree of Master of Arts is the equivalent of four three-hour courses. The courses in the major must be of Grade III or Grade IV, and at least two must be of Grade IV. (See General Regulation 1, p. 118.) In general, the minor must be of Grade III or IV. For each course below Grade IV one hour of supplementary work is required. The courses counted for the degree of Master of Arts must be completed with distinction.

The candidate for the degree of Master of Arts is required to present a paper embodying the results of a special study comprised in the major, and to pass an examination in each course taken. The required paper must be presented on or before the twentieth of May of the year in which the degree is received. A bound type-written or printed copy of an accepted paper or thesis must be placed by the candidate in the college library.

Grade IV courses are primarily for Graduate Students. A statement of the Grade III courses which are open to Graduate Students may be had upon application to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction.

SCHOLARSHIP REGULATIONS

1. Grades are assigned with the following significations: A, high honor; B, honor; C, credit; D, pass; E, failure.
2. In the courses designated as year courses, the final mark for the year's work will be that which the student obtains at the end of the second semester. The mark which the student obtains at the end of the first semester will be treated as final in the application of all scholarship regulations at that time.
3. A failure in a course must be made up either by repeating the subject in class or by taking other work which requires the same number of hours; this work must conform to the regulations of the curriculum applicable to the course for which it is offered as a substitute.

4. (a) A student who has failed in five or more hours of work in a semester receives an official warning.
(b) A student who receives warnings in two consecutive semesters or in any three semesters is excluded from college, unless special exception be made by vote of the Faculty.
5. (a) For graduation a student must have to her credit a total of 64 semester hours above grade D.
(b) In each semester eight of the required minimum of hours must be above grade D.
(c) If more than the minimum number of hours be taken, the requirement of hours above grade D is increased by one for each hour carried above the minimum.
(d) If less than the minimum number of hours be taken, 60 % of the hours carried must be above grade D.
6. (a) Notice of deficiency in the required number of hours above grade D for any semester is sent to the student by the Registrar at the end of that semester.
(b) This deficiency is removed when the student has made, in addition to her semester class requirement, the number of hours above grade D in which she was deficient.
7. No student will be ranked as a member of the Sophomore Class until she has removed her entrance conditions. Under no circumstances may a student who has an entrance condition not made up enter upon the work of the Junior year.
8. A student who loses credit for hours in her Senior year, but who, in all other respects, has met the requirements of the curriculum, may apply to the Administrative Board for permission to count any surplus of hours carried in previous years toward making up this loss.
9. A student loses her class standing and is rated with the class next below:
 - (a) If she receives notices of deficiencies in two successive semesters or in any three semesters;
 - (b) If she fails to remove her deficiency in the two succeeding semesters;
 - (c) If she has a shortage of more than three hours for one semester, or more than two hours for a year.
10. (a) Class standing lost through deficiency is regained when the deficiency is removed.
(b) Failure to regain class standing within a year causes a student to be brought before the Administrative Board for special action, with the presumption that she will be excluded from College. The same presumption holds in the case of a student who has lost class standing and who, at the end of the following semester, has a record so poor that the regaining of class standing within a year is impossible. The final disposal of such cases rests with the Faculty acting on the recommendation of the Administrative Board.

11. Any student whose scholarship is generally unsatisfactory, although not coming specifically under the above regulations, may be brought before the Faculty for action and excluded from College.

HONORS

The diploma grades of Summa cum laude, Magna cum laude, and Cum laude are awarded to graduating students on the basis of the grades which they have received throughout their courses. To receive the Summa cum laude or Magna cum laude honor students must also be recommended by the departments in which they have done their major work.

Special honors in particular subjects may be awarded to graduating students on the basis of exceptional attainments and ability. The general requirements for the award are as follows:

1. Not fewer than twenty-two semester hours of work in the department in which honors are sought, twelve of which, at least, must be taken in the Junior and Senior years.
2. An average grade of at least "B" in that part of the work that is done before the Senior year.
3. An average grade of at least "B" in that part of the work that is done during the Senior year.
4. A comprehensive examination or else a special piece of intensive work.
5. The recommendation of all the instructors with whom the student has done work in the subject.

The special requirements are determined by each department.

Seniors who wish to become candidates for special honors should make application to the Committee on Honors not later than December first.

Honors are awarded to members of the Freshman Class on the basis of the grades received in the work of the full year.

ABSENCE FROM COLLEGE EXERCISES

Every student is expected to attend all of her scheduled college exercises, and will be held responsible for the full content of each course of study. No change from division to division is allowed in order to prevent or remove records of absences.

1. Such absences as may occur are classified and handled as follows:

(a) Absences on account of illness. These absences will be excused by the instructor upon the presentation of a signed statement from the College Physician. Students will be given opportunity to make up work which has been missed, when the nature of the work permits it.

(b) Absences on account of illness of members of the family or other serious trouble at home. These absences will be excused by the instructor upon the presentation of a signed statement by the Registrar. Students will be given opportunity to make up work which has been missed, when the nature of the work permits it.

(c) Absences at the beginning and end of vacations, and before and after holidays. Every one of these absences must be accounted for by a signed statement from the Registrar or the College Physician. When these absences come under class a or class b, the work may be made up as at any other time. When the absence is occasioned by some reason other than the reasons included under classes a and b, permission to make up the work missed may be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Absences of this last-named type will be allowed by the Registrar for urgent reasons only.

(d) Absences for other reasons. The responsibility for all other absences rests entirely upon the student.

(1) No student may claim opportunity to make up the work missed.

(2) Absence may reduce the grade in such manner as the instructor may determine.

2. A student who has absences, whether excused or unexcused, numbering more than seven in a three-hour course, five in a two-hour course, or three in a one-hour course must apply to the Administrative Board for permission to enter the examination in that course.

3. Students coming under any one of the following heads will be required to present an excuse from the College Physician or the Registrar for every absence from class.

(a) Students who at the end of the preceding semester have received an official warning or notice of deficiency.

(b) Students in the Freshman Class who by reason of entrance conditions have entered on trial.

(c) Students who on account of social misconduct seem to require special supervision.

ABSENCE FROM EXAMINATIONS

A student necessarily absent from a semester examination must report her absence, with the reason therefor, at the Registrar's office, personally or by letter, or by sending a doctor's certificate, within twenty-four hours after the time set for the examination. If the reason for absence is regarded by the Registrar as satisfactory, the student will be given another opportunity for examination. If the absence occurs at the time of the midyear examinations, the opportunity will be given within two weeks after the opening of the next semester. If the absence occurs during the final examinations, the opportunity will be given during the examination period in June or at the time of the entrance examinations in September. If the reasons for absence are not regarded as satisfactory by the Registrar, the student will be conditioned in the work covered by the examination until it is made up under the direction of the department.

Students may not take examinations or tests at the same time as the rest of the class in other than the officially appointed places unless the work is formally supervised.

No student will be excused from an examination given her class except by vote of the Faculty obtained through the department concerned.

GENERAL INFORMATION

RESIDENCE

Smith College has twenty-three halls of residence, housing more than eight hundred students. It is the aim of the College to make these houses homelike and pleasant, as well as to create in them conditions favorable for study. Except for seven of the smaller houses, each has its own kitchen, dining room, and living rooms, and is presided over by a Head of the House, who devotes her whole time to the administration of the house and to personal care of the students in her charge. A member of the Faculty of Instruction lives in each house.

Application for rooms in the halls of residence should be made to the Dean as long before entrance as possible. Such applications are received only from those who have applied for admission to the College and have made the deposit of $10, which is then required. Rooms are assigned to entering students in the order of application, but preference will be given to those who in the June preceding entrance are known to be free from entrance conditions. Order of application is not considered in making assignments after the Freshman year, and order of assignment to the three upper classes is determined by lot.

1. No room can be engaged for a shorter time than one year.

2. A student who accepted a campus assignment before entering College and who wishes in some succeeding year to go into another campus house is at liberty to draw for assignments with her class. With this exception students are not transferred from one of the halls of residence to another.

3. After September 1 students may not give up rooms which have been assigned to them, except in case of withdrawal from College, or other imperative reason.

* 4. Students are not received in halls of residence until the day before the opening of College. The first meal is served at 6.00 P. M.

5. Students of the Freshman Class are expected to give up their rooms at 9.00 A. M. of the Friday before Commencement.

6. Each student must provide her own towels. The necessary bedding and furniture are provided by the College.

7. An extra charge is made for meals sent to a student's room or for extra service.

Students may obtain board and lodging in houses privately owned and managed, at an expense varying from $8 to $20 a week. These houses must be approved by the College, and a list of houses so approved may be had by application to the Dean. Any student who desires to lodge in a house not included in the printed list is required to consult the Dean before engaging her room.

HEALTH

The health of students is under the care of the College Physician, who gives her entire time to the practice of preventive medicine with the teaching of efficient living. Daily office hours are held for consultation, and every student may have free advice upon all matters in any way affecting her health. When College opens, a medical and physical examination of each new student is made by the College Physician and members of the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education. Data from this examination and from the questions answered at entrance are carefully recorded, and it is expected that by this means the College Physician may become thoroughly acquainted with the needs of each individual. Modifications in prescriptions of physical exercise are then made. Reëxaminations are given and these prescriptions changed as often as necessary. No student is allowed to take part in competitive games or heavy gymnastics, or to be a member of basket ball, hockey, or other team, unless pronounced physically fit.

* Exceptions to this rule are made for students whose entrance is assured, but who have some examinations still to take, and for students who are obliged to return early for examinations to remove entrance conditions or complete work. Such students, if they have campus assignments, are received in a house especially designated for the purpose. Information on this point may be obtained at the Office of the Dean. In no case, however, are the houses open before Monday night of examination week.

Health Regulations

1. All absence from academic exercises which is due to illness must be excused by the College Physician.

2. An illness, no matter how slight, must be reported at once to the College Physician by the Head of the House in order that the College may be assured that all possible care is being given the student and may be able to guard other students by investigating the cause of illness.

3. A student ill enough to be in bed for more than a day or two will not ordinarily be allowed to remain in a college house, whether on or off the campus. Cases of illness are cared for at the Elizabeth Mason Infirmary; opportunity for rest and recuperation is given at Sunnyside. No student may be taken for medical treatment to these or to any other institution or private house without the approval of the College Physician.

4. Permission to leave College because of illness must, in every case, be obtained from the College Physician.

5. Any student who has been exposed to a communicable disease while away from College shall not return to College until she has explained the circumstances to the College Physician, and fulfilled whatever conditions shall be deemed necessary in the specific case.

Expenses at the Infirmary or Sunnyside:

Students paying $200 tuition are allowed two weeks in the Infirmary or Sunnyside during the year 1919-1920.

Other students pay at the following rates:

$3.00 a day at the Infirmary.

$2.50 a day at the Infirmary if they live on campus.

$2.50 a day at Sunnyside.

$2.00 a day at Sunnyside if they live on campus.

The same rates apply to students paying $200 tuition who have been more than two weeks in either place.

A student who requires more nursing than that furnished at the Infirmary must pay for the additional service.

One-half of the annual fees for tuition and board must be paid in advance at the beginning of each semester. Five per cent. will be added to all college bills which are unpaid at the end of the first month. No deduction will be made for absences, except for prolonged illness.

A few college rooms of extra size and desirability may be had upon the payment of an additional fee of from $25 to $150. There are, also, a few suites, the additional fee for which is, at a maximum, $200. Some suites, however, may be had at a lower price. Information concerning these rooms and suites may be had from the Dean.

Two of the college houses offer less expensive accommodations than the others. One of these is the Tenney House, the gift of Mrs. Mary A. Tenney. The students in this house cooperate in the purchase of food and in the duties of housekeeping. The cost of lodging in Tenney House varies from $35 to $70 a year according to the size and desirability of the rooms. Current prices determine the cost of supplying the table.

In memory of Mrs. Tenney ten scholarships have been established known as the Tenney Residence Scholarships. These consist of $100 each to be applied toward residence in any college house. They are awarded to students of approved character and scholarship in the Senior and Junior classes upon the recommendation of a committee the chairman of which is Professor Anna A. Cutler.

The Lawrence House is now devoted to an experiment in cooperative housekeeping. Each of the sixty-two students in the house is supposed to take care of her own room and to give approximately an hour a day to the work of the house. For this service a reduction of $125 is made in the charge for board and room. In other words, board and room may be had in the Lawrence House for $275 for the college year. Students desiring to enter this house should make special application to the Dean, not later than March in the spring before entrance.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

A limited number of annual scholarships have been established to assist meritorious students who would otherwise be unable to meet the expense of a college education.

These scholarships are awarded when satisfactory written testimonials are made by persons, not relatives, that such aid is necessary; and such statements must be presented at the beginning of each year, if the scholarship is to be renewed.

The following scholarship funds also have been established:—

The Sophia Ingalls Wallace Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by the Hon. Rodney Wallace.

The Sophia Billings Wallace Scholarship fund of $5,000, also founded by the Hon. Rodney Wallace.

The Rodney Wallace Scholarship fund of $10,000, founded by Mr. Herbert I. Wallace and Mr. George R. Wallace, as a memorial to their father, the Hon. Rodney Wallace of Fitchburg, for twenty-five years Trustee of Smith College.

The Elizabeth Bartlett Phillips Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. James Phillips, Jr.

The Mary Nichols Billings Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. Charles E. Billings. According to the wish of the founder, in the award of this scholarship the daughters of missionaries, or those preparing for foreign missionary work, will receive the preference.

The Constance Elaine Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Miss Caroline Phelps Stokes. The benefit of this scholarship is to be given to young women who intend to be teachers, and who otherwise could not obtain a college education. Preference is to be given to those living outside of the United States; failing applicants from abroad, to students from Massachusetts or Connecticut.

The Nellie Eddie Mudge Scholarship fund of $2,000, founded by Dr. Seldon J. Mudge.

The Elizabeth Fobes Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Miss Elizabeth Fobes.

The Emma E. Scranton Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by the friends of Miss Scranton.

The Oakland Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by a non-graduate member of the class of 1895.

The Julia Ball Thayer Scholarship fund of $6,000, founded by Miss Julia Beatrice Thayer, for the education of any deserving students, preference being given to those from Keene, N. H.

The Gannett Scholarship fund of $2,000, given by the Gannett Association of Boston, in memory of Rev. George Gannett, Principal of the Gannett Institute of Boston, on the condition that applicants who are nominated by the executive committee of the Gannett Association, and who present satisfactory evidence of high scholarship, shall be preferred in the award of the scholarship. When no such applicant is presented, the scholarship may be awarded at the discretion of the college authorities.

The Helen Ayer Marden Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Mr. Frank W. Marden for students of vocal music.

The College Choir and the College Glee Club each contribute funds for a scholarship annually, and the College awards six scholarships in Music each year.

The Class of 1883 Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by the class of 1883, and given by preference to daughters of members of the class.

The Mary Duguid Dey Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. Donald Dey of Syracuse, N. Y., of the class of 1884, and Alumna Trustee of Smith College from 1896 to 1902. This scholarship is to be awarded to members of the three upper classes on the basis of superior scholarship and ability, preference being given to daughters of clergymen and teachers.

The Mary Lanning Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lanning of Hastings, Neb. This scholarship is awarded to a Sophomore.

The Sadie D. Scott Scholarship fund and the Edith Scott, '09, Scholarship fund, each of $8,000, founded by Walter Scott of Butler Brothers, New York, for worthy young women who are unable themselves to bear the expense of a college education.

The Maplewood Institute Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by the Maplewood Institute Association of Pittsfield, Mass., the income to be given to "some worthy young woman who needs help in her education."

The Helen Kate Furness Prize fund of $1,000, founded by Horace Howard Furness, LL.D., the income of which is awarded for the best essay on a Shakespearean theme. There is no restriction on the length of the essays, but in general they are not to be shorter than 4,000 or longer than 10,000 words. The essays should be handed in at the President's office on the first Monday after the Easter recess, signed with an assumed name and accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the real name of the competitor. The competition is open to all undergraduates. The subject for 1919-20 is "The Soldiers in Shakespeare's Plays"; for 1920-21, "Shakespeare's Ecclesiastics."

The Clara French Prize fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. Mary E. W. French, the income to be given to that member of the Senior Class who has made the greatest progress in the study of English language and literature. Awarded in 1919 to Mary Agnes McGuinness of Dorchester.

The Mary Van Kleeck Prize fund of $500, founded by Amy G. Maher, '06, the income of which is awarded for an essay on "Women in Industry."

By vote of the Board of Trustees on October 17, 1919, the payment of tuition fees is remitted to all students who have been residents of Northampton for three years before the date of their admission, provided that they are able to satisfy fully the requirements for admission without condition; and this remission is continued throughout their college course, provided that they maintain their class standing and conform to the regulations of the College.

A scholarship of $200 is granted annually to a graduate of Smith Academy in Hatfield, entering the Freshman class, the candidate to be nominated by the authorities of Smith Academy.

The Arthur Ellis Hamm Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Elizabeth Creevey Hamm, of the class of 1905, in memory of her husband, Captain Arthur Ellis Hamm, the income to be awarded to a member of the Freshman Class on the basis of the mid-year record. In 1919, awarded to Alice Mildred Richardson of New Bedford.

Two tables of the value of $50 each are maintained by the College at seaside laboratories for the benefit of students who show marked proficiency in the departments of Zoölogy and Botany. In the summer of 1919 the Zoölogy table at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., was assigned to Elizabeth Mangam (Smith 1919), Margaret Gutman (Smith 1920). The Botany table at the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole, Mass., was assigned to Ruth I. Dowell (Smith 1920).

The sum of $50 annually is contributed by the College toward the maintenance of a woman's table at the Stazione Zoologica at Naples. This table is under the control of the Naples Table Association, and is assigned for convenient periods throughout the entire year to graduates of Smith and other women's colleges. Application for this should be made to the Secretary of the Association, Mrs. Ada Wing Mead, 283 Wayland Ave., Providence, R. I.

The College is one of the institutions coöperating to support the Classical School at Athens and Rome. The reports of these schools are sent regularly to the College, and graduates will be welcomed to all the privileges which the schools offer.

The sum of $100 annually is contributed by the College toward the maintenance of the American School of Archaeology at Jerusalem. Any of our graduates may enjoy the privileges of the school, and may compete for the annual fellowship, which yields $800 a year.

A prize of $200 is offered to the student who, entering by the Old Plan, passes the best examination in all the subjects required for admission. Competitors for this prize must complete these examinations in one or two examination periods.

A similar prize of $200 is offered to the student who passes the best examinations under the New Plan. In September, 1919, this prize was awarded to Sarah Randle Riggs of Constantinople, Turkey, who was prepared for college at the Burnham School in Northampton.

The Latin-American Scholarship fund of $7,500, founded by the Class of 1890. This scholarship is given to a student from a Latin country, or, if no such applicant is presented, to a student from some other foreign country.

FELLOWSHIPS

Six fellowships, of the value of five hundred dollars each, have been established by the Trustees of Smith College for the encouragement of advanced work in the various departments of study. They are open to women graduates, of not less than one year's standing, either of Smith College or of other colleges of equal rank, and are awarded annually, subject to renewal at discretion. While established primarily for study at Smith College, they may be used, especially in the case of graduates, or those who have been graduate students or members of the Faculty of Smith College, for study elsewhere in this country or abroad, with the consent of the department concerned and of the Committee on Graduate Instruction. It is expected that each applicant will submit to the Committee specimens of her work for examination by the department in which she desires to study. Non-resident fellows are required to register at the beginning of the college year with the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, and they should report to him the scope and nature of their work. The holders of these fellowships in residence at Smith College are required to render some assistance, not instruction, and not to exceed six hours a week in the respective departments. They are not to undertake remunerative employment, but are expected to devote most of their time to a specified line of work under the direction of the instructors, and to present a thesis, embodying the results of their studies, at the end of the year. The work so done may be taken to qualify them for an advanced academic degree. A bound type-written or printed copy of the thesis must be placed in the college library by the holder of a fellowship. Applications for these fellowships should be sent with the proper credentials by March fifteenth to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, Professor Sidney N. Deane, 123 Elm Street, Northampton, Mass.

The Smith College Alumnae Association and the Inter-collegiate Community Service Association offer a joint fellowship of $450 to a graduate of Smith College. The fellow is in residence for the nine months of the fellowship year in either the Boston, New York, or Philadelphia College Settlement, taking in connection with practical work at the Settlement, academic work at the Boston School for Social Workers, at Columbia University, or at Bryn Mawr College. Application should be made to Miss Hilda Smith, Chairman of the I. C. S. A. Fellowship Committee, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

A fellowship of $500 is offered by the Alumnae Association of Smith College to a member of the graduating class who is selected by the Faculty Committee on Graduate Students. The holder may study here at Smith or at some other college.

The Smith Students' Aid Society offers annually a fellowship of $500 for training in vocational work other than teaching. This fellowship is open to members of the graduating class and to alumnae of not more than two years' standing. Applicants must give evidence of suitable preparation for such work, and, in general, preference is given to those who otherwise would not be able to obtain this training. Application should be made before February fifteenth to Miss Helen A. Choate, Tyler Annex, Northampton, Mass.

STUDENTS' AID SOCIETY

The Smith Students' Aid Society, organized in 1897, offers, to the extent of its means, loans of varying amounts to students of approved scholarship and character from the three upper classes. These loans are payable within three years after the graduation of the class to which the student belongs, and bear no interest during that time. If for any reason the loan is not returned at the expiration of three years, interest at the rate of four per cent. is charged, due notice of the same being given. Contributions to the work of this Society may be sent to its Treasurer, Mrs. James A. Webb, Jr., Madison, N. J.

APPOINTMENT BUREAU

The College maintains an office which has general supervision over the remunerative work undertaken by undergraduates, and in which Seniors, alumnae, and former students who wish professional positions may be registered.

Steady employment, such as waiting on table for board, may often be found for members of the three upper classes. Students of the Freshman Class can rarely do much outside work without damage to health or scholarship; and it is generally better for a student to delay her entrance to college until she is ready to meet the expenses of the first year. Students wishing any kind of employment are urged to register with the Appointment Bureau, and correspondence on the subject of self-help is invited. The Director is glad to give assistance or advice whenever it is within her power to do so.

The Bureau registers graduates and former students at a charge of one dollar, no further fee being required in any case. Full particulars are kept on file as to the training, equipment, and experience of all those who are on the lists. Information from the records is supplied freely to those desiring to engage teachers, social workers, secretaries, laboratory assistants, etc. Address, Appointment Bureau, Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

LECTURESHIP FUND

The nucleus of an Alumnae Lectureship Fund, established in 1910 by the gift of $1,250 from the class of 1885, was increased in 1915 to $1,567. The income of this fund is used each year to provide a lecture by a distinguished scholar not connected with the College. In 1918-1919 this fund aided in securing on May 17 an address, under the auspices of the Zeta Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society, by Charles H. Grandgent, L. H. D., Professor of Romance Languages in Harvard University.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS

In connection with many of the departments, clubs are organized under the joint management of teachers and students, for advanced or special work supplementing that of the class-room, for securing lecturers from abroad, and for stimulating an interest in the wider aspects of the work of the departments. Membership in these clubs is by election, to which students of approved standing are eligible. No student may belong to more than three clubs, including the departmental clubs, the musical clubs, the literary societies, the Current Events Club, the Debating Union, the Dramatics Association, the Polity Club, and Spectator. The departmental clubs are:

The Biological Society, The Clef Club, Colloquium, Der

Deutsche Verein, El Club Español, La Société Française, The Greek Club, The Mathematical Club, The Oriental Society, The Philosophical Society, The Physics Club, The Sociology Club, The Studio Club, Telescopium, Il Tricolore, The Voice Club.

LECTURES AND CONCERTS

In addition to the regular courses which constitute the curriculum the College provides a large number of open lectures by distinguished speakers from other universities at home and abroad and from the outside world.

The Music Department organizes a series of concerts given approximately monthly. Appearances of the following artists have been arranged for the present academic year: The Boston Symphony Orchestra, The Flonzaley Quartet, Frieda Hempel, Albert Spalding, The Philharmonic Orchestra of New York, Rudolph Ganz, Emilio de Gogorza.

The Department of Art organizes at intervals special loan exhibitions which supplement the collections of the Hillyer Art Gallery.

GENERAL SURROUNDINGS

Northampton is attractively and conveniently situated in the beautiful Connecticut River Valley eighteen miles north of Springfield on the line of the Boston and Maine Railroad. The advantages it offers in its care of public health and safety and in its churches, library, and hospital make it a desirable setting for the College.

COLLEGE HALL, which includes lecture and recitation rooms, contains also the offices of administration and a large hall for general academic purposes.

SEELYE HALL, which was given by friends of President Seelye with the understanding that the building should bear his name, contains department offices, and twenty-three recitation rooms which seat altogether fifteen hundred students.

THE JOHN M. GREENE HALL, given by Mr. John D. Rockefeller and other donors, and named in honor of the senior member of the Board of Trustees, is an auditorium, the seating capacity of which is nearly twenty-three hundred. It contains an exceptionally fine four-manual organ, which was given by the class of 1900 as a memorial to Mrs. Cornelia Gould Murphy, and two accessory two-manual organs.

THE LIBRARY, the gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie and other donors, is centrally located in relation to the academic work, and occupies a building of modern construction and equipment. In addition to department seminar rooms, containing special collections, there are general reading and study rooms of ample size furnished with reference books to meet the needs of the student body. The number of books and pamphlets in the library is 76,324. The open shelf system permits free access to this collection of books to students as well as to officers of the college. For the encouragement of cultural reading a room has been attractively furnished in which to provide for leisure hours the works of standard authors in the best editions. The atmosphere of the room is that of a private library where reading for its own sake may be enjoyed.

LILLY HALL OF SCIENCE, the gift of Mr. Alfred Theodore Lilly, contains the lecture rooms, laboratories, and library of the department of Physics.

BURTON HALL, on the Lower Campus, was opened for use by the Departments of Botany and Zoölogy in September, 1914. It is an ample building of the most modern type of fireproof construction, and is provided with the best equipment for the study of the life sciences.

CHEMISTRY HALL, in part the gift of the class of 1895 and their friends, was built in 1898 and has been enlarged by a considerable addition in 1918. It is very fully equipped with lecture room, library, laboratories, class-rooms, offices for instructors, and the latest appliances for chemical work.

THE OBSERVATORY, given by President L. Clark Seelye and Mr. A. Lyman Williston in honor of their wives, Henrietta Chapin Seelye and Sarah Tappan Williston, is furnished with an equatorial telescope of eleven inches aperture, a four-inch transit instrument with zenith level, a sidereal clock, and two chronographs. An addition built and furnished from the Eliza Appleton Haven Fund, contains a large lecture and laboratory room with flat roof for observing, four portable telescopes, alt-azimuth instruments, simple apparatus for teaching astronomy, and a six-inch equatorial for student use.

MUSIC HALL contains class, teaching and practice rooms, and a recital hall in which is located the music library. The department is equipped with 15 grand and 40 upright pianos, and with player-pianos and victrolas. It has the use of the four-manual organ and the two two-manual organs in John M. Greene Hall, as well as of a large three-manual organ in Assembly Hall.

THE HILLYER ART GALLERY, the gift of Mr. Winthrop Hillyer, is provided with studios and exhibition rooms, and contains extensive collections of casts, engravings, and paintings, illustrating the history and characteristics of ancient and modern art. Graham Hall, a large lecture hall fitted with lantern and screens, has been added to the gallery as the gift of Mrs. Christine Graham Long of St. Louis, of the Class of 1910.

THE ALUMNAE GYMNASIUM, given by members of the Alumnae Association and their friends, contains a large hall arranged for gymnastic exercise and indoor sports, dressing-rooms, and a swimming-tank.

THE STUDENTS' BUILDING, built mainly by the efforts of the students and the alumnae, and designed to be the centre of the social life of the students, contains a large hall for social purposes and rooms for the student organizations and the departmental clubs.

THE LYMAN PLANT HOUSE, the gift of Mr. Edward Hutchinson Robbins Lyman, in memory of his mother, Anne Jean Lyman, comprises nine ample and well-stocked green-houses, devoted to illustration of the vegetation of different climates and the provision of material for laboratory study, together with attached physiological and horticultural laboratories.

THE BOTANIC GARDEN, designed for horticultural study, embraces a large collection of trees and shrubs arranged about the college grounds, and also an herbaceous garden containing sections to illustrate plant classification and habits.

SUNNYSIDE, the gift of Mrs. John Storer Cobb, provides a most attractive and comfortable home for students who need temporarily the rest afforded by quiet surroundings and comparative isolation.

THE ELIZABETH MASON INFIRMARY, the cost of which has been met by a fund raised by the Alumnae Association, was opened in 1919. Its name commemorates Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Howland, a graduate of the Class of 1904 and daughter of Mr. Frank H. Mason of Akron, Ohio, whose gift completed the fund. It is a fire-proof building which affords thirty-eight beds for the use of students and which has been carefully designed to serve the peculiar purposes of a college infirmary.

THE ALLEN RECREATION FIELD, the gift of Mr. Frank Gates Allen, is a ten-acre field not far from the campus where such sports as hockey, tennis, archery, cricket, volley ball, clock golf, and basket-ball may be played. An attractive club-house, maintained by the Athletic Association, is situated on the field.

BEQUESTS

Gifts to the college may take the form of scholarships, of professorships, of additions to the material equipment, or of contributions to the permanent endowment fund. Special conditions may, of course, be attached to any gift.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to The Trustees of Smith College, a Corporation established by law in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of $. to be invested and preserved inviolably for the endowment of Smith College, located at Northampton, Mass.

ORGANIZATION OF THE SCHOOL

The Smith College Training School for Social Work is a graduate professional school offering work that falls into three divisions:—a summer session of eight weeks of theoretical instruction combined with clinical observation; a training period of nine months practical instruction carried on in coöperation with hospitals and settlements; and a concluding summer session of eight weeks of advanced study. The summer sessions of the Training School are held at Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts. The practical instruction in field work over a period of nine months, from September to June, is arranged by placing students with hospitals and settlements in Boston, New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia, where their field work is under continual supervision both locally and centrally by the staff of the Training School, and where group conferences with instruction are provided. The duration of the training course is thus fourteen months, including a month of vacation between successive summer sessions, making thirteen months of intensive study and practical work. The course begins in the first week in July and continues till the last week in August of the following year.

Last year the Training School for Psychiatric Social Work was a war emergency course. The success of this school, together with the perplexities of social reconstruction on a vast scale, suddenly thrust upon us, have been responsible for the development of the present school, with training courses for Psychiatric Social Work, Medical Social Work and Community Service, and with a summer course of specialized character in Child Welfare.

Public attention to mental hygiene, stimulated by general interest in war neuroses and also by recent studies of the factor of mental disorder in criminology, is beginning to create a widespread demand for psychiatric social workers. The rapid extension of the public health movement, with its insistence upon the social aspects of both hygiene and disease, has made the existing supply of medical social workers wholly inadequate to meet the present demand. That the value of agencies for community service and child welfare is well recognized, is indicated by the present demand for "community organizers" and child welfare workers, but there is an acknowledged need of a more adequate training for the workers in these special fields.

The school employs the newer methods of training for social work. First, the psychological approach to social problems is emphasized in all of its courses; second, students are made acquainted with the applications of the scientific method in sciences bearing upon social problems—biology, psychology, sociology, psychiatry, and medicine; third, emphasis is laid on the discussion method of teaching rather than the use of the usual lecture system, in an endeavor to train for fearless and resourceful thinking about social problems; and fourth, the intense group life of the students in college dormitories and in continual association with their instructors permits a high degree of concentration.

The method of continuous practice is believed by the sponsors of the school to afford the best practical training. To become completely assimilated into the organization, the student must give full time to the work. To obtain the richest possible experience, the student should be on duty regularly and without interruption. In our opinion, practice work with social cases and social conditions cannot be carried on satisfactorily with intensive instruction, since it is not possible to regulate human problems, so that experience will run parallel with theoretical instruction. There is great value for drill and discipline as well as depth of experience in the uninterrupted practice and in the continuity of theoretical study which the present plan provides.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

The training courses in Psychiatric Social Work, in Medical Social Work, and in Community Service are open to graduates of colleges of approved standing and to a few exceptional persons of equivalent preparation. The tuition fee for these courses is $100.00, payable in two installments of $50.00 each, at the beginning of the first and second summer session. Admission to the summer sessions of the Training Courses is contingent upon agreement to complete the practical work. Credit will be given for previous practical work of approved character.

Social workers of approved experience and teachers of approved standing are admitted to the summer course in Child Welfare and to combinations of the other courses. The tuition fee for the summer course is $50.00.

Inquiries and applications for admission should be addressed to the Director, Smith College Training School for Social Work, Northampton, Massachusetts.

REGISTRATION

Registration of all students will take place from 10 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. on Monday, July 5th, 1920 in Room 7a, College Hall, Smith College. As registration will be followed immediately by an assembly of all the school, students should plan to complete their registration before five o'clock.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS AND EXPENSES

During summer sessions all students will be lodged in Smith College dormitories. The charge for room and board is $75.00 for the eight weeks. During the practice period students are expected to maintain themselves. Students interested in the course in psychiatric social work will live together in one dormitory. The same plan will be followed with reference to the other groups. The resident teaching staff and visiting lecturers will, as a rule, also be lodged in the same dormitories so that students and teachers may become well acquainted by close association outside of class room as well as during class exercises.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A few scholarships providing tuition and living expenses at summer sessions of the Training School are offered to meritorious students who would otherwise be unable to meet the expense of graduate training. Application should be made to the Director before May 1st. The candidate should (1) state specifically reasons for making application, (2) give two references to persons who are not relatives, who may be consulted on this matter.

Some internships in hospitals for students in the practice course in psychiatric social work are available on application to the Associate Director.

11—PSYCHOLOGY. The method and field of psychology. The principles of human behavior with particular attention to the instinctive, emotional, and associational motivation of conduct.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR TOWNSEND, 6 hours a week.

12—MENTAL TESTS. A survey of the standardized mental tests with especial emphasis placed upon the handling and interpretation of results.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR CLARK, 1 hour a week.

13—CHILD PSYCHOLOGY. A study of the original nature of man and of the successive steps in mental development throughout childhood and adolescence, with the interests and behavior characteristic of each.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR CLARK, 6 hours a week.

- 14—SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY. This course deals with those traits of human nature having a marked social significance, and the ways in which they function in community life. The aim is to give prospective social workers a more expert knowledge of the human material with which they are to deal.

• ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ELDRIDGE, 6 hours a week.

- 21—SOCIAL ORGANIZATION. The biological, psychological, and industrial backgrounds of the modern community are reviewed. Present day problems of social control and scientific investigation by the social survey and statistical methods are studied.

PROFESSOR CHAPIN, 6 hours a week.

- 22—THEORY OF SOCIAL CASE WORK. The fundamental principles of social work with individuals. Technique of investigation; procedure in analyzing data, determining and carrying out treatment.

MISS JARRETT, 6 hours a week.

- 23—THE ORGANIZATION OF SOCIAL WORK. Relation of social work to the socialist and other radical movements; types of social work found in modern industrial communities; the organization and financing of social service agencies; methods of propaganda and the promotion of social legislation; relation of social work to local, state and national governments. The aim of the course is to assist specializing workers to relate their activities to the whole field of social work, and to familiarise them with the principles and methods guiding the profession at large.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR ELDRIDGE, 6 hours a week.

- 31—GOVERNMENT AS A FACTOR IN SOCIAL WORK. A study of the structure, organization and operation of state and local government with particular reference to governmental agencies with which the social worker may come in contact and the powers and limitations of the government in dealing with social problems.

PROFESSOR KIMBALL, 4½ hours a week.

- 32—PROBLEMS IN GOVERNMENT CONNECTED WITH SOCIAL WORK:
 (1) an intensive study of governmental agencies for social work;
 (2) an intensive study of governmental supervision of social work and social workers; (3) a study of certain types of legislation dealing with social work. This course follows 31 and is based on individual study of special problems supplemented by conferences and lectures.

PROFESSOR KIMBALL, 6 hours a week.

- 311—SOCIAL PSYCHIATRY. The principles of mental hygiene—the main groups and simpler indicators of mental disease and defects. General view of the governmental, social, family and personal significance of psychopathic conditions. Clinical observation at Northampton State Hospital.

DR. SPAULDING, DR. HOUSTON, and visiting psychiatrists and lecturers, 9 hours a week.

- 312—SOCIAL PSYCHIATRY. General principles of mental hygiene, social psychiatry, and applied psychology.

DR. SPAULDING, 3 hours a week.

- 321—SOCIAL MEDICINE. Essentials of anatomy and physiology, the etiology of disease and methods of transmission, with emphasis on the social causes of disease, descriptive summaries of the various disease groups with their social significance. Clinical observation at the Northampton State Hospital, the Cooley Dickinson Hospital and the Children's Home.

DR. BRANNICK and visiting physicians and lecturers, 9 hours a week.

- 322—SOCIAL MEDICINE. Elementary course.

DR. BRANNICK, 3 hours a week.

- 323—PUBLIC HEALTH. A study of family, school and industrial health. Lectures by specialists on the various activities included in the general term of public health as conducted by federal, state, municipal, or private organizations, and covering such subjects as Community Hygiene and Health Administration, Health Education, Vital Statistics, Public Health Nursing, Child Welfare, Examination of School Children, Community Health Centers, Mental Hygiene, Industrial Health, Hospitals and Hospital Social Service Departments.

DR. BRANNICK and lecturers, 6 hours a week.

- 331—COMMUNITY SERVICE. Analysis of local community life in terms of environment, traditions, population, industry, politics, medical service, recreation, religion and indigenous associations. A study of methods of building up family standards of association, home-making, child nurture and education; of methods of creating self-consciousness and pride of community; and a consideration of programmes of recreation with practice in supervised play.

MISS DAVIES, 9 hours a week.

- 332—COMMUNITY HEALTH.

MISS DAVIES, 6 hours a week.

333—COMMUNITY ANALYSIS.

MISS DAVIES, 4 hours a week.

The following subjects are treated: medical and social aspects of infant conservation; welfare responsibilities of the school; child labor; mental hygiene; diagnosis and treatment of delinquency; foster care of neglected, dependent and defective children; protective work for children; and community plan in children's work.

MISS GAUTHIER and visiting physicians and lecturers, 9 hours a week.

ORGANIZATION OF PRACTICE WORK

Students in psychiatric social work are placed for nine months' practice in social work with psychiatric cases in hospitals and social agencies in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. The students are under the supervision of Miss Jarrett, the Associate Director, and meet for instruction in weekly conferences with a group leader in each of the cities mentioned. In the particular institutions in which they are placed they are under the immediate supervision of a local supervisor.

Students in medical social work are placed for nine months' practice in social case work with out-patient departments of general hospitals in Boston and Philadelphia. They are under the supervision of Miss M. Antoinette Cannon, Supervisor in Charge of the Course in Medical Social Work, and meet for instruction in weekly conferences with a group leader in each of the cities mentioned. A local supervisor directs their work in the social service department of the hospital in which they are placed.

Students in community service are placed for nine months' practice in settlements and neighborhood centers in Boston, New York and Philadelphia. They are under the supervision of Miss Grace T. Wills, Supervisor in Charge of the Community Service course, and meet for instruction in weekly conferences with a group leader in each of the cities mentioned. Local supervisors direct their work in each settlement or neighborhood center.

Upon recommendation of the supervisors, students may be advised to take specified courses offered by local schools for social work. Required reading is assigned for the practice period by instructors of the summer session.

To continue over into the period of practice the associations and professional atmosphere of the period of theoretical study at Northampton, and also to provide wider contacts in social work for students in the case work courses, a plan of residential group living during the winter is recommended for those students who can avail themselves of it. During the present winter four of the students in training for psychiatric social work are living on a coöperative housekeeping plan in the South End of Boston. Four of the students in training for medical social work have made a similar living arrangement in Philadelphia.

GRADUATION

Students who satisfactorily complete the fourteen month training courses will receive the diploma of the Training School.

Social workers and teachers who satisfactorily complete a summer session will receive a certificate of attendance.

SMITH COLLEGE

Smith College was founded by Miss Sophia Smith of Hatfield, Massachusetts, who bequeathed for its establishment and maintenance $393,105.60, a sum which in 1875, when the last large payment was received and the institution was opened, amounted to nearly if not quite a half million of dollars. She also appointed the first trustees of the College, selected Northampton as its seat, and stated as its object, "the establishment and maintenance of an institution for the higher education of young women, with the design to furnish them means and facilities for education equal to those which are afforded in our colleges for young men." *

The College was incorporated and chartered by the State in March, 1871, and thereby empowered "To grant such honorary testimonials, and confer such honors, degrees, and diplomas as are granted or conferred by any university, college, or seminary in the United States." It opened in September, 1875, with fourteen students, and granted its first degrees in June, 1879.

The College is Christian, seeking to realize the ideals of character inspired by the Christian religion. It is, however, entirely unsectarian in its management and instruction. As there is no college church, the students are expected to attend the churches in the city. They are expected also to be present at the daily religious exercises of the College. A voluntary vesper service is held on Sunday afternoons in the John M. Greene Hall. The religious life of the College is further expressed in the Smith College Association for Christian Work, membership in which is open to students and faculty, whatever their religious affiliations. In this organization are united the various religious and philanthropic activities of the College.

* The Rev. John M. Greene, D. D., first suggested to Miss Sophia Smith the idea of this college and was her confidential adviser in her bequest. The foundation for a Chair of Greek was established in his honor.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Application for membership in the Freshman Class should be made as early as possible, in order to insure the prompt completion of all preliminary arrangements.

2. Each applicant for admission to College must fill out a registration form which will be furnished upon request and return it to the Secretary of the Board of Admission together with a registration fee of ten dollars; this registration fee is not refunded in case of withdrawal. The College reserves the right at any time to cancel the registration of a student who in the judgment of the administrative officers lacks the maturity of character or the physical strength demanded by college life.

3. Every candidate for admission will be required to present satisfactory testimonials as to moral character and fitness to do college work, including an official transcript of her school record. Blank forms will be sent by the Secretary of the Board of Admission at the proper time. Admission to College is possible in one of two ways, by the Old Plan or by the New Plan, as described in the following pages.

Candidates for admission must secure the permission of the Board of Admission before examinations under the New Plan may be taken. They should furnish their school records to date and state the subjects offered for examination between the beginning of the last year of preparation and January 15 of the year in which the examinations are to be taken. The record of the remainder of the school course should be sent to the Secretary of the Board of Admission by July 1 of the year of entrance.

School records and letters of recommendation for candidates wishing to enter under the Old Plan should be in the hands of the Secretary of the Board of Admission by July 1.

In exceptional cases, application for admission may, however, be made at any time prior to the September examinations.

4. Candidates entering College by the Old Plan must take the final examination in any subject within two years of the time of entering College. The examination in History and Science and preliminary examinations in the elementary parts of a subject may be taken earlier.

5. Candidates offering Botany, Zoölogy, Biology, Astronomy or Geography for entrance should send the required note-books and laboratory records, certified by the instructor, to the Secretary of the Board of Admission before June 15. Candidates offering Chemistry or Physics are not required to send in their note books, but should submit a certificate covering the entire course and signed by the instructor. The forms for the laboratory note-books and the certificate forms will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

6. Candidates for the examinations held at Smith College in September must fill out application forms which may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of Admission. These forms should be returned before September 15 accompanied by a fee of six dollars.

Before taking examinations in September candidates for admission must register at one of the times specified on pages 24 and 25. Those whose entrance credits are complete should present themselves for registration on Monday, September 26.

7. Mount Holyoke College, Vassar College, Wellesley College, and Smith College will jointly conduct examinations in Chicago, September 19-22, 1921. These examinations are not open to students who wish to repeat preliminary examinations in which they have failed in June. Information regarding these examinations and application forms may be obtained from the Secretary of the Board of Admission. Application for the examinations accompanied by a fee of six dollars must be filed before September 1.

8. A prize of two hundred dollars will be given to the student who, entering by the Old Plan, passes the best examination in all the subjects required for admission. Competitors for this prize must complete these examinations in one or two examination periods.

A similar prize of two hundred dollars will be awarded to the student who passes the best examinations under the New Plan.

METHODS OF ADMISSION

Upon the satisfactory fulfillment of requirements students will be admitted to Smith College by the following methods:

(A) By the Old Plan, i. e., by examinations in all subjects presented for admission. These examinations are conducted by

1. Smith College
2. The College Entrance Examination Board
3. The Board of Regents of the State of New York

(B) By the New Plan of Admission as explained on pages 26 and 27.

A. OLD PLAN OF ADMISSION

1. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY SMITH COLLEGE

Examinations for admission will be held at the College in September. Candidates desiring to be examined in June must take the examinations conducted under the supervision of the College Entrance Examination Board. A candidate may, at her option, take all her examinations in June or in September, or she may take part in June and part in September.

Order of Entrance Examinations at Smith College for September, 1921

 2.00 P. M.— 5.00 P. M. Biology, Botany, Italian

2. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD

In 1921, the entrance examinations of the College Entrance Examination Board will be held June 20-25.

Examinations of 1921

In June, 1921, there will be separate blank forms for the "application for examination" and "certificate of recommendation". The former should be addressed to the College Entrance Examination Board, 431 West 117 Street, New York, N. Y.; the latter to the Secretary of the Board of Admission of Smith College. Both forms may be obtained from the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board upon request by mail.

If the application is received sufficiently early by the College Entrance Examination Board the examination fee will be $6.00 for candidates examined in the United States and Canada and $20.00 for candidates examined outside of the United States and Canada. The fee, which must accompany the application, should be remitted by postal order, express order, or draft on New York to the order of the College Entrance Examination Board.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined outside of the United States or Canada must reach the Secretary of the Board on or before May 9, 1921.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points west of the Mississippi River, or in Canada, must be received on or before May 23, 1921.

The applications and fees of candidates who wish to be examined in the United States at points east of the Mississippi River, or on the Mississippi River, must be received on or before May 30, 1921.

When the candidate has failed to obtain the required blank form of application for examination, the usual examination fee will be accepted if the fee arrive not later than the specified date, accompanied by a memorandum containing the name and address of the candidate, the examination center at which she wishes to present herself, and a list of all subjects in which she may have occasion to take the Board's examinations.

Applications received later than the dates named will be accepted only upon payment of $6.00 in addition to the usual fee.

A list of the places at which the examinations are to be held by the Board in June, 1921, will be published about March 1. Requests that the examinations be held at particular points, to receive proper consideration, should be transmitted to the Secretary of the College Entrance Examination Board not later than February 1.

3. ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS CONDUCTED BY THE REGENTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Candidates may present credentials of the Regents of the State of New York. These will be accepted as far as they cover the requirements for admission to Smith College, if the grade is sufficiently high to meet the requirements of the Board of Admission.

STUDENTS ENTERING FROM CANADIAN SCHOOLS

Students prepared at Canadian schools who have passed the examinations for Senior Matriculation at McGill University or the University of Toronto will be admitted to the Freshman Class of Smith College.

B. NEW PLAN OF ADMISSION

The new method depends on two kinds of evidence:

1. Evidence submitted by the school, consisting of
 - (a) A school report covering the entire record of subjects and grades for four years.
 - (b) A statement from the school principal including an estimate of the applicant's scholarly interest, special ability, and character.
2. Evidence submitted by the candidate, consisting of Four comprehensive examinations, selected from each of the following groups:
 - (1) English or History, selected by the applicant.
 - (2) A foreign language, selected by the applicant.
 - (3) Mathematics, or Chemistry, or Physics, selected by the applicant.

- (4) A fourth subject, designated by the applicant from the subjects which may be offered for admission. This choice must be approved by the Board of Admission of Smith College.

These four examinations must be taken at one time.

At least two examinations must cover more than two admission units* each.

The candidates for admission must take the comprehensive examination in each subject chosen which covers all the units offered for entrance.

Under the New Plan the candidate, if admitted to College, will be admitted free from all conditions. Failure to meet completely the standard in both kinds of evidence required will not necessarily involve rejection of the applicant; the Board of Admission may accept unusual excellence in one part of the credentials submitted as offsetting unsatisfactory evidence or even failure in another part. If the candidate fails of admission in June, she will not be debarred from taking examinations under the old system in September, and she may be credited under the Old Plan with any subject in which her June examination has been satisfactory; but she may not take the comprehensive examinations for admission under the New Plan before June of the following year.

It is believed that this new type of admission combines the best elements of the former certificate system and of the examination system in that it requires the school record and estimate of character, and also demands examinations designed to test the candidate's intellectual power, not alone her memory of prescribed facts. Furthermore, the method offers the applicant the fullest opportunity to show her ability in subjects in which she believes herself best qualified.

This plan substitutes a uniform method of administration in place of the various certificate forms previously used and gives the school entire freedom in the sequence of its work making no requirement of certain subjects in the last years.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission to Smith College must have completed the requirements for admission as described below. These requirements are stated in terms of units. The unit is that formulated by the National Conference Committee on Standards of Colleges and Secondary Schools, as follows: A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. Under ordinary circumstances a satisfactory year's work in any subject cannot be accomplished in less than one hundred and twenty sixty-minute hours or their equivalent; hence, a unit would commonly mean the equivalent of five recitations a week for one year in one branch of study.

* NOTE—A unit commonly means the equivalent of five recitations a week for one year in one branch of study.

Fifteen units are required for admission, of which ten or eleven units are absolutely required, while five or four units may be chosen from the list of elective subjects.

Good students who are candidates under the New Plan may be allowed a choice of the elective units from subjects not listed in Group B with the consent of the Board of Admission, provided the courses offered are of non-technical character.

With the consent of the Board of Admission the privilege of some substitution within the regularly prescribed course of study may be extended to candidates under the New Plan whose preparation is made under exceptional conditions so that the ordinary requirements cannot be met.

SPECIFICATIONS OF THE REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

The specifications of Requirements in the various subjects are, in general, identical with or equivalent to those of the College Entrance Examination Board. The list of equivalents is stated below:

† If the Latin requirement is fulfilled by taking preliminary and final examinations, 1 must be included, presumably in the preliminary examination, otherwise in the final.

ENGLISH

REQUIREMENT

The study of English in school has two main objects, which should be considered of equal importance: (1) command of correct and clear English, spoken and written; (2) ability to read with accuracy, intelligence, and appreciation, and the development of the habit of reading good literature with enjoyment.

GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION

The first object requires instruction in grammar and composition. English grammar should ordinarily be reviewed in the secondary school; and correct spelling and grammatical accuracy should be rigorously exacted in connection with all written work. The principles of English composition governing punctuation, the use of words, sentences, and paragraphs should be thoroughly mastered; and practice in composition, oral as well as written, should extend through the secondary school period. Written exercises may well comprise letter-writing, narration, description, and easy exposition and argument. It is advisable that subjects for this work be taken from the student's personal experience, general knowledge, and studies other than English, as well as from her reading in literature. Finally, special instruction in language and composition should be accompanied by concerted effort of teachers in all branches to cultivate in the student the habit of using good English in her recitations and various other exercises, whether oral or written.

LITERATURE

The second object is sought by means of the reading and study of a number of books from which may be framed a progressive course in literature. The student should be trained in reading aloud and be encouraged to commit to memory notable passages both in verse and in prose. As an aid to literary appreciation, she is further advised to acquaint herself with the most important facts in the lives of the authors whose works she reads and with their place in literary history. She should read the books carefully, but her attention should not be so fixed upon details that she fails to appreciate the main purpose and charm of what she reads.

A few of these books should be read with special care, greater stress being laid upon form and style, the exact meaning of words and phrases, and the understanding of allusions.

EXAMINATION

Candidates will have the option of taking either of two examinations: (1) a "Comprehensive" examination; (2) a "Restricted" examination, based in part on a prescribed list of books.

Each examination will be divided into two parts, one of which will be on grammar and composition, and the other on literature.

However accurate in subject-matter, no paper will be considered satisfactory if seriously defective in punctuation, spelling, or other essentials of good usage.

GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION

Comprehensive and Restricted Examinations

In grammar and composition, the candidate may be asked specific questions upon the practical essentials of these studies, such as the relation of the various parts of a sentence to one another, and those good usages of modern English which one should know in distinction from current errors. The main test in composition will consist of one or more essays developing a theme through several paragraphs; the subjects will be drawn from the books read, from the candidate's other studies, and from her personal knowledge and experience quite apart from reading. For this purpose the examiner will provide several subjects, perhaps eight or ten, from which the candidate may make her own selections. She will not be expected to write more than four hundred words an hour.

LITERATURE

Comprehensive Examination

The purpose of this examination will be to enable the candidate to show that she has read, understood, and appreciated a sufficient amount of English literature. The paper will include some questions that can not be answered except by candidates who are able to apply what they have learned to passages of literature which they have not read before. Suggestions for books to be read in preparation for this examination will be found in the list of recommended reading appended to this report.

Restricted Examination

This examination will include:

A. Questions designed to test such knowledge and appreciation of literature as may be gained by an intelligent reading of the books given in list A below.

B. A test on the books in list B below. This will consist of questions upon their content, form, and structure, and upon the meaning of such words, phrases, and allusions as may be necessary to an understanding of the works and an appreciation of their salient qualities of style. General questions may also be asked concerning the lives of the authors, their other works, and the periods of literary history to which they belong.

When parts A and B of the restricted examination are taken at different times, each will include a test in grammar and composition.

RESTRICTED LIST: 1921-1922

A. Books for Reading

The books provided for reading are arranged in the following groups, from each of which at least two selections are to be made, except that for any book in Group I a book from any other group may be substituted.

Group I. Classics in Translation. The Old Testament, including at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther.

The Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I-V, XV, and XVI.

The Aeneid.

The Odyssey and the Aeneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

Group II. Drama. Shakespeare: The Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Julius Cæsar.

Group III. Prose Fiction. Dickens: A Tale of Two Cities; George Eliot: Silas Marner; Scott: Quentin Durward; Hawthorne: The House of the Seven Gables.

Group IV. Essays, Biography, etc. Addison and Steele: The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers; Irving: The Sketch Book—selections covering about 175 pages; Macaulay: Lord Clive; Parkman: The Oregon Trail.

Group V. Poetry. Tennyson: The Coming of Arthur, Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, The Passing of Arthur; Browning: Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, The Pied Piper, "De Gustibus," Instans Tyrannus; Scott: The Lady of the Lake; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner; and Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum.

B. Books for Study

The books provided for study are arranged in four groups, from each of which one selection is to be made.

Group I. Drama. Shakespeare: Macbeth, Hamlet.

Group II. Poetry. Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus; Book IV of Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series) with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley.

Group III. Oratory. Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; Washington: Farewell Address; Webster: First Bunker Hill Oration; and Lincoln: Gettysburg Address.

Group IV. Essays. Macaulay: Life of Johnson; Carlyle: Essay on Burns, with a brief selection from Burns's Poems.

COMPREHENSIVE LIST

The following list is not intended to be in any sense prescriptive. Its purpose is rather to indicate, by examples, the kind of literature that secondary pupils should be taught to appreciate. Books of equal merit, covering a similar range of literary types, will be accepted as equivalents.

A fairly exhaustive list of books suitable for use in secondary schools will be included in the Report of the National Joint Committee on the Reorganization of High School English, to be published soon by the United States Commissioner of Education.

Group I. Classics in Translation. The Old Testament, including at least the chief narrative episodes in Genesis, Exodus, Joshua, Judges, Samuel, Kings, and Daniel, together with the books of Ruth and Esther.

The Odyssey, with the omission, if desired, of Books I-V, XV, XVI, XVII.

The Iliad, with the omission, if desired, of Books XI, XIII, XIV, XV, XVII, XXI.

The Aeneid.

The Odyssey, Iliad, and Aeneid should be read in English translations of recognized literary excellence.

Group II. Drama. Everyman; Shakespeare: Midsummer-Night's Dream, Merchant of Venice, As You Like It, Twelfth Night, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, King John, Richard II, Richard III, Henry V, Coriolanus, Julius Caesar, Macbeth, Hamlet; Goldsmith: She Stoops to Conquer; Sheridan: The Rivals.

Group III. Prose Fiction. Malory: Morte d'Arthur; Bunyan: Pilgrim's Progress, Part I; Swift: Gulliver's Travels (Voyages to Lilliput and to Brobdingnag); Defoe: Robinson Crusoe, Part I; Goldsmith: Vicar of Wakefield; Frances Burney: Evelina; Scott: Novels; Jane Austen: Novels; Maria Edgeworth: Castle Rackrent, The Absentee; Dickens: Novels; Thackeray: Novels; George Eliot: Novels; Mrs. Gaskell: Cranford; Kingsley: Westward Ho!, Hereward the Wake; Reade: The Cloister and the Hearth, Griffith Gaunt; Lytton: Last Days of Pompeii; Blackmore: Lorna Doone; Hughes: Tom Brown's School-days; Stevenson: Treasure Island, Kidnapped, Master of Ballantrae, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde; Kipling: Kim, Captains Courageous, Jungle Books; Cooper: Novels; Poe: Selected Tales; Hawthorne: The House of the Seven Gables, Twice Told Tales, Mosses from an Old Manse; Howells: The Rise of Silas Lapham, A Boy's Town; Wister: The Virginian; Cable: Old Creole Days; Short stories by various standard writers, as Bret Harte, Aldrich, Page, Hale, and Barrie.

Group IV. Essays, Biography, Oratory, etc. Addison and Steele: The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers, Selections from the Tatler and Spectator; Boswell: Selections from the Life of Johnson; Franklin: Autobiography; Washington: Farewell Address; Burke: Speech on Conciliation with America; Irving: Life of Goldsmith; Southey: Life of Nelson; Lamb: Essays of Elia; Lockhart: Life of Scott; Thackeray: Lectures on Swift, Addison, and Steele in the English Humorists; Macaulay: Lord Clive, Warren Hastings, Milton, Addison, Goldsmith, Frederic the Great, Madame d'Arblay, Life of Johnson, Two Speeches on Copyright, History of England, Chapter III; Trevelyan: Selections from the Life of Macaulay; Carlyle: Essay on Burns; Ruskin: Sesame and Lilies, Selections; Dana: Two Years before the Mast; Webster: First Bunker Hill Oration; Lincoln: Selections, including at least the Speech at Cooper Union, the two Inaugurals, the Speeches in Independence Hall and at Gettysburg, the Last Public Address, the Letter to Horace Greeley, together with a brief memoir or estimate of Lincoln; Parkman: The Oregon Trail; Emerson: Manners, Self-Reliance; Thoreau: Walden; Lowell: Selected Essays; Holmes: The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table; Burroughs: Selected Essays; Warner: In the Wilderness; Curtis: Prue and I, Public Duty of Educated Men; Stevenson: An Inland Voyage and Travels with a Donkey; Huxley: Autobiography and selections from Lay Sermons, including the addresses on Improving Natural Knowledge, A Liberal Education, and A Piece of Chalk; Hudson: Idle Days in Patagonia; Clemens: Life on the Mississippi; Riis: The Making of an American; Bryce: The Hindrances to Good Citizenship; A collection of Essays by Bacon, Lamb, DeQuincey, Hazlitt, Emerson, and later writers; A collection of Letters by various standard writers.

Group V. Poetry. Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series): Books II and III, with special attention to Dryden, Collins, Gray, Cowper, and Burns; Palgrave's Golden Treasury (First Series), Book IV, with special attention to Wordsworth, Keats, and Shelley; Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus, Lycidas; Pope: The Rape of the Lock; Goldsmith: The Traveler and The Deserted Village; A collection of English and Scottish Ballads, as, for example, some Robin Hood ballads, The Battle of Otterburn, King Estmere, Young Beichan, Bewick and Grahame, Sir Patrick Spens, and a selection from later ballads; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner, Christabel, and Kubla Khan; Byron: Childe Harold, Canto III or IV, and The Prisoner of Chillon; Scott: The Lady of the Lake, Marmion; Macaulay: The Lays of Ancient Rome,

The Battle of Naseby, The Armada, Ivry; Tennyson: The Princess, The Coming of Arthur, The Holy Grail, Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, and The Passing of Arthur; Browning: Cavalier Tunes, The Lost Leader, How They Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix, Home Thoughts from Abroad, Home Thoughts from the Sea, Incident of the French Camp, Hervé Riel, Pheidippides, My Last Duchess, Up at a Villa—Down in the City, The Italian in England, The Patriot, The Pied Piper, "De Gustibus," Instans Tyrannus; Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum, The Forsaken Merman, Balder Dæd; Selections from American Poetry, with special attention to Bryant, Poe, Lowell, Longfellow, Whittier, and Holmes.

MATHEMATICS

Algebra: Factors, common divisors and multiples, fractions, ratio and proportion, inequalities, powers and roots, exponents, equations of the first and second degrees with one or more unknown quantities, radicals and equations involving radicals, arithmetical and geometrical progressions, binomial theorem for positive integral exponents.

It is assumed that pupils will be required throughout the course to solve numerous problems which involve putting questions into equations. Some of these problems should be chosen from mensuration, from physics, and from commercial life. The use of graphical methods and illustrations, particularly in connection with the solution of equations, is also expected.

Plane Geometry: The usual theorems and constructions of good textbooks, including the general properties of plane rectilinear figures, the circle and the measurement of angles, similar polygons, areas, regular polygons, and the measurement of the circle; the solution of numerous original exercises, including loci problems; applications to the mensuration of lines and plane surfaces.

There will be no formal examination in Arithmetic, but familiarity with its processes is presupposed.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

HISTORY

For admission to Smith College, each candidate must present one of the following units:

(a) Ancient History, with special reference to Greek and Roman History, and including also a short introductory study of the more ancient nations and the chief events of the early Middle Ages, down to the death of Charlemagne.

(b) Mediaeval and Modern European History, from the death of Charlemagne to the present time.

(c) English History.

(d) American History and Civil Government.

(e) Modern European History.

The examiners will assume that for each unit the candidate has had five exercises a week for one year. She should have used a text-book of not less than 500 pages and have done an equal amount of parallel reading. Geographical knowledge will be tested by means of outline maps.

NOTE—The department of History strongly recommends that every candidate offer Ancient History as a part of her preparation.

Candidates may also present for admission one or two units additional from the list of courses designated above as a, b, c, d, and e.

GREEK

I. Two unit requirement:

Grammar. Four books of Xenophon's Anabasis.

II. Three unit requirement:

In addition to the two unit requirement, three books of Homer's Iliad.

Satisfactory equivalents will be accepted. Practice in reading at sight and in writing Greek, with systematic study of grammar should be pursued throughout the course for either the two or three unit requirement.

Specifications of the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

LATIN

Four unit requirement:

Candidates should be familiar with the forms and syntax of the language and possess a vocabulary sufficient to translate Latin into idiomatic English and English into correct Latin. They should also be able to translate at sight Latin prose and poetry of moderate difficulty and to read Latin prose and verse according to the Roman method of pronunciation with strict attention to vowel quantities. To attain such proficiency not less than five forty-minute periods a week for four years should be given to the study of Latin. The amount of prepared reading should not be less than four books of Caesar's Gallie War, six Orations of Cicero (counting the Manilian Law as two) and five books of Vergil's Aeneid. This reading may be selected from other works by the authors named above or from other suitable authors, but it must include the pro Archia and two other orations of Cicero and two books of the Aeneid.

It is of special importance that practice in writing easy Latin at sight should be continued throughout the entire period of preparation in connection with the reading of the Latin authors. In the last year special attention should be given to translating continuous English into Latin in both the prepared and the sight work.

Those who enter by the old system of examination may take

1. Papers 4, 5, and 6 of the College Entrance Examination Board, unless the preliminary and final examinations are taken separately. Cf. p. 30 footnote. The scope of the examinations will include:

Translation at Sight of prose and verse.

Prescribed Reading. Candidates will be examined upon the following prescribed reading with questions on subject-matter, literary and historical allusions, and prosody.

In 1920, 1921, and 1922. Cicero, the third oration against Catiline and the orations for Archias and Marcellus; Vergil, Aeneid, II, III, and VI.

In 1923, 1924, and 1925. Cicero, the fourth oration against Catiline and the oration for the Manilian Law; Vergil, Aeneid, I and IV; Ovid, Metamorphoses, Book III, 1-137 (Cadmus); IV, 55-166 (Pyramus and Thisbe), and 663-764 (Perseus and Andromeda); VI, 165-312 (Niobe); VIII, 183-235 (Daedalus and Icarus); X, 1-77 (Orpheus and Eurydice); XI, 85-145 (Midas).

Grammar and Composition.

or 2. The Comprehensive Examination of the College Entrance Examination Board. In September this examination will be substituted for the examinations formerly set by Smith College.

FRENCH

I. Two unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. A knowledge of the fundamental principles of grammar is required. Special attention should be given to the inflection of nouns and adjectives, the use of all pronouns, the conjugation of regular and irregular verbs. Candidates will be expected to have acquired the essentials of French syntax, and common idiomatic phrases. The candidate's knowledge of grammar, as well as her ability to use grammatical forms and structure, will be tested by direct questions and by the translation into French of simple connected English sentences.

(b) Composition. Ability to write in French a paragraph dictated from some of the books read, to translate at sight a passage of easy English prose into French, and to answer in French questions asked by the teacher.

For composition, François' Introductory French Composition (American Book Company) is recommended.

(c) Translation. Ability to translate at sight standard modern French, to be acquired by reading not less than 300 duodecimo pages of prose, which may be chosen from any of the following books: Maupassant, Selections (Ginn); Mérimée, Colomba (Ginn); Sandeau, Mlle. de la Seiglière, the play (Holt or Heath); Loti, Pêcheur d'Islande (Heath). It is strongly recommended that some work like Lavisse, Histoire de France, Cours moyen (Paris), or perhaps Super's Readings from French History (Allyn and Bacon) be read and studied for its subject-matter, as well as for the practice it affords in translation. It is important that the passages set be rendered into clear and idiomatic English.

(d) If the student wishes to continue the study of French in college, she will need additional drill in understanding the spoken language and in using it to reply to questions asked on the subject-matter read.

II. Three unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. In addition to the points mentioned in the two unit requirement in grammar, the student will be expected to have acquired a more complete knowledge of syntax, as well as correctness in the wider application of rules and a freer use of idiomatic expressions.

(b) Composition. Ability to translate into French at sight a paragraph of ordinary English, to write in French a résumé of any of the books read, to follow a recitation conducted in French, and to answer in that language questions asked by the instructor.

(c) Translation. It is believed that the necessary proficiency in translation at sight can be acquired by reading, in addition to the two unit requirement, not less than 300 duodecimo pages of prose and poetry which may be chosen from such works as the following: Scribe et Legouvé, Bataille de Dames (Heath); Balzac, Eugénie Grandet (Holt); Bowen, French Lyrics; V. Hugo, La Chute (Heath); Taine, L'ancien régime (Heath). It is strongly recommended that the latter be carefully studied with reference to its subject-matter and also as a basis for abstracts by the students. Passages set for translation must be rendered into clear and idiomatic English.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission.

NOTE: Proficiency in composition can be obtained by the thorough study of any standard grammar, by oral and written exercises, by memorizing, by conversation, by dictation, and by composition, if carefully corrected. Books suggested are Bouvet's Exercises and Syntax, François' French Composition, or Grandgent's French Composition, Parts I, II, III, or Blouet's French Composition, Part I, and half of Part II. François' Advanced French Composition is not recommended for the entrance requirement. It is recommended that, from the outset, attention be given to correct pronunciation, and that during the whole course of preparation the pupil be accustomed to hear and understand the spoken language. The reading of the French classics of the seventeenth century is not advised as a substitute for the works mentioned in the requirement, since the average pupil of the secondary school is not sufficiently mature for that grade of work. In no case should it be attempted before the fourth year of the high school course.

GERMAN

I. Two unit requirement:

(a) The essentials of German grammar. This includes the declension of articles, nouns, adjectives, and pronouns, the conjugation of the weak and the more usual strong verbs, both simple and compound, the use of the common prepositions; also the elements of syntax, especially the rules governing word order, the main uses of articles, of the common adverbs and conjunctions, the more common uses of modal auxiliaries, and of the subjunctive and infinitive moods.

(b) Ability to translate at sight simple English prose into correct German. Such ability may be acquired by the oral or written reproduction of the contents of selected passages, by the retranslation into German of easy English paraphrases of the text read, and by direct translation of easy English prose into German.

(c) Ability to translate at sight fairly easy German texts into good English. This ability may be gained by reading about 100 pages of such prose and verse as may be found in any good reader or collection of easy stories, or in simple tales from Volkmann, Baumbach, Heyse, Gerstäcker, Seidel, Storm, and in easy plays. This should be followed by the reading of about 200 pages of modern prose of a somewhat greater degree of difficulty, selected from texts like the following: Stöckl, Unter dem Christbaum; Hillern, Höher als die Kirche; Riehl, Burg Neideck, Der stumme Ratsherr; Eichendorff, Aus dem Leben eines Taugenichts; Freytag, Die Journalisten.

II. Three unit requirement:

(a) In addition to the two unit requirement, more thorough familiarity with the less usual strong verbs, with the use of articles, cases, auxiliaries of all kinds, tenses, and moods, especially subjunctive, infinitive, and participle constructions, with the uses and meanings of the principal prefixes and suffixes.

(b) Ability to translate at sight ordinary English into correct German. Such proficiency may be gained by continuing the work specified in the two unit requirement under (b).

(c) Ability to translate at sight ordinary modern and classical German prose into good English. This may be acquired by reading, in addition to the amount specified in the two unit requirement, at least 300 duodecimo pages of advanced prose and verse selected from such works as the following: Freytag, Aus dem Staat Friedrichs des Grossen; Heine, Reisebilder; Schiller, extracts from Die Geschichte des Dreissigjährigen Kriegs, Wilhelm Tell, Die Jungfrau von Orleans; Goethe, selections from Dichtung und Wahrheit, Hermann und Dorothea, Iphigenie auf Tauris; Lessing, Minna von Barnhelm.

NOTE—It is urged that throughout the preparatory course in German careful attention be given to the importance of having pupils acquire a correct pronunciation and to the need of giving them the opportunity to hear and speak the foreign language. In view of the fact that the class-room work of the College in this subject is almost entirely conducted in German, students wishing to continue the study of the language are advised to secure practice in the use of it, in order that they may be able to understand spoken German based upon the subject-matter of the work prepared, and to reply in simple but connected sentences to questions relating to this work. A simple test of the student's ability to understand spoken German will form a part of the entrance examinations given at the College in September.

Specifications concerning the requirement for an additional unit may be obtained by correspondence with the Secretary of the Board of Admission

ITALIAN

Two unit requirement:

(a) The essentials of Italian grammar, such as inflections of verbs, nouns, and adjectives, the use of pronouns, and the elements of syntax necessary for correct writing and speaking.

(b) Ability to translate simple passages of English into Italian.

(c) Ability to translate ordinary modern Italian at sight. In order to do this, it is recommended that about 300 pages of such works as the following be read: De Amicis, Cuore; Silvio Pellico, Le Mie Prigioni; Renato Fucini, Le Veglie de Neri; Short Stories selected by Wilkins and Altrocchi (Heath), and selections from Goldoni's plays or Manzoni's Promessi Sposi.

It is strongly recommended that Collodi's Viaggio di Giannettino per l'Italia Centrale (or per l'Alta Italia) be read with a careful attention to subject matter and constant reference to the map of Italy; also some short history of the nineteenth century, as used in Italian middle schools.

SPANISH

Two unit requirement:

(a) Grammar. A knowledge of the fundamental grammatical principles. The work should in scope be approximately the same as that contained in Hills and Ford, First Spanish Course; Olmsted and Gordon, Spanish Grammar; or DeVitis, Spanish Grammar.

(b) Composition. Ability to translate at sight a passage of simple English prose into correct Spanish, and to write Spanish from dictation.

(c) Translation. Ability to translate at sight, into good English, the easier modern Spanish texts. This ability may be acquired by the careful reading and translation of about 300 standard pages of prose and verse, the following texts being suggested as suitable: Some carefully graded collection of easy short stories and lyrics; Juan Valera, El pájaro verde; Pérez Escrich, Fortuna; Ramón Carrión and Vital Aza, Zaragüeta; for the second year, Galdós, Marianela; Valdés, José; Alarcón, El capitán Veneno; Becquer, Legends and Tales; Taboada, Cuentos alegres; Blasco Ibañez, La barraca.

NOTE: The candidates should be taught the Castilian pronunciation.

CHEMISTRY

One unit requirement:

A course of at least one year with three lecture or recitation periods a week in addition to laboratory practice. The course should include individual laboratory work comprising at least forty experiments as required by the College Entrance Examination Board. Reports of all experiments should be recorded in the pupil's own words and should contain a statement of the phenomena observed and the conclusions that may be drawn therefrom.

The student must present a certificate covering the entire course and signed by the teacher. Printed forms for this purpose will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

PHYSICS

One unit requirement:

The preparation should cover the elements of the subject, as presented in such texts as those of Millikan and Gale, Black and Davis, or Gorton. Experimental demonstrations should form an important part of the class-room instruction, and the student should have practice in the solution of simple problems. Throughout the course, special emphasis should be placed upon the illustration of principles by reference to phenomena within the daily experience of the student. Thirty laboratory experiments should be performed by each student. The requirement is identical with that of the College Entrance Examination Board. Each laboratory exercise should be preceded by a clear statement of the purpose of the experiment.

A certificate signed by the teacher and covering the whole course must be submitted. Printed forms for this purpose will be furnished by the Secretary of the Board of Admission upon application.

BOTANY

One unit requirement:

The course in Botany should include the elements of morphology, anatomy, physiology, and ecology, especially of the higher plants, together with some study of the leading groups.

The student is required to present a note-book of drawings and notes which represent actual laboratory and field study for one year, and must show training in observation, accuracy and generalization. This will count at least one-third in determining admission.

The requirement is identical with that of the College Entrance Examination Board, and is described in detail in Part II of the second edition of Ganong's Teaching Botanist. Any standard modern text-book may be used.

While this course is recommended, equivalents for parts of it will be accepted if worked out in the same manner; thus, a more detailed knowledge of the leading groups of plants may be offered, or scientific knowledge of the familiar flowering plants; but mere terminology, or knowledge from books only, will not be accepted.

ZOOLOGY

One unit requirement:

A course of one year, with recitations and laboratory work, closely following that prescribed by the College Entrance Examination Board. The original laboratory note-book, recording the study of about eight animals representing the chief groups, must be submitted by each candidate.

BIOLOGY

One unit requirement:

A course of one year, with recitations and laboratory work, as prescribed by the College Entrance Examination Board. The original laboratory note-book, recording biological experiments and the anatomical study of a number of representative animals and plants, must be submitted by each candidate.

ASTRONOMY

One unit requirement:

The course of study must include the elements of descriptive Astronomy with special reference to time problems, a working knowledge of almanacs, star-maps, and globes. Acquaintance with the principal constellations is fundamental, and it is essential that training be given in the use of simple apparatus for finding angles and time.

Among the observations which should receive special attention are: locating a north and south line by the sun or by the North Star, fixing the intersection of the ecliptic and horizon in different seasons, mapping constellations with reference to the horizon, tracing diurnal and annual paths of heavenly bodies, and finding the error of a common watch from a sun dial.

The methods desired in exercises and observations are illustrated in Byrd's Laboratory Manual in Astronomy.

GEOGRAPHY

One unit requirement:

The elements of Physiography and Meteorology, occupying a year, five hours a week, of which two hours are given to laboratory exercises. Topics to be emphasized should be: the earth as a globe, the oceans and lands, as in Davis's or Dryer's Physical Geography; the atmosphere, as in Tarr's Physical Geography, and the simpler parts of Davis's Elementary Meteorology. The laboratory work should consist of systematic, progressive observation of meteorological phenomena and correlation of these elements with the facts shown on weather maps and the statements of the text. A few field excursions in the autumn and spring should be devoted to the observation and description of processes of land sculpture and types of land forms illustrated in the locality. Note-books and laboratory records, endorsed by the teacher, must be submitted at the time of the examination.

MUSIC

One unit requirement:

The one unit in music may be either: A, harmony, or B, a combination of a less advanced requirement in theory with a practical study: piano, voice, violin, or violoncello.

A. Harmony: The examination will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have had one year's systematic training, with at least three lessons a week, or its equivalent. The candidate should have acquired:

1. The ability to harmonize, in four vocal parts, simple melodies of not fewer than eight measures, in soprano or in bass. These melodies will require a knowledge of triads and inversions, of diatonic seventh chords and inversions, in the major and minor modes; and of modulation, transient or complete, to nearly-related keys.

2. Analytical knowledge of ninth chords, all non-harmonic tones, and altered chords, including augmented chords. Students are encouraged to apply this knowledge in their harmonization.

It is urgently recommended that systematic ear-training, as to interval, melody, and chord, be a part of the preparation for this examination. Simple exercises in harmonization at the pianoforte are recommended. The student will be expected to have a full knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use.

B. The following requirements in theory combined with piano, voice, violin, or violoncello.

Theory. The examination in theory will be adapted to the proficiency of those who have had one year's systematic training, with at least one lesson a week, or its equivalent. The candidate should have acquired:

(1) A knowledge of the rudiments of music, scales, intervals, and staff-notation, including the terms and expression-marks in common use; (2) the ability to analyze the harmony and form of hymn-tunes and simplest pieces for the pianoforte, involving triads and the dominant seventh chord and their inversions, passing tones, and modulation to nearly-related keys; (3) the ability to harmonize, on paper, in four vocal parts, melodic fragments involving the use of triads and the dominant seventh chord and their inversions, in major keys; (4) in ear-training the ability to name, as played by the examiner, intervals involving tones of the major scale, the three principal triads, and the dominant seventh chord in fundamental position, and the authentic, plagal, and deceptive (v or v' to vi) cadences; to write a diatonic, major melody of not more than four measures in simple time, involving half, quarter, eighth, and dotted notes, the melody to be played, in its entirety, three times by the examiner.

1. Piano. Combined with the theory requirement above. A practical knowledge of various kinds of touch; the ability to play scales, major and minor, in simple and canon forms, in sixteenth notes (at metronome speed, ♩ = 100), and three-toned and four-toned arpeggios in sixteenth notes (at metronome speed, ♩ = 74); the ability to play, with due regard to the tempo, fingering, phrasing, and expression, six studies of the grade of Hasert, Opus 50, Book 1, or Czerny, Opus 299, or the Bach Two Part Inventions; a sonata of the grade of Haydn's Sonata in E minor, or Mozart's Sonata in A major; four pieces by standard composers, of the grade of Mendelssohn's Songs without Words, Nos. 19 and 49, Schumann's Grillen, and Chopin's Nocturne in E flat; the ability to play at sight chorals and such pieces as the first twelve numbers of Schumann's Jugend-Album (Op. 68). A candidate wishing to offer other selections than those specified above, is advised to obtain the approval of the department.

2. Voice. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to sing vocalises of Concone, Op. 9, and not fewer than six of the following songs: Any song by MacDowell, any Schubert song, Brahms Wiegenlied, Grieg "Mit einer Primula Veris," Handel "Lascio ch' io pianga," Giordani "Caro mio bien," Mozart "Wiegenlied," Godard "Florian's Song"; any one of the Weckerlin Bergerettes; any one of the standard Folk Songs; and to play accompaniments of the grade of Concone Op. 9; and to sing at sight music of the grade of hymn tunes of Barnby, Dykes and Stainer and of studies in Abt's Vocal Tutor.

A candidate must give evidence of an accurate ear and of having laid a good foundation in the development of the voice. She must also exhibit to some extent an understanding of song interpretation.

A candidate may offer equivalents for the songs mentioned, on the approval of the Department.

3. Violin. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to play, with due regard to bowing, fingering, tone, intonation, and expression, such studies as those by Dont (Op. 37), Mazas (Op. 36), and Kreutzer; and such pieces as the moderately difficult solos of Spohr, Wieniawski, Godard, and Ries; the ability to read at sight such music as the second violin parts of the string quartets of Haydn and Mozart.

4. Violoncello. Combined with the theory requirement above. The ability to play, with regard to bowing, fingering, and intonation, major and minor scales, 3 octaves, major arpeggios, 3 octaves; studies of the grade of Schroeder, Dotzauer (Fischer Edition, Bk. I), Grützmacher (Bk. I), and Merk; such pieces as the Romberg Sonatas, a sonata by Corelli, and the Concertstück in G major by Goltermann.

5. Students wishing to be examined in the playing of other instruments should correspond with the Music Department.

Students intending to elect practical music who have not offered music for entrance, must take an examination when they register at the beginning of the college year. The examination will be based on the above requirements for entrance, exclusive of the requirement in theory.

SPOKEN ENGLISH

It is recommended that, throughout the preparatory course, special attention be paid to the student's enunciation and use of the voice.

ADVANCED STANDING

Candidates for an advanced class must fulfill the requirements for admission to the Freshman Class, and, unless coming from other colleges, must be examined in the studies already pursued by the class which they wish to enter.

Students from other colleges who desire to enter an advanced class must send to the Secretary of the Board of Admission a marked catalogue of the institution from which they enter, indicating the courses of study taken, a letter of honorable dismissal from the President or Dean, an official copy of their college records, and a detailed statement of the subjects credited to them at entrance. Letters from the teachers under whom they have studied, giving the amount and quality of the work pursued, are also desirable. A detailed statement of the work done in Physical Education should be presented for credit.

Students who have entered other colleges by certificate will in general, on entering Smith College, be required to take not less than four examinations unless they give evidence of exceptionally high scholarship. These examinations may be entrance examinations by the Old Plan or New Plan or examinations on college work as determined by the Board of Admission.

All applications for advanced standing should be made before June 1.

Candidates for a degree must spend at least the Senior year at Smith College; but ordinarily two years of residence will be required.

NON-COLLEGIATE STUDENTS

Women not college graduates, but of an age beyond that of the ordinary undergraduate, who give evidence of a serious purpose and are otherwise properly qualified, may be admitted to single courses of study of an advanced grade, or to supervised research work, in the College, with the approval of the Dean and the instructor concerned. The fees paid by these students shall be at a rate proportional to the regular academic charges for full tuition.

GRADUATE INSTRUCTION

Graduates of Smith College and of other approved colleges may receive instruction, with or without reference to the attainment of an advanced degree. Graduate students are expected to register on the first day of the academic year with the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction in College Hall 14.

Students who are not candidates for a degree may, with the approval of the instructors concerned and of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, take any of the courses regularly offered.

Work for the degree of Master of Arts or of Doctor of Philosophy shall be planned under the direction of the department in which the principal courses are taken, and must have the approval of the instructors concerned and the Committee on Graduate Instruction. Correspondence concerning proposed work for an advanced degree should be addressed to the Secretary of the Committee, Professor Sidney N. Deane, 123 Elm Street, Northampton, Massachusetts.

The degree of MASTER OF ARTS is conferred upon graduates of Smith College and other colleges of recognized standing after the satisfactory completion in residence of a course of study approved by the Committee on Graduate Instruction. If the student's undergraduate course contained less than a Smith College major in the subject chosen for graduate study, she will, as a rule, need more than one year to complete the work for the degree.*

The degree of DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY is rarely conferred, and then only in recognition of high scholarly attainment and of ability to carry on original research. Candidates for this degree must have pursued since graduation advanced courses of non-professional study under suitable academic direction and conditions for at least three years.

The price of tuition for graduate students is $150 a year. For those taking only partial work the fee is one-fourth of this amount for each course. College graduates engaged in professional work in or near Northampton may take partial work at special rates. For particulars they should consult the Secretary of the Committee.

On satisfactorily completing the requirements, graduate students paying the full tuition fee receive the Master's degree and diploma without further charge. The fee for this degree in all other cases is $10. The fee for the Doctor's degree is $25.

* COURSES OF STUDY

The grade of each course is indicated by the first digit of the number. Grade I courses (primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores) have numbers beginning with 1; Grade II courses (primarily for Sophomores and Juniors) have numbers beginning with 2; and so on. See General Regulations 1, p. 122.

A number in black-faced type following a course indicates the examination group to which the course belongs. See General Statements 5, p. 120.

- 38b. The same. †Two hours, second semester. (37)
- Art 16, 25, or 38 combined with any permissible theoretical or historical course may be counted as the equivalent of a three-hour course.

THE MAJOR

Based on 22.

Essential Courses: 31, 32, and two or three hours of courses in Art above Grade II.

Optional Courses: Art 37, 39; Botany 35; French 316a, 316b, 317a, 318b; German 36, 311; Greek 37, 42; History 22, 33a, 31a, 31b; Italian 21a, 21b, 31, 32a, 32b; Philosophy 33.

Fees

A studio fee of $5.00 a semester is charged for each of the courses, 15, 16, 25, and 38; also for 23 if the student is not paying a fee for one of the courses in drawing and painting; and for 34 if the student is not paying a fee for drawing and painting or for 23.

A studio fee of $2.00 a semester is charged for 12, but not required of a student paying a fee for drawing and painting, or for 23.

Other fees, for illustrative material which becomes the property of the student, are: for 11, $1.50 a year; for 39, $1.00 a semester; for 22, 31, 32, or 37, $2.25 a semester.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: MARY MURRAY HOPKINS, PH. D.

INSTRUCTORS: SUSAN RAYMOND, A. M., VERA MARIE GUSHEE, S. M.

ASSISTANT: EVELYN HARWOOD SCHOLL, A. B.

All courses in Astronomy are held in the Observatory.

11. General Astronomy. Elementary facts and principles; direct observations of constellations, motions of sun, moon, and planets; funda-

- mental problems with simple instruments. Class periods for discussion of observation and recitation, two hours a week. Hours for day-time and evening observing and laboratory work arranged individually. The evening observing in autumn and spring averages three hours a week. Three hours, through the year. T. W. at 11; at 12; at 2; at 3; Th. F. at 11; at 3. Professor Bigelow, Associate Professor Hopkins, Miss Raymond, and Miss Gushee. (17)
21. General Astronomy. A course similar to 11 but of a more advanced character. The hours are arranged as in 11. Not open to students who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. T. W. at 12; Th. F. at 2. Associate Professor Hopkins and Miss Raymond. (17)
- 22a. Advanced Observing Course. Sun-spots, planetary and lunar detail, variable stars; use of portable telescopes; collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 23b. Advanced Observing Course. Use of equatorial, transit instrument, and sextant; collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. †Three hours, second semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 31a. Transit Instrument. Spherical and practical astronomy; observations to determine time and instrumental corrections. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 21 or 22. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 31b. Transit Instrument. Theory and application of Least Squares. Observations for latitude. For students who have taken 31a. †Three hours, second semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 32a. Equatorial Telescope and Filar Micrometer. Theory, observations and reductions. For students who have taken 11 or 21 and have taken or are taking Mathematics 21 or 22. †Two hours, first semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 33b. History of the modern development of Astronomy. For students who have taken or are taking 22a or 23b, 31, or 32a. †Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.
- 34b. Teachers' Course. Training in the methods of teaching Astronomy as a laboratory science. Not counted within the minimum. For students who have taken 11 or 21. †One hour, second semester. Professor Bigelow.
- 41a. Celestial Mechanics. Open to Seniors who have taken or are taking 31a, 31b, or 32a and have taken or are taking Mathematics 31a. †Three hours, first semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.

- 41b. Celestial Mechanics. Open to Seniors who have taken 41a or Physics 36. †Three hours, second semester. Associate Professor Hopkins.

THE MAJOR

Based on 11 or 21.

Essential Courses: 31a, 31b, and one other three hour course (not 34b); and Mathematics 21 or 22.

Optional Courses: Astronomy, any courses.

Mathematics, any courses.

Physics, any courses.

Chemistry, 11, 12, 13, 21a and 21b, 31a and 31b, 33, 35, 36.

Geology, 11, 31a, 32b, 35b, 36a, 36b.

BIBLICAL LITERATURE AND COMPARATIVE RELIGION

PROFESSORS: IRVING FRANCIS WOOD, PH.D., D. D.,

ROBERT SENECA SMITH, A. M., B. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: CLARA WILLOUGHBY DAVIDSON, A. M.

11. Biblical Introduction. The literature of the Bible in its historical setting. For Sophomores only. This course satisfies the requirement in Biblical Literature. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in C. 7; at 10 in C. 7; at 11 in L. H. 23; at 2 in C. 7; at 3 in C. 7; Th. F. S. at 9 in C. 7; at 10 in C. 7; at 11 in C. 6. Professors Wood and Smith, and Assistant Professor Davidson. (29)

Greek 16b. Greek Testament. For Sophomores. Accepted in the Biblical requirement for the second semester of Bible 11. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9. Professor Caverno.

21. Biblical Introduction. Special emphasis upon the growth of religious and ethical thought during the successive stages of the Old and New Testament periods. For Juniors only. This course satisfies the requirement in Biblical Literature. Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 9 in C. 6. Professor Wood.

History 32a. Early Oriental Civilizations. The history of Egypt, Babylonia, Assyria, Phoenicia, Arabia, and Palestine, with its significance for later history. Special attention given to the development of ancient society. Open to Sophomores who have taken or are taking History 12. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 7. Professor Gray.

- History 32b. Modern Oriental Civilizations. The history of the Nearer East, India, Japan, and China. Open to Sophomores who have taken or are taking History 12. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 7. Associate Professor Gray.
- [32a. Old Testament Thought. The growth of Hebrew thought to the Christian era, with an inquiry into its relation to the thought of neighboring peoples. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 21. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 12 in Lib. 1. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
- [32b. New Testament Thought. The teachings of Jesus and their relation to current Judaism, with a consideration of their modification during the Apostolic Age. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 21. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 12 in Lib. 1. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
- 34a. The Development of Christian Thought. A study in the history of religion; the more important phases of Christian thought since the New Testament period, with some comparison of kindred subjects in other religions. Text-book, reading, and lectures; one paper. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in C. 6. Professor Wood.
- 35b. Comparative Religion. The history of ethnic religions. Text-book, reading, and lectures; one paper. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in C. 7. Professor Wood.
36. Fundamentals of the Christian Faith. The Christian approach to the questions concerning the relations between God and human life, with special reference to the problems of modern thought and social readjustment. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 2 in C. 7. Professor Smith.
37. The Historical Environment of Early Christianity. An introduction to the study of political, economic, cultural, and religious conditions in the Mediterranean World from the Conquest of Alexander the Great to Constantine, with reference to the evolution of Early Christianity. †Three hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Davidson.
38. Hebrew. Elementary grammar and syntax. Reading from the Hebrew Bible. †Three hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Davidson.
- [39. Religious Education. An inquiry into the psychology and pedagogy of religious instruction and an application of the principles to the subject matter of religious education. †Two hours, through the year. Omitted in 1920-1921.]

BOTANY

PROFESSOR: WILLIAM FRANCIS GANONG, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: JULIA WARNER SNOW, PH.D.,

FRANCES GRACE SMITH, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: HELEN ASHHURST CHOATE, PH. D.,

ELIZABETH F. GENUNG, M. S. A.

INSTRUCTOR: CATHARINE E. KOCH, A. M., M. L. D.

ASSISTANT: SARA BACHE-WIIG, M. S.

All courses in Botany are given in Burton Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Botany. Outline of the fundamental facts and methods of the science. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Three hours, through the year. Dem. M. at 4; Lec. T. at 4 in 6; Lab. A, Th. F. at 9; Lab. B, Th. F. at 11; Lab. C, Th. F. at 2. Professor Ganong, Associate Professor Snow and Assistant Professor Choate.
12. General Botany. Informational course. The salient facts about plants, especially in relation to human activities and interests. A lecture or a recitation and the equivalent of two and one-half hours of demonstration or outdoor study each week. Two hours, through the year. T. at 4 in 6. Professor Ganong and Associate Professor Smith. Can be taken only as a free elective, i.e., not as one of the required sciences, nor in preparation for other courses in the department. Not open to students who have taken or are taking 11.
- 21a. Systematic and Economic Botany. Identification, classification, and uses of plants, studied largely in the field, autumn flora and plants of greatest economic importance. For students who have taken 11, or have offered Botany for entrance. Two or three hours, first semester. †M. at 5 in 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith and Miss Bache-Wiig.

- 21b. Systematic and Economic Botany. Ferns, trees in winter condition, and spring flora, with herbarium methods. For students who have taken or are taking 11. Two or three hours, second semester. †M. at 5 in 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith and Miss Bache-Wiig.
22. Bacteriology and Other Phases of Microbiology. Methods of study of the principal kinds of micro-organisms, including Bacteria, Yeasts and Molds, in their relations to domestic, industrial and Public Health problems. For students who have taken 11 or Zoölogy 11 or 21; also for students who are taking or are planning to take Chemistry 32 or 34. Chemistry 11 or its equivalent is highly desirable, and after 1920-21 will be a prerequisite for the course. Three hours, through the year. Lec. M. at 12 in 6; Lab. A, M. and W. at 2; Lab. B, T. at 10 and Th. at 2; Lab. C, W. at 10, and F. at 11. Assistant Professor Genung.
39. Advanced Bacteriology. Systematic study of micro-organisms and their relations to particular problems of Health and Economics, with special laboratory methods and technique. Students may be assigned special problems in the second semester. For seniors and graduate students who have taken 22. Chemistry 32 and 34 are desirable. †Three hours, through the year. Assistant Professor Genung.
31. Morphology of plants. A study of types selected to illustrate the evolution of the vegetable kingdom, with training in laboratory technique. This is the natural continuation of 11, especially for those intending to teach or to become laboratory experts. Three hours, through the year. Lab. M. T. at 11; Lec. W. at 11; Dem. W. at 12. Associate Professor Snow.
- [32. Plant Pathology. A study of the Fungi and other organisms involved in plant diseases with special reference to their effects on the production of food plants. For students who have taken 11, and have taken or are taking any other course in the Department. Two hours, through the year. †Lec. S. at 9 in 2; Lab. F. at 9. Associate Professor Snow. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
33. Ecology and Plant Geography. A study of the climatic plant formations of the world, their characteristics and distribution, and the anatomical structure of certain type plants from each group. In the spring the study is mainly upon the plant groups as illustrated in the Northampton region. For students who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. §M. T. at 12 in 2. Field trips in the afternoons. Associate Professor Smith.

34. Horticulture. The theory and practice of plant-cultivation and improvement, with a study of the species commonly cultivated, and the elements of landscape gardening. For Juniors and Seniors, or Sophomores by special permission, who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. Lec. Th. at 9 in 2; Dem. F. at 9 in 2; Lab. Th. at 10 or at 2, and F. at 10 or at 2 in L. P. Professor Ganong, Miss Koch, and the Head Gardener.
35. Landscape Gardening. The principles of design underlying gardening and landscape art, with training in a knowledge of the suitable plant materials. For students who have taken 34. Three hours, through the year. §T. W. at 9. Miss Koch.
- 36a. History of Botany. Based largely on a study of original works with especial attention to biography and to botanical education. For students who have taken or are taking 31, 33, or 37. †Two hours, first semester. Assistant Professor Choate.
37. Plant Physiology. Individual study of the fundamental phenomena with training in scientific methods of experiment, measurement, detection of error, induction, exposition, and illustration, and with especial reference to the educational methods and applications of Botany. For students who have taken two full courses in Botany. Three hours, through the year. †Th. F. at 4 in L. P. Professor Ganong, Assistant Professor Choate.
41. Problems, Original studies in Plant Physiology, Morphology, Ecology, Bacteriology, or Landscape Gardening. Open also to Seniors by special permission. †Three or more hours, through the year. Professor Ganong, Associate Professors Snow and Smith, Assistant Professor Genung, and Miss Koch.

THE MAJORS

Based on 11.

Major I. Training in the science of Botany.

Essential Courses: 21 or 33, 31, 37.

Optional Courses:

Botany 21, 22, 39, 32, 33, 34, 36a, 41.

Zoölogy 11, 21, 31, 33, 35.

Chemistry 11, 12 or 13, 21, 31, 32.

Physics 11.

Geology 11, 21.

Major II. Horticulture and Landscape Gardening.

Essential Courses: 34, 33, 35.

Optional Courses: Botany 21, 32.

Art, any combination allowed by the Art Department from Courses 12, 23, 34, 35, 37, 41.

Every student taking major I should make sure that her education in science does not lack some work in Zoölogy, Chemistry, and Physics, while a course in General Geology is desirable.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 21, 31, 33, $2.50 a semester. Other laboratory courses, each $5.00 a semester. No fee is charged in Course 12 or 36a.

CHEMISTRY

PROFESSOR: H. EDWARD WELLS, PH. D.,

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: ELLEN PARMELEE COOK, A. M.,

ELIZABETH SPAULDING MASON, A. B.,

*MARY LOUISE FOSTER, PH. D.,

JESSIE YEREANCE CANN, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: LAURA SOPHRONIA CLARK, A. M.,

ROY RICHARD DENSLOW, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: RUTH STELLA FINCH, A. M., C. PAULINE BURT, A. M.

DEMONSTRATORS: PRISCILLA E. WOOD, A. B., THELMA R. PUTNAM, B. S.

LECTURER: JAMES LEAVITT STODDARD, A. B., M. D.

All courses in Chemistry are given in Stoddard Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Chemistry. One lecture, one recitation and one laboratory period of two and a half hours a week. Three hours, through the year. Lec. A, M. at 10; Lec. B, T. at 10 in 1. Rec. M. T. W. at 10; W. at 2. Lab. M. T. Th. F. at 2; W. at 9 and 10 in 16. Professor Wells, Assistant Professors Clark and Denslow, Miss Finch, and Miss Burt. (19)

12. General Chemistry. For students who offered Chemistry for entrance. Open also, with the permission of the Department, to other students who have had a year's course in Chemistry before entrance. One lecture, one recitation, and one laboratory period of two and a half hours a week. Three hours, through the year. Lec. M. at 12 in 1; Rec. T. at 11 in A.; at 12 in A.; Lab. M. T. at 2; W. at 10 in B. Assistant Professor Clark and Miss Burt.

21a. Qualitative Analysis. The method of systematic analysis for the detection of the metals and the acid radicals, with practice in the analysis of a number of unknown substances. For students who have taken 11 or 12. One lecture, one recitation, and two laboratory periods of two hours each. Three hours, first semester. Lec. Th. at

* Absent for the year.

- 10 in 1. Sect. A: Rec. M. at 2 in A.; Lab. M. 3-5, T. 2-4 in G. Sect. B: Rec. F. at 2 in A.; Lab. Th. 2-4, F. 3-5 in 11. Sect. C: Rec. F. at 10 in 14; Lab. Th. F. 11-1 in G. Each section is limited to 20 students. Associate Professor Cann and Assistant Professor Denslow.
- 21b. Quantitative Analysis. A study of the methods and manipulation of exact quantitative determinations. For students who have taken 21a. One lecture, one recitation, and two laboratory periods of two hours each. Three hours, second semester. Hours and instructors as in 21a.
- 22a. Applications of chemical facts and principles to familiar substances and to the common experiences of everyday life. Lectures and discussions. For students who have taken 11 or 12. Two hours, first semester. M. T. at 2 in 1. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
- [22b. Chemistry in Some Important Industries. A study of the history of chemical manufactures and of the part that chemistry plays in the development and utilization of natural resources. Lectures and recitations. For students who have taken 11 or 12. Two hours, second semester. M. T. at 2 in 1. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
- 31a. Organic Chemistry. The compounds of carbon, chiefly those of the aliphatic series. Lectures and recitations, two hours; two laboratory periods of two hours each. For students who have taken 11 or 12. Sect. A: Rec. T. W. at 9, Lab. M. 9-1; Sect. B: Rec. T. W. at 10, Lab. T. W. at 11; Sec. C: Rec. Th. F. at 9, Lab. Th. F. at 10. Three hours, first semester. Associate Professor Cook and Miss Finch. (34)
- 31b. Organic Chemistry. Study of the aromatic compounds. Lectures and recitations, two hours; two laboratory periods of two hours each. For students who have taken 31a. Three hours, second semester. Hours and instructors as in 31a. (34)
32. Biochemistry. The chemistry of the lipoids, proteins, and carbohydrates; extraction of typical substances and the study of the changes brought about by the action of enzymes, molds, and bacteria. For students who have taken 21, and have taken or are taking Botany 22. Three hours, through the year. Lec. W. at 12 in 1; Lab. T. 10-1; W. 10-12; Th. 9-12; F. 9-11 in 17. Dr. Stoddard.
33. The Laws and Theories of Chemistry. Lectures and recitations, two hours; laboratory, one period of two and a half hours. For Seniors who have taken 21a and 21b, and Physics 11, or a course in Physics approved by the Department. Two or three hours, through the year. Lec. W. at 2, S. at 11 in 14; Lab. F. 2 to 4:30. Associate Professor Cann.

34. Quantitative Food Analysis. Standard methods of analysis of water and of typical food materials. Lecture or recitation one hour; laboratory practice, five hours. Three hours, through the year. For students who have taken 31a, 21a and 21b. Lec. Th. at 9; Lab. Th. at 10, F. at 9 in D. Associate Professor Mason.
35. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. Lectures and recitations. Prerequisite, 21. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Wells.
36. Inorganic Preparations. Laboratory practice. Open only to students who are taking 35. †One hour, through the year. Professor Wells.
- 37a. Advanced Quantitative Analysis. Laboratory practice. Two hours, first semester. M. T. at 9 in D. Associate Professor Mason.
- 37b. A continuation of 37a. Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Mason.
- 41a. Advanced Work. Special topics in organic or inorganic chemistry. Discussions, reading, and laboratory practice. Open to Seniors by permission. †Three hours, first semester.
- 41b. The same. †Three hours, second semester.
- [42b. Practice in extraction and analysis of biochemical products; the making of preparations; and the study of the current biochemical journals. Open to Seniors who are taking or have taken 32. Two hours, second semester. Associate Professor Foster. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
- [43. Advanced work in the methods of extraction of biochemical products, with analyses of the finished preparation. Discussions, reading and laboratory work. For students who have taken 21, 31, 32, and 33. Three hours or more, through the year. Associate Professor Foster. Omitted in 1920-1921.]

THE MAJOR

Based on 11 or 12, or on 21, if taken before Junior year.

Essential Courses: 21, 31, 33; or 31, 33 and one other course of Grade III.

Optional Courses:

Chemistry: Any courses above Grade II.

Botany 22.

Geology: 11, 31a, 32b.

Zoölogy: 21, 35.

Mathematics: any courses.

Physics: any courses.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: 11 and 12, first semester, $4.00; second semester, $3.00; all other laboratory courses, $5.00 each semester with an additional charge for breakage.

ECONOMICS AND SOCIOLOGY

PROFESSOR: F. STUART CHAPIN, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: *ESTHER LOWENTHAL, PH. D., CHASE GOING WOODHOUSE, A. M.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: JULIUS DRACHSLER, A. M., DOROTHY M.
BROWN, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: ELLA L. SMITH, A. M., HARRIETTE M. DILLA, PH. D.

A. Economics

21. Outlines of Economics. A survey of economic principles and such problems as trusts, railway rates, trade unions, the tariff, and money. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9 in S. 16; Th. F. S. at 9 in S. H. 1. Associate Professor Woodhouse, and Assistant Professor Brown. (30)
311. Economic History of England. The history of English forms of industrial organization as a background for the critical study of modern capitalism. Three years, through the year. Th. F. S. at 9 in Lib. 9. Miss Smith.
- 312a. American Industrial Development. Special treatment of the agricultural, manufacturing, and commercial expansion of the United States. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 3 in S. 22. Dr. Dilla.
- 312b. History and Theory of Socialism. Two hours, second semester. Th. F. at 10 in S. 22. [This course may be elected as a three hour course by students prepared to do additional reading, subject to supervision and examination.] Miss Smith.
- [31a. History and Theories of Economic Control. The relations of the state and the individual in matters of trade and industry based on English history. For students who have taken one course in the Department. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Lowenthal. Omitted in 1920-1921. Next offered in 1922-1923.]
- 31b. The Labor Movement. The wage system, trade unions, labor legislation. For students who have taken one course in the Department. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Dr. Dilla.

*Absent for the year.

- 32a. Money, Banking, Credit, and Foreign Exchange. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in S. 22. Assistant Professor Brown.
- 32b. Public utilities and corporations with special emphasis on the American railway problem. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 11 in S. 22. Assistant Professor Brown.
- [33a. Economic Theory and Theory of Socialism, 1776-1875. The classical economists, Adam Smith to Cairnes. The Ricardian, Socialists and Karl Marx. For students who have taken 21 or 31a or by special permission. †Three hours, first semester. Associate Professor Lowenthal. Omitted in 1920-1921. Next offered in 1921-1922.]
- [33b. Economic Theory and Theory of Socialism from 1875. A critical study of the changes in economic thought since the time of John Stuart Mill and in socialist theory since Karl Marx. For students who have taken 21 or 31a, or by special permission. †Three hours, second semester. Associate Professor Woodhouse. Omitted in 1920-1921. Next offered in 1921-1922.]
- [34a. Economics of Consumption. A study in the cost of living and the retail market. Three hours, first semester. M. at 10 in B. H. 6; T. W. at 10 in G. H. Associate Professor Woodhouse. Omitted in 1920-1921. Next offered in 1921-1922.]
- [34b. The Elements of Public Finance. Governmental revenues and expenditures, with special emphasis upon modern forms of taxation. For students who have taken 21 or 31a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 10 in Lib. 9. Associate Professor Lowenthal. Omitted in 1920-1921. Next offered in 1921-1922.]

B. Sociology

- 26a. The Principles of Sociology. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 10 in G. H., at 11 in B. H. 6; Th. F. S. at 12 in S. 17. Professor Chapin, Assistant Professor Drachsler, Miss Smith, and Dr. Dilla. (28)
- 26b. Social Economy. The problems of poverty, mental defect and crime. A consideration of the economic, physical and mental conditions of human maladjustment with special emphasis on prevention and rehabilitation. For students who have taken 26a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 10 in G. H. and B. H. 6; at 11 in B. H. 6; Th. F. S. at 12 in S. 17. Professor Chapin, Assistant Professor Drachsler, Miss Smith, and Dr. Dilla. (28)
- 36a. The Social, Economic, Political, and Legal Status of Women: A comparative and historical study including the law of domestic rela-

- tions. For students who have taken 21 or 26. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 2 in G. H. Associate Professor Woodhouse.
- 36b. The Family and Child Problems. With special reference to American labor legislation as it affects women and children. For students who have taken 21 or 26. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 2 in G. H. Associate Professor Woodhouse.
- 37a. Methods of Social Research. A critical study of such methods of social research as the historical method; the field work techniques of case work, sampling and complete enumeration; and the statistical method; as they are exemplified in the experience of social surveys and investigations in America and England. For students who have taken one course in Economics and one course in Sociology. †Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 11. Professor Chapin.
- 37b. Social and Economic Statistics. Study and laboratory practice in such statistical methods as collection of material, tabulation, graphic representation, ratios, averages, index numbers, dispersion and correlation. For students who have taken one course in Economics and one course in Sociology. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 11 in Lib. 9. Professor Chapin.
- 39a. History of Social Theories: Beginnings of Sociological Thought. A comparative study of some basic contributions of primitive, ancient and medieval society to modern social theories. B. Practical Courses

All Courses in Practical Music are semester courses and may be entered in the middle of the year, subject to the Entrance Requirements on page 44, 45, and 46 of the Catalogue.

Regulations Regarding Practical Courses. Individual lessons are given in Pianoforte, Organ, Violin and other Orchestral Instruments, and Voice. These lessons are adapted to the proficiency of the student, and may be continued throughout her college course. They are supplemented by class lessons, work in the College Orchestra, ensemble playing, choir accompaniment, and singing in the Choir and Oratorio chorus.

Students contemplating taking courses in practical music should come prepared to take the necessary examinations. Elementary work in practical music is not given.

Two lessons a week with not less than five hours of practice a week count as two hours; one lesson a week with not less than five hours of practice counts as one hour; one lesson a week with not less than three hours of practice may be taken in addition to other practical work and counts as one hour but may not be counted within the minimum. Lessons are 30 minutes in length.

All practical work counted within the minimum of hours must be accompanied by theoretical work. Not more than two hours each year may be thus counted.

Open to students who have taken 25a. Two hours, through the year. M. T. (W.) at 9 in C. 11. Professor Rogers.
A three-hour course may be made by combining this course with 317 or with an hour of 319.
317. Mental Tests. A laboratory study of tests for the measurement of intelligence and other mental functions. Open to students who have taken 25a. One hour, through the year. W. 2-4 in C. 8. Assistant Professor Sinclair.
318. Mental Hygiene and Mental Reconstruction. Topics in abnormal psychology, mental hygiene, and psychotherapy, studied with special reference to applications in education and social work. Open to Seniors whose total previous and simultaneous enrolment, outside of this course, in psychology, education and sociology, amounts to four courses, and to others only by special permission. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. 2-4 in the Psychological Laboratory. Professor Rogers.

A three-hour course may be made by combining this course with 317 or with an hour of 319.

319a. Experimental Studies. Open under suitable circumstances to students who are taking or have taken any course in Psychology beyond 25a. The approval of an instructor in the Department is required for admission. †Two or three hours, or one hour if accompanied by any other course in psychology. Professor Rogers, Assistant Professor Sinclair, and Dr. Comstock.

319b. A continuation of 319a.

42a. Experimental Psychology. Special problems. Open to Seniors with the permission of the Department. Two or three hours, first semester. Professor Rogers, Assistant Professor Sinclair, and Dr. Comstock.

42b. Experimental Psychology. Special Problems. Open to Seniors with the permission of the department. Two or three hours, second semester. Professor Rogers, Assistant Professor Sinclair, and Dr. Comstock.

THE MAJORS

Philosophy

Based on 25a and 21b.

Essential Courses: 31a, 31b, and 32a, 32b and at least two more hours above Grade II.

Optional Courses:

Philosophy: any courses beyond the requirement.

Psychology: 26, 313, 314, 315.

Education: 21.

Biblical Literature: 34a, 35b, 36.

Economics: 21, 33a, 33b.

Sociology: 26a, 26b, 39a, 39b.

History: 31a, 31b, 33a, 33b, 34, 36, 341, 344, 347.

English: 36, 39a, 39b, 211, 312, 322a, 322b.

Greek: 31a, 34a, 31b, 34b, 33a, 33b.

Latin: 36a, 32a.

French: 26, 39.

German: 36, 311.

Italian: 31.

Theoretical courses in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry and Zoölogy with the approval of the Department.

Students including 33 (Aesthetics) in the major may also elect, with the approval of the instructor, from the courses in the various literatures in drama, lyric and poetic form, prose fiction, literary criticism, and from the theoretical and historical courses in the fine arts, including music.

As some of the above options have closer relation with certain branches of philosophy than with others, the student should carefully select her major course with reference to her dominant interests. The course selected is in all cases subject to the approval of the Department.

Psychology

Based on 25a and 21b.

Essential Courses: 26 (unless taken in Sophomore year) and two or more of the following, selected with reference to the interest predominating in the choice of the optional courses: 313, 314, 315 and 319 or 42.

Optional Courses:

Psychology: any courses.

Philosophy: any courses.

Education: any courses.

Physics: 21, 31a, 33a, 25b.

Zoölogy: 11, 21, 31, 35, 36.

Mathematics: 23.

Sociology: 26, 36, 37.

History: 341, 343, 344, 347.

Spoken English: 26, 38a.

Art and Music: any of the theoretical courses combined with two hours of practical work.

The list of optional courses makes it possible for the student to select her major with reference either to general training in psychology or to the bearing on psychology of philosophy, education, language, social studies, or the fine arts. The selection of courses is subject to the approval of the Department.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows:

$2.50 a semester, for a three hour course.

$2.00 a semester, for a two hour course.

$2.00 a year, for a one hour course.

PHYSICS

PROFESSOR: FRANK ALLAN WATERMAN, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: ARTHUR TABER JONES, PH. D.

INSTRUCTORS: HANNAH LOUISA BILLINGS, A. B.,

GLADYS AMELIA ANSLOW, A. M., MILDRED BURNETTE PORTER, A. M.

All courses in Physics are given in Lilly Hall.

11. Elementary Physics. Laws and properties of matter, sound, light, heat, electricity, and magnetism. Lectures and recitations two hours a week; laboratory work one period of two and one half hours a week. Not open to students who offered Physics for entrance. Three hours, through the year. Lab. M. at 2; T. at 10; T. at 2; W. at 10; Th. at 10; Th. at 2; F. at 2; S. at 10, in 17. Rec. M. at 10; M. at 11; Th. at 10; Th. at 11; Th. at 12; S. at 10; S. at 11, in 23. Lec., F. at 11; F. at 12, in 13. Professor Waterman, Miss Billings, Miss Analow, and Miss Porter. (25)

21. Laboratory Physics. Advanced measurements in mechanics, sound, heat, light, electricity, and magnetism. Lectures on laboratory practice. Lectures, one hour; laboratory two periods. For students who have taken 11, or who offered Physics for entrance. Three hours, through the year. Lec. T. at 2, in 13. Lab. A, M. at 2; Lab. B, T. at 3, in 12, 16, 18. Lab. C and Lab. D to be arranged. Professor Waterman and Miss Analow.

23a. Mechanics and Properties of Matter. Reading, recitations, and lectures illustrated by qualitative experiments. For students who have taken 11, or who offered Physics for entrance, and who have taken or are taking Mathematics 11 or 12. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 10, in 13. Professor Waterman.

25b. Electricity and Magnetism. This course includes the practical applications of electricity and the study of dynamo electric machines. Lectures, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 10, in 13. Professor Waterman.

31a. Sound. The physical theory of sound, the physical basis of music, and architectural acoustics. Lectures, demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 9, in 13. Associate Professor Jones.

32b. Heat. Nature of heat, kinetic theory of matter, heat engines, elements of thermodynamics. Reading, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9, in 13. Associate Professor Jones.

33a. Light. Nature of light, optical instruments, defects of optical systems, interference, and the application of interference methods. Reading, experimental demonstrations, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 11, in 13. Associate Professor Jones.

34b. Spectroscopy. The theory of the methods employed. The applications of spectroscopy in astro-physics and in the development of the electron theory. Lectures, experimental work, and recitations. For students who have taken 23a. M. T. W. at 11, in 18. Three hours, second semester. Miss Analow.

36. Analytical Mechanics. The conditions for equilibrium and the equations of motion for particles, systems of particles, and rigid bodies. Reading, solution of problems, and recitations. For students who have taken, or are taking, Mathematics 21 or 22. †Three hours, through the year. Th. F. S. at 9, in 13. Associate Professor Jones.
- 38a. Theoretical Physics. Selected topics. Lectures, reading, and recitations. For students who have taken, or are taking, Mathematics 21 or 22. M. T. W. at 12, in 13. †Three hours, first semester. Professor Waterman or Associate Professor Jones.
- 38b. Continuation of 38a. †Three hours, second semester.
- 41a. Selected problems assigned for investigation, experimental work, and discussion. Open to Seniors by permission. The time will be arranged with each student and counted as three hours, first semester. Professor Waterman.
- 41b. Continuation of 41a. Three hours, second semester.
- 42a. Theoretical Physics. Selected topics. Lectures, reading, and discussions. †Three or more hours, first semester. Associate Professor Jones.
- 42b. Continuation of 42a. †Three or more hours, second semester.

THE MAJOR

For students who do not offer Physics for entrance.

Based on Physics 11; Mathematics 11 or 12.

Essential Courses: Physics 23a, 25b, 32b, 33a; Mathematics 21 or 22.

Optional Courses:

Physics, any courses in addition to those required.

Mathematics, any courses in addition to those required.

Astronomy, any courses.

Chemistry, any courses.

For students who offer Physics for entrance.

Based on Physics 21, or 23a and 25b; Mathematics 11 or 12.

Essential Courses: six hours of Physics including 32b, 33a; Mathematics 21 or 22.

Optional Courses as above.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 21, 34b and 41, each $2.50 a semester; Course 11, $5.00 a semester.

SPANISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

PROFESSOR: CAROLINE BROWN BOURLAND, PH. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: ELIZABETH ANDROS FOSTER, PH. D.

INSTRUCTORS: *GRETCHEN TODD, A. B.,

MILAGROS DE ALDA, MAESTRA SUPERIOR NACIONAL.,

JOSEPHINE CUNEO, A. M.

TEACHING FELLOW: JUANA MORENO, MAESTRA NACIONAL.

A. Language

11. Elementary Course. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 9, 11, and 12 in S. 29; Th. F. S. at 9 in S. 13; at 10 in C. 6A; at 11 in S. 29. Professor Bourland, Assistant Professor Foster, S^{ta} de Alda, and Miss Cuneo. (35)
12. Intermediate Course. For students who have entered with two units of Spanish and, with the consent of the Department, for those who have taken 11. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in C. 6A. Miss Cuneo.
21. Prose Composition. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. Taken with 23 it may count as a three-hour course. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 2 in S. 29 and S. 7; Th. F. at 2 in S. 1. Assistant Professor Foster and Miss Cuneo. (18)
22. Course in Phonetics. Sounds and production of consonants and vowels. Principles of accentuation, phrasing, and intonation. Practice in oral reading. Phonetic transcriptions. Dictations. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent and who are taking any other course in the Department, with the exception of 23. One hour, through the year. Th. at 2. S^{ta} de Alda. (33)
23. Spanish Conversation. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. Not counted within the minimum if taken alone. With 21 it may count as a three-hour course. Two hours, counted as one, through the year. M. T. at 2 in L. H. 33; Th. F. at 12 in S. 29; at 2 in S. 19. S^{ta} Moreno.
31. Advanced Prose Composition. For students who have taken 21. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 2 in S. 13. Professor Bourland.
32. Advanced Prose Composition. For students who have taken 31. One hour, through the year. W. at 12 in C. 6A. Professor Bourland.
41. Spanish Historical Grammar. For students who have taken 31. †One hour, through the year. Professor Bourland,

* Absent for the year.

B. Literature

25. Reading and analysis of modern novels and plays. For students who have taken 11 or the equivalent. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in L. H. 33; Th. F. S. at 10 in S. 29. Assistant Professor Foster and S^{ta} de Alda. (35)
- 35a. Spanish Literature of the 17th Century. Cervantes, Don Quijote in part, and some of the Novelas Ejemplares. Lectures, recitations, and collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 and 25 or the equivalent. Three hours, first semester. Th. F. S. at 9 in S. 29. Professor Bourland.
- 35b. Spanish Literature of the 17th Century. The Spanish "Comedia," Lope de Vega, Tirso de Molina, Ruiz de Alarcón, Calderón de la Barca. Lectures, recitations, and collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 and 25 or the equivalent. Three hours, second semester. Th. F. S. at 9 in S. 29. Professor Bourland.
- 36a. Spanish Literature from the death of Ferdinand VII to 1868. Lectures, recitations, and collateral reading. For students, who have taken 11 and 25 or the equivalent. Three hours, first semester. M. T. W. at 9 in S. 22. Assistant Professor Foster.
- 36b. Spanish Literature after 1868. Lectures, recitations, and collateral reading. For students who have taken 11 and 25 or the equivalent. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9 in S. 22. Assistant Professor Foster.
- 37a. Spanish Prose Fiction. Lectures and collateral reading. May be taken only in connection with another Grade III, or with a Grade IV course. Taken in connection with 31 may count as a three-hour course. †One hour, first semester. T. at 3 in S. 13. S^{ta} de Alda.
- 37b. Spanish Poetry from the Poema del Cid through the 19th Century. Lectures and collateral reading. May be taken only in connection with another Grade III, or with a Grade IV course. Taken in connection with 31 may count as a three-hour course. †One hour, second semester. T. at 3 in S. 13. S^{ta} de Alda.
38. Literary relations of Spain with France and England. For students who have a reading knowledge of French or Spanish. Lectures and collateral reading. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Bourland.
45. Older Spanish Literature. The Poema del Cid and other early monuments. For students who have taken 11 and 25, and who have taken or are taking 35 or 36. 45 with 41 may be counted as a three-hour course. †Two hours, through the year. Professor Bourland.

THE MAJOR

Based on 11 or 12.

Essential Courses: 21, 25, 31, 35.

Optional Courses:

Spanish: 36, 37, 38, 41, 45.

French: any Grade III or Grade IV courses.

Italian: any Grade III or Grade IV courses.

History: 313.

Latin: any course above Grade I, except 37.

SPOKEN ENGLISH

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: ELIZABETH VALENTINE LOUDEN, A. B.,

SAMUEL A. ELIOT, JR., A. B., ELIZABETH AVERY, PH. D.,

REBEKAH SCANDRETT, A. B.

INSTRUCTORS: CAROLINE A. YALE, LL. D.,

LUCILE MARSH, A. B., MARY J. GARBER, A. M.

A. Voice

11. Fundamental Course. The purpose of the course is to correct voice and speech defects; to improve speech for every-day life; to give the student a foundation for advanced work in speaking, reading and presenting of plays. The class hours will be used for lectures and for practical experimentation of the student in speaking and reading before a group. The class hours will be supplemented by supervised practice individually or in small groups. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 9 in S. 32; at 2 in *S. 32; T. W. at 11 in *S. 32; Th. F. at 9 in *S. 32 and Students' Building; at 10 in Student's Building; at 11 in *S. 27; at 12 in S. 32; at 2 in S. 27; F. S. at 9 in A. Assistant Professors Avery and Scandrett, Miss Garber, and Miss Marsh. (33)
- 12b. Fundamental Course. Open to those Freshmen who in voice examinations have been advised to take a course for speech improvement. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 9 in L. H. 32. Miss Garber. (33)
22. Voice Training. An advanced course for the correction and development of voice. Prerequisite 11. Two hours, through the year. T. W. at 10 in A.; Th. F. at 10 in S. 27. Miss Garber and Miss Marsh. (33)

* This division is for Sophomores only.

26. Voice Training. A supplementary course to be taken only in connection with courses in the department other than 11. †One hour, through the year. Miss Marsh.
31. Phonetics. A scientific analysis of the sounds of the English language. A study is made of two phonetic systems, Bell and the International. Presented as a general course for students interested in linguistics. No prerequisite but 11 advised. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 10 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Avery and Miss Yale.
- 32b. Phonetics. Analysis of English sounds based on the physiological position of the vocal organs. Recommended for foreign students and students with marked difficulty in enunciation or pronunciation. Three hours, second semester. M. T. W. at 12 in S. 24. Assistant Professor Scandrett.
36. Fundamental Course in Voice and Speech. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have taken no work in the department. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 10 in S. 29; at 12 in S. 27. Assistant Professors Loudon and Scandrett.
- 38a. Problems of Speech Improvement. A study of faults of voice and speech, their correction, and methods for normal development of voice. It is a theory course designed for students who expect to teach or who are especially interested in the problems of speech. Open to students who have had 22 or its equivalent, and who have obtained special permission of the instructor. †Three hours, first semester.
- Speech Clinic. Available for all students whether taking courses in the department or not. Its purpose is to advise students in the right use of the voice and to assist in practice. It will be open definite hours in the week, and other hours by appointment. No credit will be given.†

B. Public Speaking

- [23. Forms of Public Address. Practice in the preparation and delivery of speeches. Open to all students, except Freshmen. Three hours, through the year. M. at 11 in S. 32; T. W. at 11 in A. Assistant Professor Avery. Offered every other year. Omitted 1920-1921.]
- [24. Argumentation and Debate. Oral arguments based on written briefs. Formal and informal debates. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 12 in S. 24. Assistant Professor Avery. Omitted in 1920-1921.]

† Any student in any course may be requested to do corrective work in voice in connection with the course if the instructor in charge thinks it is advisable.

25. Oral Exposition. Gathering, testing and organizing material. Study of style suited to oral presentation. Expository speeches. Parliamentary usage. Technique of group discussion. Open to all students, except Freshmen. Three hours, through the year. M. T. W. at 11 in Students' Building. Assistant Professor Avery.

C. Reading

21. Reading. This course gives training and practice in the reading aloud of various forms of literature. Prerequisite 11. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 9 in A.; at 3 in S. 32; Th. F. at 10 in S. 32 and at 11 in Students' Building. Assistant Professors Loudon, Avery, and Scandrett. (33)
33. Advanced Reading. Prerequisite 21. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 12 in S. 32. Assistant Professor Loudon. (33)

D. Drama

35. Experimentation in Play Production. A study of the theory of staging and of modern tendencies in stage design. Practice in the organization of committees necessary in stage production, in modelling stage settings, and in directing rehearsals. The purpose of the course is to arouse appreciation of the art of the theatre and to prepare students to put on school and community plays. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have had 11 or 21. English 210, 311, and 36 are advised. Two hours, through the year. Th. F. at 11 in Students' Building. Assistant Professor Eliot.
37. Presentation of Dramatic Material. This course is designed to develop the student in voice and pantomime through the presentation of dramatic material. Open to Juniors and Seniors who have had two years of work in the Department. English 311 and 36 are advised. Two hours, through the year. M. T. at 11 in S. 27. Assistant Professor Loudon.

ZOOLOGY

PROFESSOR: HARRIS HAWTHORNE WILDER, PH. D.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: INEZ WHIPPLE WILDER, A. M.,

~~MISS~~ HOWARD MADISON PARSHLEY, Sc. D.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: *MYRA MELISSA SAMPSON, A. M.

INSTRUCTORS: *EMMETT REID DUNN, A. M.,

EUNICE ELIZABETH CHACE, A. B., LOUISE SMITH, A. M.,

LOUISE LANE WILLIAMS, M. S.,

HARRIET CUTLER WATERMAN, A. M.

ASSISTANT: FRANCISCA KING, A. B.

CURATOR: EDITH PRISCILLA BUTLER, A. B.

All courses in Zoölogy are given in Burton Hall unless otherwise stated.

11. General Zoölogy. An introduction to the study of animals. The lectures deal with the fundamental principles of biology and include a comprehensive survey of the animal kingdom. The laboratory work consists of the dissection and detailed study of types representing the principal classes of animals, with practice in classification and the use of the microscope. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Three hours, through the year. Lec. Th. at 2 in 6; Dem. F. at 2 in 6; Lab. A, M. T. at 9; Lab. B, M. T. at 11; Lab. C, Th. F. at 9 (Lab. D, Th. F. at 11); all laboratory work in 19. Associate Professor Parshley and Miss Williams.
21. Anatomy and Physiology of Man and related Mammals. The laboratory work includes the detailed study of the human skeleton, and other human anatomical preparations; the dissection and study of the muscles, nervous system, and viscera, of other mammals; the microscopic study of cells, tissues, and organs; and simple physiological experiments. One lecture, one demonstration, and two two-hour periods in the laboratory. Open also to Freshmen. Three hours, through the year. Section I: Lec. W. at 2 in 6; Dem. Th. at 10; Lab. A, M. T. at 9; Lab. B, M. T. at 11; Lab. C, M. T. at 2 in 31. Section II: Lec. W. at 10 in 6; Dem. Th. at 12; Lab. D, F. S. at 9; Lab. E, F. S. at 11; Lab. F, Th. F. at 2 in 31. Associate Professor Wilder, Miss Chace, Miss Smith, and Miss Waterman. (36)
- [23b. Ornithology. Field work and lectures. The field work consists of identification of the species and observation of the habits of our local birds. This is supplemented by the lectures and the study of museum specimens. Open to students who have taken or are taking a laboratory course in the Department. Two hours, second semester. M. 2 to 4 in 17. Omitted in 1920-1921.]

[24. Natural History of Vertebrates. The study of the habits, habitats, relationships, origin, and history of the local Vertebrate fauna. Lectures, laboratory, and field work. This course may be followed directly by 32. †Three hours, through the year. Omitted in 1920-1921.]

31a. Evolution. Animal Evolution. The historical development of scientific theories of animal origins from the earliest times to the present, especially emphasizing the most recent investigations and theories. Open to Juniors and Seniors. Two hours, first semester. Th. F. at 4 in 6. Professor Wilder.

31b. Anthropology: The Evolution of Man. Comparison of the bodily structure of man and his nearest relatives; prehistoric archaeology; ethnology; and the development of human culture. Open to Juniors and Seniors. Two hours, second semester. Th. F. at 4 in 6. Professor Wilder.

32. Anatomy of Vertebrates. The laboratory work consists of dissections and drawings of a series of typical vertebrates, including a selachian, an amphibian, a reptile, a bird, and a mammal. The lectures are upon the comparative anatomy of vertebrates. For students who have taken either 11, 21, or 24. Three hours, through the year. Lec. Th. at 11 in 17; Dem. Th. at 12 in 17; Lab. F. S. at 11 in 22. Professor Wilder and Miss Waterman.

33. General Embryology, with special Reference to Vertebrates. The laboratory work is based mainly upon embryos of the dog-fish, the frog, the chick, and the pig, and includes the technic of serial sections, drawing with camera, and wax-plate reconstruction. For students who have taken, or are taking, 32. All work in B. H. 8. †Three hours, through the year. Miss Smith.

34. Entomology. The anatomy, development, classification, and ethnology or natural history of insects, with a survey of the literature of the subject, and practice in the preparation of specimens for the cabinet. Lectures, laboratory, and field study. For students who have taken 11. †Three hours, through the year. Associate Professor Parshley.

35. General Physiology. A comparative study of the functions of the animal body. The laboratory work consists of experimental physiology and chemical physiology. For students who have taken 21 or 32, and Physics 11 or Chemistry 11. Lec. S. at 9 in 17; Dem. S. at 10 in 17; Lab. A, Th. F. 9-11; Lab. B, Th. F. 2-4 in 23. Three hours, through the year. Miss King.

36. Genetics and Eugenics. A study of the principles of reproduction and heredity, with practical applications to animal and plant breeding and to the improvement of human society. Lectures, discussions, and laboratory work, including practice in biometry and breeding experiments on animals. For students who have taken 11 or 21. †Three hours, through the year. Miss Williams.
41. Physical Anthropology; observations and measurements of the skulls and skeletons of the principal human races, including both recent and prehistoric forms; also the study and measurements of the facial features and the proportions of the living body. Open to Seniors who have had 21 and 31. A reading knowledge of French and German is necessary. Mainly a laboratory course, with explanatory lectures, reading, and seminary work. †Three hours, through the year. Professor Wilder.

Research Courses

A separate subject is assigned to each student, who selects the main direction of her research from the list following. A reading knowledge of French and German is desirable. Open to those Graduate students who are ready for the work, and to Seniors who have taken the prerequisites asked for.

42. Problems in Vertebrate Morphology and Embryology. 33 is a prerequisite. Professor Wilder and Associate Professor Wilder.
43. Problems in Invertebrate Morphology and Taxonomy, especially Entomology. Students must have had 11, 34, and one other course in the Department. Associate Professor Parshley.
- [44. Problems in Physiology. 35 is a prerequisite. Assistant Professor Sampson. Omitted in 1920-1921.]
- [45. Problems in Animal Distribution and Species-formation. Students must have had three courses in the Department, including 24. Omitted in 1920-1921.]

A Seminary for the presentation of reviews of recent literature and the preliminary report of the results of individual research is held once a week during the year by the Faculty members of the Department, and is occasionally open, by invitation only, to a few advanced students.

THE MAJORS

Based on 11 or 21.

Each student whose major is Zoölogy must include 11 in her course.

Students are advised to select one of the following sequences, in accordance with their preference or their plans for work in the future:

I. For Vertebrate Morphology (Anatomy, Embryology, etc.):

Essential Courses: 32, 33, 42.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 21, 24.

Botany 11, 21, 31.

Geology 11, 35.

II. For Vertebrate Zoölogy (Taxonomy, Ecology, Distribution, etc.):

Essential Courses: 24, 32, 33.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 21, 36, 45.

Botany 11, 21, 33.

Geology 11, 35.

III. For Invertebrate Zoölogy (especially Entomology):

Essential Courses: 24 (or 32), 34, 43.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 36.

Botany 11, 21.

IV. For Physiology:

Essential Courses: 21, 35, 44.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 32, 33.

Chemistry 11, 31.

In case Chemistry has been taken before the Junior year, either

Chemistry 21 or 31, or Physics 11, is advised for Juniors;

and if Chemistry 31 has been taken in the Junior year,

Chemistry 32, or 34, are advised for Seniors.

V. For Medicine:

Essential Courses: 21, 32, 33, or 21, 32, 35.

Optional Courses: Zoölogy 34, 42, 43, 44.

Botany 11, 22.

Chemistry 11, (12), 21, or 11, (12), 31.

Fees

Fees are charged for laboratory courses as follows: Courses 11, 21, 32, 33, 34, and 41; $5.00 a semester. Course 35 has a fee of $5.00, and an additional charge for breakage. Courses 23b, 24, and 36 have a fee of $2.50 a semester. In Courses 42 to 45 there is no set fee, but each student is expected to pay for the material she uses.

REGULATIONS OF THE COURSE OF STUDY

GENERAL STATEMENTS

1. The Administrative Board is constituted as follows:
The Dean, chairman; Dean Mary M. Cook for the Class of 1921; Dean Benedict for the Class of 1922; Dean Barbour for the Class of 1923; Dean McElwain for the Class of 1924; Professor Robert Seneca Smith and Associate Professor Jones.
2. Each student is required to make herself familiar with all regulations governing the courses of study, and to present her course card, properly filled out, at the time and place designated in the Weekly Bulletin. While all possible aid and direction will be given by the Faculty Advisers and the Class Deans, each student will be held responsible for errors in her choice of studies.
3. Sixty hours, including two in Hygiene and Physical Education, are required for graduation. They are distributed among the four years as follows: Freshman, 16, Sophomore, 16, Junior, 14, Senior, 14.
4. In each year the student must carry at least three three-hour courses.
5. Courses which belong to the same examination group may not be taken in the same semester. A number in black-faced type following a course indicates the examination group to which the course belongs.
6. (a) A student may not carry in any year less than the required minimum number of hours, nor more than two hours above the required minimum, except with the permission of the Administrative Board.
(b) No student who has failed to remove an entrance condition may take more than the required minimum number of hours, except with the permission of the Administrative Board.
(c) Any shortage of hours permitted by the Administrative Board may be made up by a corresponding excess of hours distributed over succeeding semesters in any manner approved by the Board.
7. Intensive work in a course, counting as one or two hours in that course and credited within the minimum of hours, may be done by Juniors and Seniors with the approval of the department concerned and the permission of the Administrative Board.

8. No student is allowed to attend a class either as an occasional or a regular visitor except with the permission of the instructor in charge of the course.
9. No credit will be given for French 11, German 11, Spanish 11, or Italian 11, unless the subject is continued through the year.

In general, a year course may not be dropped or entered in the middle of the year except with the permission of the Administrative Board and the consent of the department concerned. When such a course is dropped, the presumption is against allowing credit for the first semester.
10. Any course elected by fewer than five students may be withdrawn.
11. (a) Changes in courses elected may be made only with the permission of the Administrative Board. No petitions for changes of courses will be considered later than September first for the first semester, or after the beginning of the second semester, except for reasons beyond the control of the student.

(b) Requests for such changes must be filed in the office of the Class Deans, on official blanks to be obtained in that office.

(c) If changes on the course card are made necessary by reason of carelessness on the part of the student, a fee of two dollars will be charged.
12. Students wishing to do work during the summer in order to gain college credit must secure in advance the consent of the department concerned and of the Administrative Board.
13. Students who wish to obtain credit for work done at other colleges should consult Professor Irving F. Wood.

THE CURRICULUM

The curriculum has been arranged on the basis of principles and with reference to the methods which educational experience has proved to be adapted to the fulfillment of the clearly defined aims of a college of liberal arts. The student, therefore, before electing her courses for the Freshman year, should read carefully the following outline of the entire college course and should endeavor from the beginning to understand the plan of her own college course as a whole.

Every student should observe carefully that she is dealing with a Group System which regulates her entire course. She should study the groups and attempt to understand their relationship to each year's work and to analyze their meaning for the course as a whole.

It is of the utmost importance for the student to use wisely the elective privileges of the first two years. One of the distinctive features of the curriculum is that it offers the opportunity to pursue courses in any department before the close of Sophomore year. The significance of that possibility lies in the fact that the major subject of the two upper years must be one which has been taken in either Freshman or Sophomore year or in both.

The selection of the major subject is the most important choice which the student is asked to make. It determines largely the character of the two upper years. This question, therefore, should be kept in mind from the beginning. The work of the earlier years should be so distributed among the different groups that the student may acquire the knowledge of the various fields of study and of her own tastes and capabilities that will enable her to choose wisely the subject in which she is to concentrate her effort in the later years of her course.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. All courses are classified in four grades. Those intended primarily for Freshmen and Sophomores are designated as Grade I, for Sophomores and Juniors as Grade II, for Juniors and Seniors as Grade III, and for Graduate Students as Grade IV. In the two upper years at least 22 hours must be above Grade I, of which not less than nine must be above Grade II. In the major subject at least six hours must be above Grade II.
2. The major, which is elected at the close of the Sophomore year, is based upon a two- or three-hour course taken in Freshman or Sophomore year. It consists of five or six hours in Junior year, followed by seven to nine hours in Senior year. It occupies, therefore, twelve to fifteen hours in the two upper years.
3. Major subjects may not be chosen in Spoken English or Hygiene. Practical work cannot be counted within the major, but students offering a major in Music or Art will be permitted to count within the minimum two hours of practical work in each year.
4. Except for the provision made in General Regulation 3 not more than six hours in Group VI may in any year be counted within the minimum, and every course in practical Art or Music so counted must be accompanied by a course in theory. In any case not more than two hours of practical work each year may be counted within the minimum.
5. A student may not carry both practical Art and practical Music within the minimum, and may not elect within the minimum at the same time courses in the three departments of Art, Music, and Spoken English.

GROUPS

- I. English Language and Literature.
- II. Greek, Latin.
- III. French, German, Italian, Spanish.
- IV. Mathematics, Astronomy, Physics, Chemistry.
- V. Geology, Botany, Zoölogy.
- VI. Art, Music, Spoken English.
- VII. History and Government, Economics and Sociology.
- VIII. Philosophy and Psychology, Education, Biblical Literature and Comparative Religion.
- IX. Hygiene and Physical Education.

FRESHMAN YEAR

1. GROUP I. English. 3 hours
 2. GROUP II. Greek or Latin. 3 hours
If a total of 6 units in two classical languages was offered for entrance, the student may elect any subject open to Freshmen.
 3. GROUP III. French, or German, or Italian, or Spanish 3 hours
If the language chosen was not offered for entrance, this requirement may be met in either Freshman or Sophomore year.
If a total of 5 units in two modern languages was offered for entrance, the student may elect any subject open to Freshmen.
 4. GROUP IV. Mathematics, or Astronomy, or Physics, or Chemistry 3 hours
If a science is chosen, a classical language must be taken in Freshman year.
 5. GROUP IX. Hygiene and Physical Education. 1 hour
 6. ELECTIVE 3 hours
The student should observe that in addition to courses in Groups I to IV certain courses in Groups V and VI and History in Group VII are open as electives to Freshmen.
- 16 hours

SOPHOMORE YEAR

1. GROUP IV OR V. Science 3 hours
If Mathematics was chosen in Freshman year, the student may elect any science. If a science was chosen in place of Mathematics, the student must select a subject from Group V, which may be taken in either Sophomore or Junior year.

If this science requirement was taken as an elective in Freshman year, or if 2 units of science were offered for entrance and a science was chosen in Freshman year, the student may then elect any course open to Sophomores.

2. GROUP VII. History and Government 3 hours
If the required course was elected in Freshman year, the student may choose any subject open to Sophomores. If 3 units of History were offered for entrance, the student may take either History or Economics.
3. GROUP VIII. Philosophy and Psychology, or Biblical Literature and Comparative Religion 3 hours
One must be taken in Sophomore year, the other in either Sophomore or Junior year.
4. GROUP IX. Hygiene and Physical Education 1 hour
5. ELECTIVE 6 hours
The student should observe that courses in all departments are open as electives to Sophomores.

 16 hours

JUNIOR YEAR

1. A MAJOR SUBJECT 5 or 6 hours
Continuing a two- or three-hour course taken in Freshman or Sophomore year or in both.
2. A DISTRIBUTION SUBJECT 2 or 3 hours
Chosen from some group other than that of the major.
3. BIBLICAL LITERATURE AND COMPARATIVE RELIGION, OR PHILOSOPHY AND PSYCHOLOGY 3 hours
Whichever was not taken in Sophomore year. If both were taken in Sophomore year, the student may elect any subject open to Juniors.
4. ELECTIVE 2 to 4 hours

SENIOR YEAR

1. THE MAJOR SUBJECT continued 7 to 9 hours
2. A DISTRIBUTION SUBJECT 2 or 3 hours
3. ELECTIVE 2 to 5 hours

 14 hours

DIRECTIONS FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

Students pursuing graduate work should register on the first day of the academic year at the office of the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, College Hall 14. The choice of studies must be approved by the Committee on Graduate Instruction, as well as by the instructors concerned.

The course of study leading to the degree of Master of Arts must be planned under the direction of some one department. It may contain courses from other departments, provided that they are approved by the department in charge and by the Committee on Graduate Instruction as forming part of a coherent group. The course shall be equivalent to twelve hours of work a week, of which at least five must be of Grade IV. The candidate for the degree is required to present some paper or papers in connection with her course, embodying the results of a special study. The required paper, or papers, must be accepted by the department and presented to the Committee on Graduate Instruction for approval on or before the twentieth of May of the year in which the degree is received. The student must pass a written or oral examination in each course taken. The courses counted for the degree of Master of Arts must be completed with distinction. A bound typewritten or printed copy of the accepted paper or papers must be placed by the candidate in the college library.

Grade IV courses are primarily for graduate students. A statement of the Grade III courses which are open to graduate students may be had upon application to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction.

SCHOLARSHIP REGULATIONS

1. Grades are assigned with the following significations: A, high honor; B, honor; C, credit; D, poor; E, failure.
2. In the courses designated as year courses, the final mark for the year's work will be that which the student obtains at the end of the second semester. The mark which the student obtains at the end of the first semester will be treated as final in the application of all scholarship regulations at that time.
3. A failure in a course must be made up either by repeating the subject in class or by taking other work which requires the same number of hours; this work must conform to the regulations of the curriculum applicable to the course for which it is offered as a substitute.
4. (a) A student who has failed in five or more hours of work in a semester receives an official warning.

- (b) A student who receives warnings in two consecutive semesters or in any three semesters is excluded from college, unless special exception be made by vote of the Faculty.
5. (a) For graduation a student must have to her credit a total of 64 semester hours above grade D.
- (b) In each semester eight of the required minimum of hours must be above grade D.
- (c) If more than the minimum number of hours be taken, the requirement of hours above grade D is increased by one for each hour carried above the minimum.
- (d) If less than the minimum number of hours be taken, 60% of the hours carried must be above grade D.
6. (a) Notice of deficiency in the required number of hours above grade D for any semester is sent to the student by the Registrar at the end of that semester.
- (b) This deficiency is removed when the student has made, in addition to her semester class requirement, the number of hours above grade D in which she was deficient.
7. No student will be ranked as a member of the Sophomore Class until she has removed her entrance conditions. Under no circumstances may a student who has an entrance condition not made up enter upon the work of the Junior year.
8. A student who loses credit for hours in her Senior year, but who, in all other respects, has met the requirements of the curriculum, may apply to the Administrative Board for permission to count any surplus of hours carried in previous years toward making up this loss.
9. A student loses her class standing and is rated with the class next below:
- (a) If she receives notices of deficiencies in two successive semesters or in any three semesters;
- (b) If she fails to remove her deficiency in the two succeeding semesters;
- (c) If she has a shortage of more than four semester hours.
10. (a) Class standing lost through deficiency is regained when the deficiency is removed.
- (b) Failure to regain class standing within a year causes a student to be brought before the Administrative Board for special action, with the presumption that she will be excluded from College. The same presumption holds in the case of a student who has lost class standing and who, at the end of the following semester, has a record so poor that the regaining of class standing within a year is impossible. The final disposal of such cases rests with the Faculty acting on the recommendation of the Administrative Board.

11. Any student whose scholarship is generally unsatisfactory, although not coming specifically under the above regulations, may be brought before the Faculty for action and excluded from College.

HONORS

The diploma grades of Summa cum laude, Magna cum laude, and Cum laude are awarded to those graduating students whose grades are sufficiently high. To receive the Summa cum laude or Magna cum laude honor students must also be recommended by the departments in which they have done their major work.

Special honors in particular subjects may be awarded to graduating students on the basis of exceptional attainments and ability. The general requirements for the award are as follows:

1. Twenty-two semester hours of work in the department in which honors are sought, of which at least twelve must be taken in the Junior and Senior years.
2. A grade of "A" in at least one of the courses which constitute this work.
3. An average grade of at least "B" in that part of the work that is done before the Senior year.
4. An average grade of at least "B" in that part of the work that is done during the Senior year.
5. A comprehensive examination or else a special piece of intensive work.
6. The recommendation of all the instructors with whom the student has done work in the subject.

The special requirements are determined by each department.

Seniors who wish to become candidates for special honors should make application to the Committee on Honors not later than December first.

Honors are awarded to members of the Freshman Class on the basis of the grades received in the work of the full year.

ABSENCE FROM COLLEGE EXERCISES

Every student is expected to attend all of her scheduled college exercises, and will be held responsible for the full content of each course of study. No change from division to division is allowed in order to prevent or remove records of absences.

1. Such absences as may occur are classified and handled as follows:

(a) Absences on account of illness. These absences will be excused by the instructor upon the presentation of a signed statement from the College Physician. Students will be given opportunity to make up work which has been missed, when the nature of the work permits it.

(b) Absences on account of illness of members of the family or other serious trouble at home. These absences will be excused by the instructor upon the presentation of a signed statement by the Registrar. Students will be given opportunity to make up work which has been missed, when the nature of the work permits it.

(c) Absences at the beginning and end of vacations, and before and after holidays. Every one of these absences must be accounted for by a signed statement from the Registrar or the College Physician. When these absences come under class a or class b, the work may be made up as at any other time. When the absence is occasioned by some reason other than the reasons included under classes a and b, permission to make up the work missed may be granted at the discretion of the instructor. Absences of this last-named type will be allowed by the Registrar for urgent reasons only.

(d) Absences for other reasons. The responsibility for all other absences rests entirely upon the student.

(1) No student may claim opportunity to make up the work missed.

(2) Absence may reduce the grade in such manner as the instructor may determine.

2. A student who has absences, whether excused or unexcused, numbering more than seven in a three-hour course, five in a two-hour course, or three in a one-hour course must apply to the Administrative Board for permission to enter the examination in that course.
3. Students coming under any one of the following heads will be required to present an excuse from the College Physician or the Registrar for every absence from class.

(a) Students who at the end of the preceding semester have received an official warning or notice of deficiency.

(b) Students in the Freshman Class who by reason of entrance conditions have entered on trial.

(c) Students who on account of social misconduct seem to require special supervision.

ABSENCE FROM EXAMINATIONS

or by letter, within twenty-four hours after the time set for the examination. If the absence is caused by illness, an excuse must be obtained from the college physician in the usual manner. If the reason for absence is regarded by the Registrar as satisfactory, the student will be given another opportunity for examination. If the absence occurs at the time of the midyear examinations, the opportunity will be given within two weeks after the opening of the next semester. If the absence occurs during the final examinations, the opportunity will be given during the examination period in June or at the time of the entrance examinations in September.

Students may not take examinations or tests at the same time as the rest of the class in other than the officially appointed places unless the work is formally supervised.

No student will be excused from an examination given her class except by vote of the Faculty obtained through the department concerned.

GENERAL INFORMATION

RESIDENCE

Smith College has twenty-three halls of residence, housing more than eight hundred students. It is the aim of the College to make these houses homelike and pleasant, as well as to create in them conditions favorable for study. Except for seven of the smaller houses, each has its own kitchen, dining room, and living rooms, and is presided over by a Head of the House, who devotes her whole time to the administration of the house and to personal care of the students in her charge. A member of the Faculty of Instruction lives in each house.

Application for rooms in the halls of residence should be made to the Dean as long before entrance as possible. Such applications are received only from those who have applied for admission to the College and have made the deposit of $10, which is then required. Rooms are assigned to entering students in the order of application, but the assignments will be withdrawn in the cases of students who, in the June preceding entrance, fail to make their admission certain. Order of application is not considered in making assignments after the Freshman year, and order of assignment to the three upper classes is determined by lot.

1. No room can be engaged for a shorter time than one year.

2. A student who accepted a campus assignment before entering College and who wishes in some succeeding year to go into another campus house is at liberty to draw for assignments with her class. With this exception students are not transferred from one of the halls of residence to another.

3. After September 1 students may not give up rooms which have been assigned to them, except in case of withdrawal from College, or other imperative reason.

* 4. Students are not received in halls of residence until the day before the opening of College. The first meal is served at 6.00 P. M.

5. Students of the Freshman Class are expected to give up their rooms at 9.00 A. M. of the Friday before Commencement.

6. Each student must provide her own towels. The necessary bedding and furniture are provided by the College.

7. An extra charge is made for meals sent to a student's room or for extra service.

Students may obtain board and lodging in houses privately owned and managed, at an expense varying from $8 to $20 a week. These houses must be approved by the College, and a list of houses so approved may be had by application to the Dean. Any student who desires to lodge in a house not included in the printed list is required to consult the Dean before engaging her room.

HEALTH

The health of students is under the care of the College Physician, who gives her entire time to the practice of preventive medicine with the teaching of efficient living. Daily office hours are held for consultation, and every student may have free advice upon all matters in any way affecting her health. When College opens, a medical and physical examination of each new student is made by the College Physician and members of the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education. Data from this examination and from the questions answered at entrance are carefully recorded, and it is expected that by this means the College Physician may become thoroughly acquainted with the needs of each individual. Modifications in prescriptions of physical exercise are then made. Reëxaminations are given and these prescriptions changed as often as necessary. No student is allowed to take part in competitive games or heavy gymnastics, or to be a member of basket ball, hockey, or other team, unless pronounced physically fit.

* Exceptions to this rule are made for students whose entrance is assured, but who have some examinations still to take, and for students who are obliged to return early for examinations to remove entrance conditions or complete work. Such students, if they have campus assignments, are received in a house especially designated for the purpose. Information on this point may be obtained at the Office of the Dean. In no case, however, are the houses open before Monday night of examination week.

Health Regulations

1. All absence from academic exercises which is due to illness must be excused by the College Physician.

2. An illness, no matter how slight, must be reported at once to the College Physician by the Head of the House in order that the College may be assured that all possible care is being given the student and may be able to guard other students by investigating the cause of illness.

3. A student ill enough to be in bed for more than a day or two will not ordinarily be allowed to remain in a college house, whether on or off the campus. Cases of illness are cared for at the Elizabeth Mason Infirmary; opportunity for rest and recuperation is given at Sunnyside. No student may be taken for medical treatment to these or to any other institution or private house without the approval of the College Physician.

4. Permission to leave College because of illness must, in every case, be obtained from the College Physician.

5. Any student who has been exposed to a communicable disease while away from College shall not return to College until she has explained the circumstances to the College Physician, and fulfilled whatever conditions shall be deemed necessary in the specific case.

EXPENSES

Tuition $200.00

Fee for graduation 10.00

Board and room in halls of residence 400.00
(This sum includes the washing of a dozen plain pieces weekly.)

[Beginning with September, 1921, the rate charged for board and room will be $450, and this will not, as in former years, include any personal laundry.]

Fee for courses in Art, Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, Physics, and Zoölogy for the college year will be found on pages 53, 55, 60, 63, 110, and 119.

Fee for required course in Physical Education 5.00

Fee for elective courses in Physical Education extending from November 1 to spring recess 2.50

Fees for practical courses in Music:

Vocal or Instrumental, for the college year:

Two half-hour lessons or one hour lesson a week $125.00

One half-hour lesson a week 62.50

Use of room for piano or vocal practice, one hour daily 10.00

Use of practice organs in John M. Greene Hall, one hour daily 25.00

Use of college orchestral instruments, one hour daily 10.00

Use of room for violin or other practice, one hour daily 5.00

Expenses at the Infirmary or Sunnyside:

$3.00 a day at the Infirmary.

$2.50 a day at the Infirmary if students live on campus.

$2.50 a day at Sunnyside.

$2.00 a day at Sunnyside if students live on campus.

A student who requires more nursing than that furnished at the Infirmary must pay for the additional service.

[Beginning with September, 1921, an Infirmary fee of $10 will be charged to all students and will entitle them to two weeks in the Infirmary or Sunnyside without additional payment.]

One-half of the annual fees for tuition and board must be paid in advance at the beginning of each semester. Five per cent. will be added to all college bills which are unpaid at the end of the first month. No deduction will be made for absences, except for prolonged illness.

A few college rooms of extra size and desirability may be had upon the payment of an additional fee of from $25 to $150. There are, also, a few suites, the additional fee for which is, at a maximum, $200. Some suites, however, may be had at a lower price. Information concerning these rooms and suites may be had from the Dean.

Two of the college houses offer less expensive accommodations than the others. One of these is the Tenney House, the gift of Mrs. Mary A. Tenney. The students in this house coöperate in the purchase of food and in the duties of housekeeping. The cost of lodging in Tenney House varies from $35 to $70 a year according to the size and desirability of the rooms. Current prices determine the cost of supplying the table.

In memory of Mrs. Tenney ten scholarships have been established, known as the Tenney Residence Scholarships. These consist of $100 each to be applied toward residence in any college house. They are awarded to students of approved character and scholarship in the Senior and Junior classes upon the recommendation of a committee the chairman of which is Professor Anna A. Cutler.

The Lawrence House, also, offers opportunity for students to reduce their living expenses. Each of the sixty-two students in the house is supposed to take care of her own room and to give approximately an hour a day to the work of the house. For this service a reduction of $150 is made in the charge for board and room. In other words, board and room may be had in the Lawrence House for $300 for the college year. Students desiring to enter this house should make special application to the Dean, not later than March in the spring before entrance.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

A limited number of annual scholarships have been established to assist meritorious students who would otherwise be unable to meet the expense of a college education.

These scholarships are awarded when satisfactory written testimonials are made by persons, not relatives, that such aid is necessary; and such statements must be presented at the beginning of each year, if the scholarship is to be renewed.

The following scholarship funds also have been established:—

The Sophia Ingalls Wallace Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by the Hon. Rodney Wallace.

The Sophia Billings Wallace Scholarship fund of $5,000 also founded by the Hon. Rodney Wallace.

The Rodney Wallace Scholarship fund of $10,000, founded by Mr. Herbert I. Wallace and Mr. George R. Wallace, as a memorial to their father, the Hon. Rodney Wallace of Fitchburg, for twenty-five years Trustee of Smith College.

The Elizabeth Bartlett Phillips Scholarship fund of $5,000 founded by Mr. James Phillips, Jr.

The Mary Nichols Billings Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. Charles E. Billings. According to the wish of the founder, in the award of this scholarship the daughters of missionaries, or those preparing for foreign missionary work, will receive the preference.

The Constance Elaine Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Miss Caroline Phelps Stokes. The benefit of this scholarship is to be given to young women who intend to be teachers, and who otherwise could not obtain a college education. Preference is to be given to those living outside of the United States; failing applicants from abroad, to students from Massachusetts or Connecticut.

The Nellie Eddie Mudge Scholarship fund of $2,000, founded by Dr. Seldon J. Mudge.

The Elizabeth Fobes Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Miss Elizabeth Fobes.

The Emma E. Scranton Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by the friends of Miss Scranton.

The Oakland Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by a non-graduate member of the class of 1895.

The Julia Ball Thayer Scholarship fund of $6,000, founded by Miss Julia Beatrice Thayer, for the education of any deserving students, preference being given to those from Keene, N. H.

The Gannett Scholarship fund of $2,000, given by the Gannett Association of Boston, in memory of Rev. George Gannett, Principal of the Gannett Institute of Boston, on the condition that applicants who are nominated by the executive committee of the Gannett Association, and who present satisfactory evidence of high scholarship, shall be preferred in the award of the scholarship. When no such applicant is presented, the scholarship may be awarded at the discretion of the college authorities.

The Helen Ayer Marden Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by Mr. Frank W. Marden for students of vocal music.

The College Choir and the College Glee Club each contribute funds for a scholarship annually, and the College awards six scholarships in Music each year.

The Class of 1883 Scholarship fund of $1,000, founded by the class of 1883, and given by preference to daughters of members of the class.

The Mary Duguid Dey Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. Donald Dey of Syracuse, N. Y., of the class of 1884, and Alumna Trustee of Smith College from 1896 to 1902. This scholarship is to be awarded to members of the three upper classes on the basis of superior scholarship and ability, preference being given to daughters of clergymen and teachers.

The Mary Lanning Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lanning of Hastings, Neb. This scholarship is awarded to a Sophomore.

The Sadie D. Scott Scholarship fund and the Edith Scott '09, Scholarship fund, each of $8,000, founded by Walter Scott of Butler Brothers, New York, for worthy young women who are unable themselves to bear the expense of a college education.

The Maplewood Institute Memorial Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by the Maplewood Institute Association of Pittsfield, Mass., the income to be given to "some worthy young woman who needs help in her education."

The Arthur Ellis Hamm Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by Elizabeth Creevey Hamm, of the class of 1905, in memory of her husband, Captain Arthur Ellis Hamm, the income to be awarded to a member of the Freshman Class on the basis of the mid-year record. In 1920, awarded to Sarah Randle Riggs of Constantinople, Turkey.

The Bessie T. Capen Scholarship fund of $5,000, founded by the graduates and former students of the Capen School.

The Augusta E. Corbin Scholarship Fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. James Owen Foss (Mabel Chick, '05) the income to be awarded to a student for whom a college education would otherwise be impossible.

The Christina Rounds Memorial Scholarship Fund of $3,000, founded by The Alumnae Association of Miss Round's School (Brooklyn), the income to be given preferably to students from Brooklyn.

The Charlotte Graves Cross Scholarship Fund of $4,000, founded by Raymond W. Cross and Harvey B. Graves, the income to be given preferably to students from Rochester, New York or vicinity. Application for this scholarship may be made through the Smith College Club of Rochester.

The Latin-American Scholarship fund of $7,500, founded by the Class of 1890. This scholarship is given to a student from a Latin country, or, if no such applicant is presented, to a student from some other foreign country.

By vote of the Board of Trustees on October 17, 1919, the payment of tuition fees is remitted to all students who have been residents of Northampton for three years before the date of their admission, provided that they are able to satisfy fully the requirements for admission without condition; and this remission is continued throughout their college course, provided that they maintain their class standing and conform to the regulations of the College.

A scholarship of $200 is granted annually to a graduate of Smith Academy in Hatfield, entering the Freshman class, the candidate to be nominated by the authorities of Smith Academy.

The Helen Kate Furness Prize fund of $1,000, founded by Horace Howard Furness, LL.D., the income of which is awarded for the best essay on a Shakespearean theme. There is no restriction on the length of the essays, but in general they are not to be shorter than 4,000 or longer than 10,000 words. The essays should be handed in at the President's office on the first Monday after the Easter recess, signed with an assumed name and accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the real name of the competitor. The competition is open to all undergraduates. The subject for 1920-1921 is "Shakespeare's Ecclesiastics"; for 1921-1922, "Sleep and Dreams in Shakespeare."

The Clara French Prize fund of $5,000, founded by Mrs. Mary E. W. French, the income to be given to that member of the Senior Class who has made the greatest progress in the study of English language and literature. Awarded in 1920 to Violet Alleyn Storey of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Mary Van Kleeck Prize fund of $500, founded by Amy G. Maher, '06, the income of which is awarded for an essay on "Women in Industry."

Two tables of the value of $50 each are maintained by the College at seaside laboratories for the benefit of students who show marked proficiency in the departments of Zoölogy and Botany.

The sum of $50 annually is contributed by the College toward the maintenance of a woman's table at the Stazione Zoologica at Naples. This table is under the control of the Naples Table Association, and is assigned for convenient periods throughout the entire year to graduates of Smith and other women's colleges. Application for this should be made to the Secretary of the Association, Mrs. Ada Wing Mead, 283 Wayland Ave., Providence, R. I.

The College is one of the institutions coöperating to support the Classical School at Athens and Rome. The reports of these schools are sent regularly to the College, and graduates will be welcomed to all the privileges which the schools offer.

The sum of $100 annually is contributed by the College toward the maintenance of the American School of Archaeology at Jerusalem. Any of our graduates may enjoy the privileges of the school, and may compete for the annual fellowship, which yields $800 a year.

A prize of $200 is offered to the student who, entering by the Old Plan, passes the best examination in all the subjects required for admission. Competitors for this prize must complete these examinations in one or two examination periods. In September 1920, this prize was awarded to Celia Spalter of Hartford Conn., who was prepared for college in the Hartford Public High School.

A similar prize of $200 is offered to the student who passes the best examinations under the New Plan. In September, 1920, this prize was awarded to Rose D. Fitzgerald of Holyoke, Mass., who was prepared in the Holyoke Public High School.

FELLOWSHIPS

Six fellowships, of the value of five hundred dollars each, have been established by the Trustees of Smith College

for the encouragement of advanced work in the various departments of study. They are open to women graduates, of not less than one year's standing, either of Smith College or of other colleges of equal rank, and are awarded annually, subject to renewal at discretion. While established primarily for study at Smith College, they may be used, especially in the case of graduates, or those who have been graduate students or members of the Faculty of Smith College, for study elsewhere in this country or abroad, with the consent of the department concerned and of the Committee on Graduate Instruction. It is expected that each applicant will submit to the Committee specimens of her work for examination by the department in which she desires to study. Non-resident fellows are required to register at the beginning of the college year with the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, and they should report to him the scope and nature of their work. The holders of these fellowships in residence at Smith College are required to render some assistance, not instruction, and not to exceed six hours a week in the respective departments. They are not to undertake remunerative employment, but are expected to devote most of their time to a specified line of work under the direction of the instructors, and to present a thesis, embodying the results of their studies, at the end of the year. The work so done may be taken to qualify them for an advanced academic degree. A bound type-written or printed copy of the thesis must be placed in the college library by the holder of a fellowship. Applications for these fellowships should be sent with the proper credentials by March fifteenth to the Secretary of the Committee on Graduate Instruction, Professor Sidney N. Deane, 123 Elm Street, Northampton, Mass.

The Smith College Alumnae Association and the Inter-collegiate Community Service Association offer a joint fellowship of $450 to a graduate of Smith College. The fellow is in residence for the nine months of the fellowship year in either the Boston, New York, or Philadelphia College Settlement, taking in connection with practical work at the Settlement, academic work at the Boston School for Social Workers, at Columbia University, or at Bryn Mawr College. Application should be made to Miss Hilda Smith, Chairman of the I. C. S. A. Fellowship Committee, Bryn Mawr, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

A fellowship of $500 is offered by the Alumnae Association of Smith College to a member of the graduating class who is selected by the Faculty Committee on Graduate Students. The holder may study at Smith College or at some other approved institution.

The Smith Students' Aid Society offers annually a fellowship of $500 for training in vocational work other than teaching. This fellowship is open to members of the graduating class and to alumnae of not more than two years' standing. Applicants must give evidence of suitable preparation for such work, and, in general, preference is given to those who otherwise would not be able to obtain this training. Application should be made before February fifteenth to Miss Helen A. Choate, Tyler Annex, Northampton, Mass.

STUDENTS' AID SOCIETY

The Smith Students' Aid Society, organized in 1897, offers, to the extent of its means, loans of varying amounts to students of approved scholarship and character from the three upper classes. These loans are payable within three years after the graduation of the class to which the student belongs, and bear no interest during that time. If for any reason the loan is not returned at the expiration of three years, interest at the rate of four per cent. is charged, due notice of the same being given. Contributions to the work of this Society may be sent to its Treasurer, Mrs. James A. Webb, Jr., Madison, N. J.

APPOINTMENT BUREAU

The College maintains an office which has general supervision over the remunerative work undertaken by undergraduates, and in which Seniors and alumnae who wish professional positions may be registered.

Steady employment, such as waiting on table for board, may often be found for members of the three upper classes. Students of the Freshman Class can rarely do much outside work without damage to health or scholarship; and it is generally better for a student to delay her entrance to college until she is ready to meet the expenses of the first year. Students wishing any kind of employment are urged to register with the Appointment Bureau, and correspondence on the subject of self-help is invited. The Director is glad to give assistance or advice whenever it is within her power to do so.

The Bureau registers graduates at a charge of one dollar, no further fee being required in any case. Full particulars are kept on file as to the training, equipment, and experience of all those who are on the lists. Information from the records is supplied freely to those desiring to engage teachers, social workers, secretaries, laboratory assistants, etc. Address, Appointment Bureau, Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

LECTURESHIP FUND

The nucleus of an Alumnae Lectureship Fund, established in 1910 by the gift of $1,250 from the class of 1885, was increased in 1915 to $1,567. The income of this fund is used each year to provide a lecture by a distinguished scholar not connected with the College. In 1919-1920 this fund secured on January 9 a lecture under the auspices of the department of English by Professor John Livingston Lowes, Ph.D., Professor of English in Harvard University.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS

In connection with many of the departments, clubs are organized under the joint management of teachers and students, for advanced or special work supplementing that of the class-room, for securing lecturers from abroad, and for stimulating an interest in the wider aspects of the work of the departments. Membership in these clubs is by election, to which students of approved standing are eligible. No student may belong to more than three clubs, including the departmental clubs, the musical clubs, the literary societies, the Current Events Club, the Debating Union, the Dramatics Association, the Polity Club, and Spectator. The departmental clubs are:

The Biological Society, The Clef Club, Colloquium, Der Deutsche Verein, El Club Español, La Société Française, The Greek Club, The Mathematical Club, The Oriental Society, The Philosophical Society, The Physics Club, The Sociology Club, The Studio Club, Telescopium, Il Tricolore, The Voice Club.

LECTURES AND CONCERTS

In addition to the regular courses which constitute the curriculum the College provides a large number of open lectures by distinguished speakers from other universities at home and abroad and from the outside world.

The Music Department organizes a series of concerts given approximately monthly. Appearances of the following artists have been arranged for the present academic year: The Boston Symphony Orchestra, Povla Frijsch, Fritz Kreisler, Pablo Casals, and Louis Graveure.

The Department of Art organizes at intervals special loan exhibitions which supplement the collections of the Hillyer Art Gallery.

GENERAL SURROUNDINGS

Northampton is attractively and conveniently situated in the beautiful Connecticut River Valley eighteen miles north of Springfield on the line of the Boston and Maine Railroad. The advantages it offers in its care of public health and safety and in its churches, library, and hospital make it a desirable setting for the College.

COLLEGE HALL, which includes lecture and recitation rooms, contains also the offices of administration and a large hall for general academic purposes.

SEELYE HALL, which was given by friends of President Seelye with the understanding that the building should bear his name, contains department offices, and twenty-three recitation rooms which seat altogether fifteen hundred students.

THE JOHN M. GREENE HALL, given by Mr. John D. Rockefeller and other donors, and named in honor of the senior member of the Board of Trustees, is an auditorium, the seating capacity of which is nearly twenty-three hundred. It contains an exceptionally fine four-manual organ, which was given by the class of 1900 as a memorial to Mrs. Cornelia Gould Murphy, and two accessory two-manual organs.

THE LIBRARY, the gift of Mr. Andrew Carnegie and other donors, is centrally located in relation to the academic work, and occupies a building of modern construction and equipment. In addition to department seminar rooms, containing special collections, there are general reading and study rooms of ample size furnished with reference books to meet the needs of the student body. The number of books and pamphlets in the library is 82,802. The open shelf system permits free access to this collection of books to students as well as to officers of the college. For the encouragement of cultural reading a room has been attractively furnished in which to provide for leisure hours the works of standard authors in the best editions. The atmosphere of the room is that of a private library where reading for its own sake may be enjoyed.

LILLY HALL OF SCIENCE, the gift of Mr. Alfred Theodore Lilly, contains the lecture rooms, laboratories, and library of the department of Physics.

BURTON HALL, on the Lower Campus, was opened for use by the Departments of Botany and Zoölogy in September, 1914. It is an ample building of the most modern type of fireproof construction, and is provided with the best equipment for the study of the life sciences.

STODDARD HALL, in part the gift of the class of 1895 and their friends, and named in honor of John Tappan Stoddard, Professor in Smith College from 1878 to 1919, was built in 1898 and has been enlarged by a considerable addition in 1918. It is very fully equipped with lecture room, library, laboratories, class-rooms, offices for instructors, and the latest appliances for chemical work.

THE OBSERVATORY, given by President L. Clark Seelye and Mr. A. Lyman Williston in honor of their wives, Henrietta Chapin Seelye and Sarah Tappan Williston, is furnished with an equatorial telescope of eleven inches aperture, a four-inch transit instrument with zenith level, a sidereal clock, and two chronographs. An addition built and furnished from the Eliza Appleton Haven Fund, contains a large lecture and laboratory room with flat roof for observing, four portable telescopes, alt-azimuth instruments, simple apparatus for teaching astronomy, and a six-inch equatorial for student use.

MUSIC HALL contains class, teaching and practice rooms, and a recital hall in which is located the music library. The department is equipped with 15 grand and 40 upright pianos, and with player-pianos and victrolas. It has the use of the four-manual organ and the two two-manual organs in John

M. Greene Hall, as well as of a large three-manual organ in Assembly Hall.

THE HILLYER ART GALLERY, the gift of Mr. Winthrop Hillyer, is provided with studios and exhibition rooms, and contains extensive collections of casts, engravings, and paintings, illustrating the history and characteristics of ancient and modern art. Graham Hall, a large lecture hall fitted with lantern and screens, has been added to the gallery as the gift of Mrs. Christine Graham Long of St. Louis, of the Class of 1910.

THE ALUMNAE GYMNASIUM, given by members of the Alumnae Association and their friends, contains a large hall arranged for gymnastic exercise and indoor sports, dressing-rooms, and a swimming-tank.

THE STUDENTS' BUILDING, built mainly by the efforts of the students and the alumnae, and designed to be the centre of the social life of the students, contains a large hall for social purposes and rooms for the student organizations and the departmental clubs.

THE LYMAN PLANT HOUSE, the gift of Mr. Edward Hutchinson Robbins Lyman, in memory of his mother, Anne Jean Lyman, comprises nine ample and well-stocked green-houses, devoted to illustration of the vegetation of different climates and the provision of material for laboratory study, together with attached physiological and horticultural laboratories.

THE BOTANIC GARDEN, designed for horticultural study, embraces a large collection of trees and shrubs arranged about the college grounds, and also an herbaceous garden containing sections to illustrate plant classification and habits.

SUNNYSIDE, the gift of Mrs. John Storer Cobb, provides a most attractive and comfortable home for students who need temporarily the rest afforded by quiet surroundings and comparative isolation.

THE ELIZABETH MASON INFIRMARY, the cost of which has been met by a fund raised by the Alumnae Association, was opened in 1919. Its name commemorates Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Howland, a graduate of the Class of 1904 and daughter of Mr. Frank H. Mason of Akron, Ohio, whose gift completed the fund. It is a fire-proof building which affords thirty-eight beds for the use of students and which has been carefully designed to serve the peculiar purposes of a college infirmary.

THE ALLEN RECREATION FIELD, the gift of Mr. Frank Gates Allen, is a ten-acre field not far from the campus where such sports as hockey, tennis, archery, cricket, volley ball, clock golf, and basket-ball may be played. An attractive club-house, maintained by the Athletic Association, is situated on the field.

BEQUESTS

Gifts to the college may take the form of scholarships, of professorships, of additions to the material equipment, or of contributions to the permanent endowment fund. Special conditions may, of course, be attached to any gift.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give and bequeath to The Trustees of Smith College, a Corporation established by law in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of $.....to be invested and preserved inviolably for the endowment of Smith College, located at Northampton, Mass.

ORGANIZATION OF THE SCHOOL

The Smith College Training School for Social Work is a graduate professional school offering work that falls into three divisions:—a summer session of eight weeks of theoretical instruction combined with clinical observation; a training period of nine months practical instruction carried on in coöperation with hospitals and settlements; and a concluding summer session of eight weeks of advanced study. The summer sessions of the Training School are held at Smith College, Northampton, Massachusetts. The practical instruction in field work over a period of nine months, from September to June, is arranged by placing students with hospitals and settlements in Boston and New York, and other large cities, where their field work is under continual supervision both locally and centrally by the staff of the Training School, and where group conferences with instruction are provided. The duration of the training course is thus fourteen months, including a month of vacation between successive summer sessions, making thirteen months of intensive study and practical work. The course begins in the first week in July and continues till the last week in August of the following year.

Public attention to mental hygiene, stimulated by general interest in war neuroses and also by recent studies of the factor of mental disorder in criminology, is beginning to create a widespread demand for psychiatric social workers. The rapid extension of the public health movement, with its insistence upon the social aspects of both hygiene and disease, has made the existing supply of medical social workers wholly inadequate to meet the present demand. That the value of agencies for community service is well recognized, is indicated by the present demand for "community organizers," but there is an acknowledged need of a more adequate training for the workers in this special field.

Graduates of the school fill responsible positions in social service departments of hospitals, with the Red Cross, with the New York State Charities Aid Association, with state committees for Mental Hygiene, with Charity Organization Societies, and other progressive social agencies. Pioneer work has been done by two graduates as executive heads of new social service departments in two Western hospitals. Salaries received in such positions by graduates of the classes of 1919 and 1920 range from $1200 to $2000 a year.

The school employs the new methods of training for social work. First, the psychological approach to social problems is emphasized in all of its courses; second, students are made acquainted with the applications of the scientific method in sciences bearing upon social problems—biology, psychology, sociology, psychiatry, and medicine; third, emphasis is laid on the discussion method of teaching rather than the use of the usual lecture system, in an endeavor to train for fearless and resourceful thinking about social problems; and fourth, the intense group life of the students in college dormitories and in continual association with their instructors permits a high degree of concentration.

The method of continuous practice is believed by the sponsors of the school to afford the best practical training. To become completely assimilated into the organization, the student must give full time to the work. To obtain the richest possible experience, the student should be on duty regularly and without interruption. In our opinion, practice work with social cases and social conditions cannot be carried on satisfactorily with intensive instruction, since it is not possible to regulate human problems, so that experience will run parallel with theoretical instruction. There is great value for drill and discipline as well as depth of experience in the uninterrupted practice and in the continuity of theoretical study which the present plan provides.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION

A. NEW STUDENTS

The training courses in Psychiatric Social Work, in Medical Social Work, and in Community Service are open to graduates of colleges of approved standing and to a few exceptional persons of equivalent preparation. The tuition fee for these courses is $100.00, payable in two installments of $50.00 each, at the beginning of the first and second summer session. Admission to the summer sessions of the Training Courses is contingent upon agreement to complete the practical work. Credit will be given for previous practical work of approved character.

B. SOCIAL WORKERS AND TEACHERS

The summer courses are open to social workers of approved experience and teachers of approved standing. The tuition fee for one summer course is $50.00.

Inquiries and applications for admission should be addressed to the Director, Smith College Training School for Social Work, Northampton, Massachusetts.

REGISTRATION

Registration of all students will take place from 10 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 to 5 p. m. on Tuesday, July 5th, 1921, in Room 7a, College Hall, Smith College. As registration will be followed immediately by an assembly of all the school, students should plan to complete their registration before five o'clock.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS AND EXPENSES

During summer sessions all students will be lodged in Smith College dormitories. The charge for room and board is $85.00 for the eight weeks. During the practice period students are expected to maintain themselves. As far as possible, students interested in the course in psychiatric social work will live in adjoining rooms in the dormitory. The same plan will be followed with reference to the other groups. The resident teaching staff and visiting lecturers will, as a rule, also be lodged in the same dormitories so that students and teachers may become well acquainted by close association outside of class room as well as during class exercises.

Smith College is situated in Northampton, one of the most beautiful spots in New England. The Berkshire Hills are within distance of short trolley rides, the peaks of the Mount Tom and Mount Holyoke Ranges are visible from the College Campus. There are many beautiful walks to these nearby hills. The Connecticut River flows by Northampton and at the foot of the campus is Paradise Pond, an attractive place for boating and canoeing. Northampton is about forty minutes ride north of Springfield, which is approximately midway between New York and Boston.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A few scholarships providing tuition and living expenses at summer sessions of the Training School are offered to meritorious students who would otherwise be unable to meet the expense of graduate training. Application should be made to the Director before May 1st. The candidate should (1) state specifically reasons for making application, (2) give two references to persons who are not relatives, who may be consulted on this matter.

Some internships in hospitals for students in the practice course in psychiatric social work are available on application to the Associate Director.

MISS DAVIES, and visiting lecturers, 6 hours a week.

ORGANIZATION OF PRACTICE WORK

Students in psychiatric social work are placed for nine months' practice in social work with psychiatric cases in hospitals and social agencies in Boston, New York, and in 1920, in Cincinnati. The students in the case work courses are under the supervision of Miss Jarrett, the Associate Director, and meet for systematic instruction in weekly case conferences with the following group leaders in each of the cities mentioned: Boston, Miss M. C. Jarrett; Cincinnati, Mrs. R. H. Boyle; and New York, Mrs. M. J. Powers. In the particular institutions in which they are placed they are under the immediate supervision of a local supervisor.

Students in medical social work are placed for nine months' practice in social case work with out-patient departments of general hospitals in Boston, and in 1920-1921, in New York. In Boston, Miss Ida M. Cannon of the Massachusetts General Hospital, is the group leader. A local supervisor directs their work in the social service department of the hospital in which they are placed.

Students in community service are placed for nine months' practice in settlements and neighborhood centers in Boston, New York or Philadelphia. Local supervisors direct their work in each settlement or neighborhood center.

Upon recommendation of the supervisors, students may be advised to take specified courses offered by local schools for social work. Required reading amounting to six hours a week is assigned for the practice period by instructors of the summer session. Theses subjects are selected by January first and approved by February first of each year.

CALENDAR

Summer Session	July 5 to August 30, 1921
Practice Period	Sept. 1, 1921 to July 1, 1922
(Vacation of four weeks taken during this period to be arranged in consultation with Supervisor in charge.)
Summer Session	July 5 to August 30, 1922

GRADUATION

Students who satisfactorily complete the fourteen months training courses and present a satisfactory thesis receive the diploma of the Training School.

Social workers and teachers who satisfactorily complete a summer session receive a certificate of attendance.
